JACOBS is selling clothing cheaper than ever.

The largest stock of Hats and Caps just received at M. E. ROSENFIELD'S.

Borough election one week from next Tuesday.

Call in and see our stock of spring Hats and Caps at M. E. ROSENFIELD'S.

I O. O. F.—Leah Lodge, No. 29, D. of R., regular meeting this evening at 7 o'clock. A full attendance is requested.

D. W. SCOTT & Co., have been making quite extensive repairs and changes in their Grocery Store.

FOR RENT.—One house on 2d street and one on Mechanic street. Enquire of W. J. YOUNG.

There is talk that two new primary school buildings are to be put up the coming season, one in the First and the other in the Third Ward.

"Send me another ham," said a customer at McCABE'S yesterday. "My family don't eat any other meat, since we have tasted them. We are pleased to corroborate all that the REVIEW has said about them."

I. O. OF G. T.—The next session of the Northern District Convention of Good Templars will be held at Athens, Feb. 24th and 25th. Fraternaly,

E. EUGENE CHUBBUCK,
District Sec'y.
North Orwell, Pa., Feb. 1, 1880.

The proverb "A prophet is not without honor except in his own country," does not hold good in regard to Loyal Sock coal. It is exceedingly popular here at home, and growing in favor every day. At close of business last evening Mr. MALLORY had twenty unfilled orders. The excellent quality of the coal, gentlemanly and courteous treatment of customers, and last, though not least, liberal and judicious advertising, account for the large trade at his yard.

FERNANDO MCINTOSH, of McIntosh Hollow, near Canton, Pa., while working in his mill on Saturday last, had his right hand badly sawed, losing nearly one half of it. The physician sent for, by some mistake did not arrive until the next evening, when the hand had become so swollen that an operation became necessary. The hand was amputated at the wrist, but the arm continued to swell and became so greatly inflamed that a second amputation was performed, leaving the patient in a critical condition.—Elmira Free Press.

JESSE EDSALL, former deputy sheriff under E. O. BEERS, fireman on the Northern Central railway, left here this morning at three o'clock, on his regular train. At Roaring Branch his engine ran into the caoose of a freight train, and his left arm was so seriously injured that it was amputated at the shoulder. The engineer of the train was seriously if not fatally injured.—Elmira Free Press, Feb. 5.

Fresh made candies at FITCH'S.

The Sheriff will sell quite a number of lots of land to-day.

The last hop of the season comes off at BROWN'S next Monday evening.

Personal.

N. C. ELSBREE was substituted for his brother in the State Convention.

The latest styles of Spring Hats just received at M. E. ROSENFIELD'S.

Sheriff Dean was a conspicuous and influential member of the State Convention, and was made spokesman for the delegates from this Congressional District.

LIZZIE MEANS treated quite a number of her young friends to a sleigh ride yesterday.

At the last meeting of Mantua Hooks, the resignation of J. R. KITRIDGE and J. S. HAMMAKER were presented, and accepted by the company.

Treasurer GRANT disbursed about $60,000 last year, for the county.

FITCH, the confectioner, keeps the best cigars.

A party of North Towandians are to enjoy a sleigh ride to-morrow. The SMITHS, HORTONS, MILLS' and HOLLONS will pay a visit to BENJAMIN KERRICK'S family, in Asylum.

O. D. KINNEY, of this place, and C. C. JADWIN, of Wayne, are the delegates from the 15th District to the Republican National Convention. Hon. F. C. BUNNELL, of Wyoming, and J. P. TAYLOR, editor Independent Republican, Montrose, are the alternates.

The retirement of W. H. NICHOLS from the Lehigh Valley railroad, on March 1st next will be regretted by a great host of people who have traveled on his train, and felt gratified to be in the care of so good a conductor. Mr. NICHOLS will go into the hat and cap business in Wilkes-Barre, attended by the best wishes for his success of his friends all along the line on which he has for so long a time punched tickets "in the presence of the passenger."—Easton Free Press.

To all of which we heartily say amen.

MINNIE, daughter of our enterprising merchant, G. L. BOSS, celebrated her twelfth birthday anniversary last evening. About twenty of her companions paid their compliments, and were handsomely entertained. CORA JOHNSON presided at the piano, and the little folks enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent. The young hostess was the recipient of a valuable gold ring, as a birthday present.

A solemn and impressive service took place in North Towanda a few days since. Our friend, E. R. DELONG, as is well known, is seriously ill, and has not been able to leave his house for some months. At his own request he was baptized on Saturday last, his wife joining him in the sacrament. Rev. C. H. WRIGHT performed the ceremony, and afterwards administered the Holy Communion.

Mr. DELONG has always been a believer in the Christian religion, but, like many others, shrank from a public profession of a crucified Saviour, while in the enjoyment of health—but it is one of the grand consolations of the Gospel, that the only way of salvation, faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, and compliance with his commands, is always open. Mr. D. regrets more than any one else can, that he has so long delayed so important a step, and if he could make his voice heard, would counsel all to follow his example now, without waiting as he has done.

It was a sad yet glorious sight to see husband and wife uniting in vows which bind them in a holier union. The officiating clergyman was deeply affected by the sight.

"With the heart man believeth unto righteousness, but with the lips confession is made unto salvation."

ALECK ELSBREE did not attend the State Convention at Harrisburg. President JEWETT forgot to notify the conductor that ALECK was coming, and the train went off without him. Fortunately, N. C. ELSBREE was on hand, and could on a pinch act as substitute.—Athens Gazette.
