Service at Christ Church this afternoon at 4:30.

The regular session of Rebekah Degree Lodge meets to-morrow evening. Dont fail to be present, if you are a member.

WASHINGTON'S birth-day is a legal holiday. Does the fact that it falls on Sunday this year effect bank paper?

JOHN BEMAN says it will soon be warm weather, and thinks the gentleman who found his glove had better return it. He needs it now.

The Elmira Advertiser says: "The proper way to make a sandwich is to chop up the meat, and then when you take a bite you don't have to take the whole institution at once." We knew that before.

Leah Lodge will celebrate their tenth anniversary on Tuesday evening next, 24th inst. An interesting programme is being arranged for the occasion. The meeting will be public.

In commenting upon the fact that a post-office has recently been established called Pinafore, HARRY WARD says the name of the Towanda office should have been changed to that, and then we should have "Buttercup" already in the office.

The Reporter resorted to a vast array of figures yesterday to prove what is evident to the most casual observer, viz: that it is the best and cheapest paper printed in the county, but the comparison is a little unfortunate for the REVIEW just at this time, as we have had to curtail our reading matter for the past week or so, but hope to be able to give our usual amount again soon. The REVIEW can appreciate excellence in other papers, and has never aspired to anything more than an occupation of an uncultivated field—furnishing the people of Towanda and the county with local news daily, and thus stimulating a taste for such able and excellent papers as the Reporter.

The Elmira Free Press recently printed a very affecting story about the discovery, by a printer named HARRISON MERRILL, at Adams, Jefferson county, N. Y., of his sister's long-lost baby boy, who was kidnapped in New York in 1876. The child was accidentally found, in consequence of his close resemblance to his mother, and was taken away from a Dutch basket-maker, after much parley, accompanied with great difficulty. The sister's name is Mrs. OLIVER JEFFREYS, and she lives in Rochester. MERRILL is from Binghamton, and has a mother and brother living there now. He was formerly Waverly correspondent of the Republican.

All that's the matter with the story is that HARRISON MERRILL has no sister named Mrs. JEFFREYS; and she had no baby boy; the baby boy never got lost in New York; and HARRISON never found it; and no child was lost and found under the circumstances described. In all other respect the story may be vouched for as simon pure facts.—Binghamton Republican.

Personal.

Councilman KEELER and wife will visit their daughter, Mrs. CLARK, at Chemung today.

Capt. W. H. CARNOCHAN is improving, and will be out again in a few days.

Col. MEANS secured a verdict of $3300 against the Lycoming Insurance Company today.

Mr. LEVI NOBLE, of Ulster, brought to town this morning and sold to our enterprising market-man, RUNDELL, a mammoth porker, weighing 429 pounds.

D. D. DEWITT, Cashier of the Tunkhannock National Bank, and one of the most prominent men of Wyoming county, suffered a stroke of paralysis this morning, and his death is momentarily expected. He is an uncle of Mr. D. SWARTS and cousin of D. C. DEWITT, of this place.

H. W. NOBLE, who has long been engaged in business in this place, was elected commission of Wysox twp., on Tuesday.

We learn that LARRY HOLLORAN, the shoemaker who took a dose of poison, by mistake, the other night, is still in a critical condition, and his friends think his recovery doubtful.

The fact that JAMES McCABE was elected Councilman on Tuesday, will not prevent him from paying particular attention to his mercantile business, and his customers will find him just as affable and polite, now that his "extravagant administration" has been so emphatically endorsed, as heretofore. He is not one of the kind to be "puffed up by a little brief authority." He will make a faithful, economical, public servant, and at the same time will continue to serve his customers with the best quality of goods consistent with the quality.

Quite an enjoyable affair came off at the house of J. SCOVELL, in South Towanda, on the evening of the 9th. The friends and neighbors to the number of about twenty-five came in unexpectedly to celebrate the 68th birthday of "Aunt HARRIETT," as she is familiarly called. The table was bountifully spread with all the luxuries the ladies know so well how to prepare, and over it was a festoon of evergreens, forming the figures "1812," the year of her birth. May she live to enjoy many such reunions is the wish of all.—Reporter.

The following item copied from the Williamsport Banner illustrates a trait of character which will not surprise any of our citizens who are well acquainted with Mr. FOX, but such instances are very rare:

"Nearly four years ago Mr. E. T. FOX, of Towanda, took an active interest in efforts to secure a manufacturing establishment in Athens. His undertaking was encouraged by a number of business men in that borough, some advancing their subscriptions to further the enterprise. Among the latter was Mr. N. C. HARRIS, President of the Athens National Bank. The project, however, was not a success, and Mr. HARRIS considered his $100 subscription among the unaccounted for funds, crediting himself with so much enterprise, satisfied that Mr. FOX had done his part, and that he could suffer his share of the expenses in making so laudable an adventure. A short time ago, however, Mr. HARRIS received a check for $122.50 from Mr. FOX, covering the principal and interest. Such a course is deserving of special mention in these degenerate days."

Some days since the wife of FRANK THOMAS, of Susquehanna County, left her home after relieving her husband's exchequer of $200 in cash. About the same time a neighbor named OLMESTEAD was missing. The husband suspecting that all was not right, commenced a search. The parties were traced to this place, where they were stopping at the "Henry House." Officer BURNS was informed of the situation of affairs, and late last evening called at the hotel and found that the parties had retired, and both were occupying one room. They were arrested and locked in jail for the balance of the night. This morning "a mutual friend" interposed, and arranged matters to the satisfaction of the husband, who took his erring spouse and departed for home.
