

DAILY TOWANDA REVIEW.

VOLUME I, NO. 161. TOWANDA, PA., TUESDAY AFTERNOON, FEBRUARY 17, 1880. PRICE ONE CENT.

The News Condensed.

Col. John W. Forney is a furious Grant man.

The Sherman Club of New York have voted down a resolution condemning a third term.

Wm. Cross, late Vice President of the Worcester National Bank, committed suicide by hanging yesterday.

Three-fourths of the strikers in the braid mills at Attleboro Falls have resumed work at the old prices, other places being filled by girls from New York.

Rev. F. W. Lennedy, D. D., editor of the Southern Christian Advocate, Atlanta, Ga., died yesterday morning from a stroke of apoplexy, aged 47 years.

Mr. Bret Harte, it is reported, is about to resign his Consulate and return to America. The German climate has not agreed with him.

The wife of Adam Murry, of New Glasgow, Halifax, yesterday gave birth to five children; three girls and two boys. They are all doing well.

Two burglars entered Hiram Allen's residence at Sandwich Ills., yesterday morning. He sat up in bed and addressed them. They shot him dead and escaped.

John Brown's son says of his renowned father: "I never knew him to show any signs of fear of anything, save that he might do a dishonest act or wrong a fellow-man."

The daughter of ex-Secretary McCulloch is reported to be the best amateur banjo player in New York. She has made it fashionable for young ladies to play the banjo.

Hon. J. Simpson Africa, Sensus Supervisor for the district including Huntingdon county, has already received more than a thousand applications for the thirty places he has to fill.

Charles Beecher, aged 24, a compositor in the Elmaria Gazette office, committed suicide last night by hanging, in his father's barn. Supposed cause, disappointment in love.

The people of England are remonstrating against the erection of a statue in Westminster abbey to the late prince imperial, but Dean Stanley insists that it shall be done.

The Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections failed to reach final action on the Ingalls case yesterday, but the indications are that the Committee will report unanimously, the report exonerating Ingalls.

The total values of exports of domestic provisions and tallow during January was $9,499,000; during January of last year $10,436,000; for the seven months ended January 31st $60,881,000; for the same period of the previous year $62,091,000.

John Cessna, of Bedford, has been chosen Chairman of the Republican State Committee. This appointment is generally interpreted to mean a vigorous prosecution of the Republican Presidential campaign in Pennsylvania.

Langston, the Minister resident to Hayti, in a despatch to the Department of State, dated Jan. 30th, 1880, reports that peace and order now prevail in the Republic. In consequence business has revived, and confidence has become re-assured.

A French physician has recently published the statement that political complications are the great cause of suicide in that country. This fact if true shows the deplorable condition of French politics, and is a warning to would-be statesmen whose ambition exceeds their capacity.

Theodore A. Streber, general ticket agent of the Pennsylvania Railroad division of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, died suddenly last evening of heart disease at his residence, at Ardmore, on the line of the road. Mr. Streber entered the service of the company in 1853, and was made general ticket agent in the spring of 1873.

FOR THE PRESIDENTIAL YEAR.

"THE LEADING AMERICAN NEWS-PAPER."

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE
FOR 1880.

During the coming Presidential year The Tribune will be a more effective agency than ever for telling the news best worth knowing, and for enforcing sound politics. From the day the war closed it has been most anxious for an end of sectional strife. But it saw two years ago, and was the first persistently to proclaim the new danger to the country from the revived alliance of the Solid South and Tammany Hall. Against that danger it sought to rally the old party of Freedom and the Union. It began by demanding the abandonment of personal dislikes, and set the example. It called for an end to attacks upon each other instead of the enemy; and for the heartiest agreement upon whatever fit candidates the majority should put up against the common foe. Since then the tide of disaster has been turned back; every doubtful state has been won, and the omens for National victory were never more cheering.

THE TRIBUNE'S POSITION.

Of The Tribune's share in all this, those speak most enthusiastically who have seen most of the struggle. It will faithfully portray the varying phases of the campaign now beginning. It will earnestly strive that the party of Freedom, Union and Public Faith may select the man surest to win, and surest to make a good President. But in this crisis it can conceive of no nomination this party could make that would not be preferable to the best that could possibly be supported by the Solid South and Tammany Hall.

