The County Teachers' Association meets at Ulster to-day. Six of the teachers in our Graded School are in attendance.

Removal.—CHAS. M. HALL, Attorney-at-Law, has removed to office on north side of Public square—over EELSBREE & SON.

There is to be a meeting of the stockholders of the Water Works Company at the office of H. STREETER Esq., acting Secretary and Treasurer to-day.

Quite a change. On Tuesday morning the thermometer indicated seven degrees below zero; yesterday the weather was so mild that store-keepers had their doors open.

JAMES WARFORD, a former well known citizen of this place, died in Waverly, N. Y., on the 4th inst. He had been helpless for many months from the effects of paralysis, and was kindly ministered to by his daughter Miss MARY WARFORD.

The primaries to-morrow evening to nominate borough officers should be well attended. There are good men who will faithfully discharge the duties of office if elected, and people who are interested in having such officers should manifest their desire by attending the caucuses.

DEATH OF PROF. ALLEN.—The people of Pennsylvania, and especially the friends of education, will sincerely mourn the death of Prof. F. A. ALLEN, Principal of the State Normal School and Soldiers Orphans' School at Mansfield. He died after a short illness on Wednesday evening.

No 8 was 3 hours late this morning. The delay was caused by an accident just below Wilks-Barre. The engineer and fireman jumped from the engine and were slightly injured. The passenger cars left the track but none of the occupants were injured. The engine did not leave the track, and had the engineer and fireman remained at their posts they would have escaped without injury.

Lent began this year on the 11th of February, earlier than any year since 1869. This will bring the high Festival of Easter, this year, on the 28th of March, which is within six days of the earliest period upon which it can ever possibly occur. On some years Easter falls as late as the 29th of April. Some years there are as many as nine Sundays between Epiphany and Ash Wednesday, but this year there were only five Sundays intervening between the jubilee of Epiphany and the solemn season of Lent.

The Scranton Republican vouches for the following: "Mr. JOHN MERCHANT came to this country from England some 10 years ago, and settled in this city. His sister preceded him some nine years, and until last Saturday they did not know of each other's whereabouts, yet they have both been living in Hyde Park during this period of time, and have attended the same church. They spent last Sunday together, at his residence, and were as happy a couple, undoubtedly, as could be found within the city."

Personal.

S. P. WHITCOMB, of the Book Store, is confined to the house with an affection of the eyes.

E. L. HILLIS, Esq., will be a candidate for the Republican nomination for representative from the center, next fall.

JOHN DEAN is selling the goods of LONG & CO., at Troy, this week. JOHN takes to the duties of the Sheriff's office as naturally as his father. He is an excellent business man, and very popular with all classes.

S. W. NORTHRUP has sold his saloon, in Mercur Block, to S. B. TIDD.

Justice HALL has removed to Mercur Block, and now occupies rooms with I. M'PHERSON.

CYRENUS F. CHASE, one of the first men to enlist in the Pennsylvania Reserves in this place, and who has been living in the west for a number of years, arrived in town last evening.

Mr. WILEY, President of the Water Co., arrived in town last evening.

Miss LOTTI MOORE will go to Waverly to-morrow, to spend Sunday with her sister and other friends.

The many friends of Mrs. W. C. BOGART will regret to learn that that estimable lady is seriously ill. It is comforting, however, to know that she is most tenderly and affectionately cared for by her loving family, and every wish is cheerfully gratified. She has been a good mother, and now "her children rise up and call her blessed."

Mr. and Mrs. CHARLES MCKINNEY have been blessed with a boy baby.

E. H. BRINK, one of the actors in the play of "The Two Orphans," visited this place thirty-two years ago, with a theatrical troupe. Our enterprising townsman and valued citizen, WILLIAM DITTRICH, was a member of the orchestra. The company performed in Mercur Hall—corner of Main and Pine streets. Mr. BRINK has been on the stage ever since that time, but yesterday was the first time he has been in Towanda since his first visit, in 1848.

AVERY FRINK, the gentleman who superintended the building of our jail, is in town to-day, in consultation with the Commissioners in regard to poor house buildings.

Superintendent's Notes.

Feb. 10, 11, and 12.—Visited the following schools: Rome, Springs, Murray Miller; Center Valley, A. B. Ridgeway; Towner Hill, Allen Gillette; B. Russell, Emma Case; Vaught Hollow, Estella Angell; No. 12, Viola Reed; Bumpstown, Mrs. Bonham. Windham, Kuykendall, Mary VanNorstrand; Peck Hill, Mary Jackson; No. 3., Ralph Doane. Directors C. Stevens, H. McCabe and J. E. Gillette accompanied to several of the schools. The teachers seem to be giving general satisfaction. Mr. Lacy, an old teacher, accompanied to Kuykendall school, and gave the pupils some excellent advice, as did Mr. John Madden, at No. 3, Windham.

Court Proceedings.

On motion of H N Williams, J C Horton, a practicing attorney in Tioga county, was admitted to practice in the several courts of Bradford county; whereupon he was duly sworn.

E T Fox vs E W Ellis et al.—James T Hale appointed an auditor to distribute funds in Sheriff's hands, arising from sale of defendants real estate.

Lawrence Amaugh vs George Amaugh—Rule on George Amaugh to enter judgment in the sum of $2000, conditional, for the support of Lawrence Amaugh.

Seeriff Dean appeared in open court and acknowledged deeds of land sold on the 6th of February 1880, to the following persons:

A Wortendyke 1-2 of an acre of land in South Creek twp. Sold as the property of Peter Wortendyke; con $55.

To the Editors of the Review—SIRS:—I see by your issue of Monday, in speaking of the case of the Commonwealth vs. VANN and FERGUSON, for burning the barn of GUY SMITH, you censure the jury because they found the defendants not guilty, but ordered them to pay the costs, and you then proceed to condemn such verdicts as being wholly wrong in principle. A few moments consideration will show the folly of any such conclusion. The legislature in its wisdom saw fit to confer this power upon juries, whenever in a misdemeanor the defendant is acquitted, costs can be put upon the prosecutor, the county or the defendant. In order to convict, the proof must convince beyond any reasonable doubt. Many cases are tried where the weight of testimony is against the defendant, and yet the jury in their mercy think there may be a reasonable doubt, while all of them have good reason to believe him guilty. In such case should the prosecutor be visited with the costs, or the county? If the first, then any man would be deterred from prosecuting, unless he was assured he could prove guilt, without any knowledge of what might be set up for a defense. This would, in effect, be a premium for crime, and if we take the second proposition as the rule in such case, the weight of taxes would soon be so enormous that property owners could hardly bear the burden. On the whole, such a verdict as was rendered in the case mentioned, was, and is often a just one, and meets out to the parties substantial justice.
Yours, &c.,
VINDEK.
