A drizzling rain prevailed most of the day yesterday.

The Presiding Elder will occupy the pulpit of the M. E. Church to-morrow.

The ice on the river at this place broke up and "quietly passed away" yesterday afternoon.

Remember the Quarterly Conference at the Methodist church to-morrow night at 7 o'clock.

GEORGE LYNCHCOMB has employed an excellent barber to assist him, and his customers will now be served with dispatch.

Since Prof. VENNOR'S weather predictions have proven to be so accurate, those who failed to secure a supply of ice during the late cold period, feel no uneasiness, as the Professor has ordered another "freeze up", during the latter part of the month.

Owing to our unprecedented rush of job work, we have been compelled for the past two weeks to omit the Sunday School notes on Thursday, and column of Sunday reading on Saturday. We hope to be able to resume both these departments after next week.

Hon. B. RUSH JACKSON and A. B. BOWMAN, of Dushore, were in town yesterday, for the purpose of paying Mrs. BUCK $2000, the amount of insurance which she was entitled to from the Knights of Honor, by the death of her husband, the late JOHN C. BUCK.

LARGE SALE OF REAL ESTATE.—Judge MERCUR has just concluded a sale of about 4000 acres of his Sullivan county wild land, to HOYT BROTHERS, the wealthy and extensive New York tanners. The price paid was something over $41,000, all in cash. This is one of the largest transactions of the kind ever made in this section.

Religious services will be held to-morrow as follows:

- Presbyterian Church, preaching at 10:30 a. m. and 7:00 p. m. Sunday school at 12, m.

Personal.

GEORGE T. INGHAM, an active business man, and one of the most prominent young Republicans of Wilmet, Made us a call yesterday.

Rev. CHAS. H. WRIGHT goes to West Franklin to-day to attend, Quarterly Meeting for Presiding Elder WILEOR.

Prof. MCKEE, of our Graded School, very kindly furnished the REVIEW with an interesting report of the Teachers' Association. But it is unavoidably crowded out to-day. It shall appear on Monday.

We learn that J. L. ELSBREE has turned Benedict, and lead to the hymenial altar one of the fair daughters of Athens township. Better late than never.

Hon. G. A. GROW is in town. No man in the nation is entitled to or meets a more hearty reception from the people of Bradford.

Mrs. PIERCE, of Oswego, who has been visiting at THEO. MULLOCK'S, returned home yesterday.

Mrs. T. MULLOCK has gone to Waverly and Oswego, N. Y., and will be absent several days.

The sum of eleven hundred dollars was subscribed to the Herald Irish Relief Fund by members of Congress, in sums of five dollars each. We notice among the number our own member, Col. EDWARD OVERTON, Jr. The Col. has many warm Irish friends, both among his clientele and in politics, who will not forget him for his generosity on behalf of an unfortunate people.

We are pleased to note the promotion of Mr. SAMUEL ZEIGLER from the position of night operator, to the agency of Frenchtown Station. Mr. ZEIGLER is a young man eminently qualified for the position, and we congratulate the company in securing so good a successor to Mr. T. G. HARDING, lately resigned.—Tunkhannock Republican.

SINGULAR ACCIDENT.—As Dr. D. S. PRATT stood in front of CHAMBERLINS, talking with another gentleman yesterday afternoon, he lost his balance and fell down the steps leading to the Senate saloon. When he was taken up it was found he had sustained quite serious injuries in the way of a broken finger and ugly bruises. Mr. BUFFINGTON procured a carriage and took the Doctor home, and we have no doubt he will soon be around again.

One of the most prosperous and enterprising of Towanda's business houses is the well-known establishment of

D. W. SCOTT & CO.

We incidentally referred to the improvements going on at the Grocery Store and Bakery of D. W. SCOTT & Co. the other day. Now that the work is completed we can speak more definitely in regard to the changes and improvements made.

