EDITORS REVIEW.—Gentlemen:—I observed the fact announced in your journal that W. J. YOUNG, Esq., will be a candidate for re-election. We do not know whether any one may think it worth while to contest the same, but as some of the readers of your paper may have little occasion to become familiar with the workings of the official duties of a magistrate, we desire to call attention to one or more facts.

We print a synopsis of the proceedings of the Republican State Convention on second page.

Personal.

CHAS. T. ARCULAUROS, of Orange, N. J., is visiting his brothers-in-law, the Messrs. HAWES, at Greenwood. He visited Bradford Encampment last week.

C. E. GLADDING is talked of as a candidate for the legislature next year, and he would make a good one.

J. DOUTRICK, who has been engaged in the merchant tailoring business here for the past two years, left for his home in Bethlehem last evening. Mr. D. has made lots of friends in Towanda, and leaves a good reputation.

W. R. FASSETT was yesterday taken to the Insane Asylum at Danville, where we have no doubt he will be restored, and clothed in his right mind, very soon.
