NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION.—Notice is hereby given that the partnership between Richard D. Burchill, Arthur H. Burchill, and Abram Burchill, was dissolved on the 16th day of February 1880, so far as relates to said Richard D.

Burchill. All debts due to the late partnership must be paid to A. H. and A. Burchill, who are only authorized to receive the same. All claims against said partnership will be settled by the said A. H. & A. Burchill, who will continue at the old stand to manufacture, make and furnish Monuments, Tombstones, and do a general business of Marble and Stone cutting, under the style and firm name of Burchill Brothers. R. D. BURCHILL.

The News Condensed.

The directors of the first National Bank of Seneca Fall, with one exception, are all ladies.

Mr. Blair, counsel for ex-Governor Curtin in the Curtin-Yocum contest, will ask the House Election committee for a fur-Forty-thousand dollars, the entire amount of the capital stock of the new Oil Exchange at Titusville, was taken at a meeting of oil producers, held in that city on Saturday last.

The little twelve year old son of the late Col. Walton Dewight was seriously injured on Saturday last, while playing with some companions in an ice house.
An elbow joint was dislocated and a wrist fractured.

Rev. Dr. J. B. Jeter, one of the editors of the Religious Herald, the organ of the Baptist church in Virginia, died at Richmond yesterday morning, aged seventy-eight. He was the author of several religious works, and widely known.

Mr. W. W. Corcoran's desire to add a portrait gallery and school of art to the "Corcoran Art Gallery," in Washington, is defeated by Admiral S. P. Lee's persistent refusal to sell, even at an exorbitant price, the necessary adjacent lots.

The Emperor Francis Joseph of Austra has simple tastes. He gets up early in the morning, prays in his private chapel, and then takes a cup of coffee with bread, and eats no more till his lunch of brown bread and beer is served at noon.

A Marion, Ohio, special reports the alleged discovery of a perpetual motion, by Wm. O'Ben and Wm. Hyett, of Richmond township, Marion county. The machine consists of a large iron wheel, containing a number of slides, inclined planes, &c.
It will start itself. The model has been sent to Washington for a patent. The machine is kept under lock and key.

At a meeting of the Department of Su-preintendence of the Educational Association at Washington, a resolution was offered by Mr. Wickersham, of Pennsylvania to appoint a committee of ten to take into consideration the formation of a national council of education, to report a plan of organization to the Board of Directors of the National Teachers' Association, at their meeting at Chautauqua, N. Y., in July last, was adopted.

ther hearing, and will advocate the immediate seating of Gov. Curtin on the ground taken by Representative Field of the committee, who holds that the acceptance of unregistered votes by the election officers is prima facie evidence of their legality: that the fact that the affidavits are not on file in the prothonotary's office does not prove that they were not taken, and the opposition must prove affirmatively that the affidavits were taken.

Nicholas Meirs, of Pittsburg, possessed of large means, died last week, and it was found when his will was registered that after leaving his son ten dollars, and making small provision for some friends, that the balance of his property was to be divided between a Catholic church and a number of charitable institutions. The law of the State requires that where a testator wishes to bequeath property to charity or religion that the will must be made thirty days before death. Mr. Meirs died nine days after his will was made, and his son, as next of kin, gets his share of the property