The store has been enlarged by the tearing away of the partition which separated the store from the bake-shop; the dining-room, which has been "growing small and beautifully less," for some time past, has finally been dispensed with altogether, in order to make room for the rapidly increasing trade in the grocery and provision department. While the baking business is continued on a large scale as heretofore, the work is all done outside the building—under the supervision of Mr. MUNIER, who has been in the employ of the firm for the past ten years, and enjoys the enviable reputation of being an excellent culinary artist. The best of fresh bread, biscuit, rusk and cake of all kinds are baked daily, and furnished from a counter especially fitted up for that branch of the business. No effort will be spared to maintain the high reputation the product of their oven has heretofore sustained.

The many improvements which have been made in the arrangement of the store are suggestive of the practical good sense and excellent taste of Mr. SCOTT, and render the store one of the most convenient and well arranged business houses of Towanda. Moreover, the room is filled with a choice variety of fresh groceries, which harmonize splendidly in appearance with the new paint and tasty fixtures.

The firm are now prepared to offer great inducements at wholesale and retail to their customers. The location is one of the best in town, and by purchasing in large quantities, and always keeping the best goods in their line, with obliging clerks and prompt attention to the wants of customers, we hazard nothing in predicting a prosperous career and increasing business for the firm. So note it be.

FOR RENT.—A good store, several offices and a number of dwelling houses.

L. E. ELSBREE.

ULSTER, February 14, 1880.

The Teachers' Association in session at this place is very largely attended, notwithstanding the inclement weather. The afternoon session yesterday, was interesting and crowded, and last evening the house was packed, literally. Recitations by Misses MURDOCH, LAURA GEROULD and FRANKIE LONDON were excellent, and a paper by Prof. RYAN interesting. Rev. Dr. TAYLOR delivered a thoughtful and profitable address, as he always does when called upon to speak. Prof. RYAN, our first class County Superintendent, is here, and as usual promoting the cause of thorough education. Professors from nearly all the leading schools of the county are here, and all doing well. The people of this place are deserving of especial mention for their kind attention to their guests. Special mention should be made of others who are taking an active part in making the meetings interesting, but the limits of a postal card and the lack of time prevents my giving even a synopsis of the exercises. We anticipate a pleasant session this morning, as the weather is more favorable. WILL.

We copy the following notice of the late Prof. ALLEN from yesterday's Elmira Advertiser. We cheerfully endorse all our cotemporary says of the deceased:

"On Friday last Prof. Fordyce Almon Allen, principal of the State Normal School at Mansfield, Pa., was stricken with pneumonia. Despite the most skillful care, he died on Wednesday night. During his illness the most intense anxiety prevailed among the villagers, and many were the prayers that went up for his recovery; but all in vain. He passed away Wednesday night, beloved and regretted by the entire community.

Prof. Allen, we believe was born in Tioga county, and had spent the greater portion of his sixty years in Mansfield. He taught school in Chester county, and went to Mansfield about fifteen years ago to take the principalship of the State Normal School upon its establishment. Having occupied the position a number of years, he resigned, Prof. Verrill taking his place, and about two years ago he again resumed the principalship. At or near the time of the establishment of the Normal, the Soldier's Orphan's School was started, of which he also had charge. His life was purely unselfish, and was spent largely in the service of others. He was watchful of the progress of those entrusted to his care, and many a young man is indebted to him for an education and his start in the world. A young man or young woman whom he noticed with aspirations not likely to be gratified, unless with assistance, was his especial delight. These he oftentimes boarded free during their entire school term, waiting until they were able to repay him. He was considered a wealthy man, but his wealth found its way to the benefit of his fellow men. A few days ago the Advertiser published the fact, and all the papers copied it, that Prof. Allen had established a free reading room, well supplied, at Mansfield. This was one of his benefactions. Another was the Mansfield Advertiser. It was generally understood that Prof. Allen, deeming a newspaper a benefit to any community, established the Advertiser of that village, which is a creditable paper, and probably by this time able to stand alone. There are fine buildings in the village, monuments of his enterprise. It seems a challenge of the wisdom of the Creator when such men are removed, while others of no apparent use are left; but the ways of God are past finding out, and while all the people mourn, they do not murmur at the dispensation which has taken him away. He leaves a wife, three adult sons, and a young daughter.
