An Inquiry.

EDS. REVIEW.—Gents: I notice that it has been quite extensively published in the county and outside, that Bradford county is out of debt. Is the statement correct? If so, what means the entry on debit side of the Treasurer's account of overdraft at First National Bank, $14,198.35? I am not much of an accountant, but it seems to me that the county owes, or did owe the bank that amount on the first of January. What do you say?

MEDDLESOME.

Respectfully referred to Mr. Lewis, clerk to Commissioners, for an answer.—Eds.

We learn from the New York papers that the healthful and inspiring amusement of archery is being revived in that city and will be kept up with a vigor as the season advances.

The first of a series of archery meetings of the New York Club was held in the drill room of the Ninth Regiment Armory, in East Twentysixth street, last week. There was a good muster of ladies and gentlemen, the former competing for the monthly prize which consisted of a choice edition of "Thompson's Witchery of Archery," which was won by Mrs. De Luna with a score of 364. Miss Morton was second, having made 329 points. The prize for which the sterner sex contended was a badge of honor—a blue and gold ribbon—which was carried off by Mr. Breeze, who scored 530, followed by Mr. Sutton, who made 450 points. The club promises to be most successful, and matches with the Oritani Archers, of Hackensack, N. Y., and the Axham Archers, of Williamsburg, are announced to come off shortly. Practice meetings are held in the armory every Saturday night by permission of Colonel Rydner.

A frightful accident occurred near Bradford Monday morning. Two men took a hundred pounds of nitro-glycerine in a sleigh to carry it to Coleville; the sleigh upset four miles out of the city. One of the men was thrown fifty feet and instantly killed. The other escaped death in a singular manner. A hole was torn in the frozen road bed 20 feet in length and 15 in width. In this excavation he was found covered with debris, but still alive. His escape from instant death is regarded as almost a miracle. The sleigh was blown to atoms, and both horses were killed. A one-story-and-a-half frame building, fifty feet distant, was shaken to pieces by the concussion. A woman was sitting in the house at the time but escaped serious injury. A large frame dwelling house, five rods away, was completely wrecked but did not fall. A woman and six children were in the building at the time, but suffered no further injury than a terrible shock. Windows, mirrors and wall ornaments were smashed to atoms. A barn was also wrecked by the concussion.

Bishop Coxe forbids the Episcopal society at Sodus to engage a minister before they pay the $300 due the former rector. The Penn Yan Express gets into a moralizing strain and thus speaketh: That's sensible. A church that will, from any cause, deprive its pastor of his just dues, had better disband, for it certainly cannot do anything to the glory of God. And those professing Christians who owe honest debts, which they could cancel if they were inclined to, had better pay a little more regard for honesty before they go much further on life's journey. In that last day, when the Accountant of the universe shall open His books, the man who shall find recorded against him evidences of unatoned fraud toward his fellow men, will, we believe, find it extremely difficult to obtain entrance through the golden gates to the Eternal City. In the estimation of the just there are but few greater offences than a profession of goodness on the part of hypocrites.
