Maple sugar, of this year's make, warranted genuine, is sold at the stores in town.

A Washington excursion train will pass over the L. V. to-night.

The Episcopal Mite Society will meet tomorrow evening at the house of GEORGE D. STROUD, Esq. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Wednesday of this week, being the first day of Lent, or "Ash Wednesday," there will be service in Christ Church at 10:30 A. M. and 4 P. M.

Don't forget the entertainment to be given this evening in the hall. Those not wishing to stay to the performance after supper, need not pay the admission fee. Children will be admitted for 15 cents.

A little Miss in the Third Ward, who evidently has not enjoyed the instruction of "the Church," was told by a companion the other day that she could not do a certain thing on Ash Wednesday "Well." replied the little dissenter, "I don't care if it's dirt Wednesday."

What more important and useful object of public good can we attain now in Towanda, than a library, from which our children and ourselves may draw amusement, instruction, and ennobling influences. Show your approval of such a project, and do all you can to make it a fact, by coming to the library entertainment at the hall to-night.

The Court House bell was rung yesterday morning to notify Judge MORROW that the jury in the case of the Commonwealth vs. VANN and BARNES, charged with burning the barn of GUY SMITH, had agreed upon a verdict. The jury were sent out Saturday afternoon, and failed to agree in time to report that evening. They found the defendants not guilty, but directed that they pay the costs.

A "leap year" party will come off at the residence at WILLIAM GRIFFIS, on Wednesday evening of this week. The occasion will be in honor of Miss EMMA GRIFFIS, and a large number of her associates are expected to be in attendance. The girls are to do the "inviting," and of course no young man will be so ungallant as to "give the mitten" to the fair one who may indicate her partiality for him, by asking the pleasure of his company for the evening.

Times have changed. Some years ago, not many, an apprentice to the printing business was expected and required to remain on duty until the work of the day was completed, but now, like the "jour," the devil thinks he must "skedaddle" as soon as the bell of SS. Peter and Paul indicates that the hour of six has arrived. To this change of custom our readers who failed to receive the REVIEW, Saturday evening, must attribute the cause. One of our compositors left in the morning without notice, which delayed the paper until late in the afternoon, and as the carrier had only completed half his route at 6 o'clock, our up-town readers were left without a REVIEW. The like shall not occur again.

Fresh made candies at FITCH'S.

The famous trotting horse "Mallory," which was sold last fall to a gentleman in New York for $10,500, is dead. The valuable animal died of pneumonia a few days since.

You can get a good supper—ice cream, cake and jelly included—for 30 cents, from six till half past seven o'clock at the Hall. At eight o'clock, after an overture by STULEN'S Orchestra. GILMORE'S Columbia will be given. The SMITH Family, and two other good plays will follow promptly. Supper, or cake and ice cream alone, will be served after the plays are done.

Personal.

REV. DOCTOR STEWART honored the REVIEW office with a call Saturday.

F. PAGE, a prominent coal dealer of Detroit, is visiting Supt. BLIGHT, of the Loyal Sock colliery.

HERBERT BONFEY takes charge of the mails on the S. L. & S. RR. during Mail Agent SHERMAN'S illness, and has already become very proficient at the business.

Hon. JOSEPH G. PATTON spent Sunday at "Woodside," with his uncle, Maj. HALK.

WILL ELMENDORF and wife, of Sayre, were in town yesterday.

While proceeding to his office on Friday last Esquire TIDD fell, injuring one of his limbs quite seriously. He is out again this morning, but unable to navigate very comfortably.

JOHN NOBLE, the accomplished foreman of the Reporter job office, who has been on the sick list for some time, is "on duty" again, to the joy of his many friends.

Senator GENANE informs us that we were in error in stating that the acting Chairman of the Greenback Executive Committee of 1878, was in the Republican Convention last week. The Senator says the gentleman referred to never was a "True Greenbacker."

Mr. EDWIN B. COLE is superintending the removal of the greens from Christ Church today.

M. S. PARSONS, who has been attending an Electropathic Institute in Philadelphia, for some months, paid the REVIEW office a call Friday. He was on his way home, at Columbia X Roads, where he expects to begin the practice of the healing art, by means of electricity.

Mr. F. E. BARBER, who was but lately appointed City Marshall by the Council, has resigned that office, and purchased the interest of Mr. McDERMID in the well-known firm of McDERMID, MILLIKIN & MYERS. During his brief administration Mr. BARBER made a most efficient officer, and we trust will be successful in his new enterprise.—McPherson (Kan.) Republican.

ANGIE KINSBURY invited half-a-dozen of her young friends and school-mates to a sleigh ride on Saturday. The young lady's father, Councilman KINGSBURY, handled the reins, and the mamas of the happy party felt no anxiety as to the safety of their little ones, all of whom expressed themselves perfectly delighted with the ride.

Court Proceedings.

Com vs James Vann and Clarence Vargason—Burning barns. Jury find defendants not guilty, but that they shall pay the costs. Court grant license to R. Caton, Merchant Dealer, Towanda Boro.

C M Hakes vs ES Hakes. M U Merrill vs Melissa Merrill—Subpœna in divorce directed to be issued in each case.

Mary T LeFever vs Jonas LeFever—Court direct Sheriff to make proclamation.

John M Pike vs Wm M Segar—Rule to open judgment and Sheriff enjoined from proceeding further until the determination of rule.

M. M. Fenner vs L C Palmer—Bond approved.

The Rev. JOSEPH COOK, in a lecture on spiritual manifestations said: "If the presence of spirits, good and bad, were to be proved, I should be only the firmer believer in the Bible, with all its whole supernatural history. If spirits that 'peep and mutter,' to use the Scriptural phraseology, are abroad in the world, and if there be need of warning modern generations as the ancient ones were warned, I wish to listen to that warning. I am not in danger of supposing that these revelations which mislead men and women only too often into erratic opinions and mischievous conduct are from on high. I find that when good angels appeared in sacred history, they flamed like the sun. The angel that stood at the mouth of the sepulchre could not be looked upon. I do not read the account of such appearances in our modern circles. I do not think it has been proved at all that spirits can communicate with earth, nor that the experiments prove anything except that mentalism is not true. The more you prove the better; I think you can prove nothing of consequence, except that there is a phisic force, and that the place of materialism is in fragments on the horns of Jupiter's moons."
