A special meeting of Towanda Lodge, K. of P., is called for this evening, to take action in regard to the funeral of one of their members, E. R. DELONG.

The subject of a recent lecture in Mansfield, Pa., was "Mysteries in an egg shell." As the subject for a lecture, that is certainly a fresh one.—Elmira Advertiser.

Eggsactly so, but then if kept too long it may become stale.

Professor Vennor has written from Montreal to the Albany Argus, to caution all to put up the danger signals in the shape of coal bins. His second snow storm is coming right away, and the second cold wave will be here in little over a week:

"The second cold period in February will reach us on the 22d, 23d, 24th and 25th days. This it is probable, will be extremely cold along the valley of the St. Lawrence and Ottawa rivers, northern United States, and to the westward. February will certainly end cold. The second heavy snow storm of the month should—by my theory—come on us about the 15th, and this bids fair to be heavy, with drifts and fairly cold weather. We have yet to get our heaviest snow falls of the winter, and some of these are certain to extend through March. Up to the 15th the weather should be moist."

E. REUBEN DELONG, who died at his home in North Towanda yesterday morning, was one of the most prominent men of the township. Commencing life with nothing but a stout heart, strong hands, indomitable perseverance and untiring industry, coupled with prudent economy and clear business foresight, he accumulated a handsome competency. After spending fifteen or twenty years clearing up a farm in Asylum township, in 1864 he purchased the property he has since occupied in North Towanda. As an evidence of the esteem in which he was held by his neighbors, it may be mentioned that he was several times elected Constable of the township, and was also tax-collector for many years.

When the Order of Patrons of Husbandry was instituted he became a zealous Granger, and was elected first Worthy Master of Oscawana Grange, a position he continued to hold until declining health prevented him from discharging the duties. He was also elected Master of the county Grange, and Steward of the State Grange.

Mr. DELONG was always an active politician, and was several times mentioned in connection with important offices; was twice elected to the important office of County Auditor, and for the past seven years had been Deputy U. S. Marshal.

He leaves a wife, but no children. He was 58 years old. His aged mother is still living.

The funeral will take place at the house tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock, and will be under direction of the Knights of Pythias, of which order deceased was a member.

TROY, February 11, 1880.

On Tuesday morning of this week, the citizens of Troy were suddenly saddened by the announcement of the untimely death of Mr. LESTER G. VANHORN, and a man by the name of CAMPBELL—by the explosion of a boiler in a steam saw mill, owned by the former, and situated upon Armenia mountain, six miles from Troy.

The mill was a new one and has been in operation but a few weeks.

The accident was caused by the weight of steam within the boiler being so great, combined with the temperature of the air without, as to overpower the strength of it, and it gave way with tremendous force.

There were employed about the mill at the time six hands, including Mr. VANHORN, who, with his usual activity was superintending the work. Three of these were without the mill—skidding logs—while Mr. VANHORN was firing the engine, and Mr. MAHLON LUTHER and Mr. CAMPBELL were employed at the saw. The men without the mill were suddenly startled by a loud report, and looking in the direction from which the sound came, saw mill, logs, engine, stone, timber and men high in the air.

Searching among the ruins they found the dead bodies of VANHORN and CAMPBELL, also LUTHER, badly hurt, but still living.

Mr. VANHORN'S death falls as heavily upon the community as upon his family and a large circle of friends, for he was an earnest Christian, a man foremost in every good deed, and a friend of all. He was a prominent member of the Troy Farmers Club, and of the Grangers.

Mr. WALTER GERNETT, of the firm of GERNETT & BALLARD, was quite seriously injured by the explosion of a coal stove at his house on Tuesday morning.

The meetings at the Methodist and Presbyterian churches are meeting with great success. Some fifty conversions are announced.

R. J. BURT paid his friend in this place a flying visit last week.

The Dramatic Club and the P. B. T. O., are to appear soon.

DIED.

BILES.—In North Towanda, Pa., April 26, 1879, Mrs. Sarah Biles, wife of John Biles, aged 71 years.

BILES.—In North Towanda, Pa., Feb. 6, 1880, Mr. John Biles, aged 78 years.

Thus the aged parents of the wife of the proprietor of this paper have been laid away to rest, after a long and well-spent life. Only about nine months intervening between their deaths. For a period of fifty-four years they traveled life's journey together, a pleasure experienced by comparatively few wedded people. Their children numbered ten—eight of whom are living and married—who deeply mourn the loss of their kind, affectionate and indulgent parents. On Friday of last week the father's eyes ceased to behold a number of those dear to him upon earth, to open to meet his wife and two children who had crossed the threshold of eternity before him. Sooner or later death comes to all men. It enters the household with its silent tread. Its icy hand is no respecter of persons, invading the home of the poor and the mansion of the rich at its will. No matter how much love is lavished upon a household idol, it may be crushed and destroyed while the charnal house opens wide its gaping mouth to receive its remains. But with all such afflictions, mortals upon earth are consoled and soothed by the promises that a better life is open to mortal man when his short stay upon earth is ended.

The funeral of the father took place from his late residence on Monday afternoon last, the Rev. Dr. STEWART, of Towanda, officiating—a large number of relatives and sympathizing friends being present. According to his request before his death, Dr. STEWART read in a beautiful manner the 14th chapter of Job, upon which he based appropriate and impressive remarks. The remains were deposited in Riverside Cemetery at Towanda.—Owego Record.