The Tribune is now spending much labor and money than ever before to hold the distinction it has enjoyed of the largest circulation among the best people. It secured, and means to retain it by becoming the medium of the best thought and the voice of the best conscience of the time, by keeping abreast of the highest progress, favoring the freest discussions, hearing all sides, appealing always to the best intelligence and the purest morality, and refusing to cater to the tastes of the vile or the prejudices of the ignorant.

SPECIAL FEATURES.

The distinctive features of The Tribune are known to everybody. It gives all the news. It has the best correspondents, and retains them from year to year. It is the only paper that maintains a special telegraphic wire of its own between its office and Washington. Its scientific, literary, artistic and religious intelligence is the fullest. Its book reviews are the best. Its commercial and financial news is the most exact. Its type is the largest; and its arrangement the most systematic.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE

is by far the most successful Semi-Weekly in the country, having four times the circulation of any other in New York. It is especially adapted to the large class of intelligent, professional or business readers too far from New York to depend on our papers for the daily news, who nevertheless want the editorials, correspondence, book reviews, scientific matter, lectures, literary miscellany, etc., for which The Tribune is famous. Like The Weekly it contains sixteen pages, and is in convenient form for binding.

THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE

remains the great favorite of our substantial country population, and has the largest circulation of any Weekly issued from the office of a Daily paper in New York, or, so far as we know, in the United States. It revises and condenses all the news of the week into more readable shape. Its agricultural department is more carefully conducted than ever, and it has always been considered the best. Its market reports are the official standard for the Dairymen's Association, and have long been recognized authority on cattle, grain and general country produce. There are special departments for the young and for household interests; the new handwork department already extremely popular, gives unusually accurate and comprehensive instructions in knitting, crocheting, and kindred subjects; while poetry, fiction and the humors of the day are all abundantly supplied. The verdict of the tens of thousand old readers who have returned to it during the past year is that they find it better than ever. Increasing patronage and facilities enable us to reduce the rates to the lowest point we have ever touched, and to offer the most amazing premiums yet given, as follows:

AN AMAZING PREMIUM.

To any one subscribing for The Weekly Tribune for five years, remitting us the price, $10, and $2 more, we will send Chamber's Encyclopaedia, unabridged, in fourteen volumes, with all the revisions of the Edinburgh edition of 1879, and with six additional volumes, covering American topics not fully treated in the original work;—the whole embracing, by actual printer's measurement, twelve per cent more matter than Appleton's Cyclopaedia, which sells for $80! To the 15,000 readers who procured from us the Webster Unabridged premium we need only say that while this offer is even more liberal, we shall carry it out in a manner equally satisfactory. The following are the terms in detail:

For $12, Chamber's Encyclopaedia, A Library of Universal Knowledge, 14 vols., with editions on American subjects, 6 separate vols., 20 vols. in all, substantially bound in cloth, and The Weekly Tribune 5 years, to one subscriber.

For $18, Chamber's Encyclopaedia, 20 vols., above, and The Semi-Weekly Tribune 5 years.

For $18, Chamber's Encyclopaedia, 20 vols., as above, and ten copies of The Weekly Tribune one year.

For $27, Chamber's Encyclopaedia, 20 vols., as above, and twenty copies of The Weekly Tribune one year.

For $26, Chamber's Encyclopaedia, 20 vols., as above, and the Daily Tribune two years.

The books will in all cases be sent at the subscriber's expense, but with no charge for packing. We shall begin sending them in the order in which subscriptions have been received on the 1st of January, when certainly five, and perhaps six, volumes will be ready, and shall send, thenceforth, by express or mail, as subscribers may direct. The publication will continue at the rate of two volumes per month, concluding in September next.

A MAGNIFICENT GIFT!

Worcester's Great Unabridged Dictionary Free!

The New York Tribune will send at subscriber's expense for freight, or deliver in New York City FREE, Worcester's Great Unabridged Quarto Illustrated Dictionary, edition of 1879, the very latest and very best edition of the great work, to any one remitting

$10 for a single five years' subscription in advance or five one year subscriptions to The Weekly, or $15 for a single five years' subscription in advance or five one year subscriptions to The Semi Weekly, or, one year's subscription to The Daily, or, $30 for a single three year's subscription in advance to The Daily Tribune.

For one dollar extra the Dictionary will be sent by mail to any part of the United States, while for short distances the expense is much cheaper.
