Mrs. BAT GOLDEN, of Milan, died on Monday last.

There was only a short session of court this morning. There is another session this afternoon.

Two buttons are considered the fashionable number for kid gloves when they have tops of the new kid lace.

VENNOR is flanked again. The "cold spell" is here several days in advance of time advertised.

"The free school is the promoter of that intelligence which is to preserve us a free nation."—U. S. GRANT.

D. D. DEWITT, who was attacked with a second stroke of paralysis, at Tunkhannock yesterday, died last evening. He was about 62 years old.

Farmers bring their hams to town and sell them, and purchase from Mr. McCABE for their own use, because his method of curing is superior to any information the most intelligent granger possesses.

The Journal says it would rather the Montrose Democrat would appropriate its items without any credit, than give credit to the Reporter. And that's just what we think about the Elmira Advertiser.

Let a woman feel herself capable of making a dress fairly well, and what a vista of possibilities opens before her. Old garments that are not worth spending a penny upon can be put to good use if the owner knows how to fashion them herself.

The Mutual Musical Alliance will hold Convention in Laceyville next week, commencing on Tuesday, and to continue four days. Dr. PERKINS, of New York, will conduct it. The Society now comprises over three hundred members.

The latest Parsian coiffure for young girls under 15 is to crimp the whole of the hair, brush it out smoothly, and plait it in one long plait or braid, fastened at the nape of the neck with a soft ribbon bow. Another bow is placed some distance below around the braid, and the hair below the final bow is arranged in light curls.

The Waverly Advocate says: "At last Tuesday's meeting of the Executive Committee of the Lehigh Valley Rail Road Company, of which ROBERT A. PACKER is Chairman, it was decided to re-commence work upon the shops at Sayre, as soon as the weather will admit. 800,000 brick for the work are now upon the ground."

We have once or twice mentioned the fact that our meat-market man RUNDALL, sends to New York for beef, thus giving his customers the benefit of the large city markets. That the meat thus secured is of an excellent quality we are now prepared to testify, as Mr. R. has given us the opportunity of giving it a test, by sending us one of the finest roasts we have ever tasted.

Personal.

The Athens Gazette says Mrs. J. W. BISHOP, of Sayre, is seriously ill.

GEORGE KIRBY, who is now engaged in business at Tunkhannock, is in town.

The friends of W. W. BOWMAN, of Towanda township, will be pleased to learn that he is improving, under the treatment of Mrs. COVERDALE, electrician.

J. R. COOLBAUGH, was elected Councilman at-large, in Wilkes-Barre, on Tuesday.

Mrs. JOHN BEMAN is seriously ill, and a great sufferer from what is feared to be an incurable disease.

GEORGE BEERS, of Ithaca, N. Y., is visiting his nephew, Rev. J. S. BEERS, at the rectory.

Miss STROUD, of Philadelphia, who has been spending several weeks here with her brother, returns home to-day. She will be accompanied by Mr. STROUD and daughter BESSIE, and two of her sister's children.

Another of our young men is to leave town and engage in business elsewhere. CHARLEY FOX, who has had considerable experience in the boot and shoe trade, has accepted a situation with a large mining firm near Wilkes-Barre. He is a good business man and we wish him success.

E. F. GOFF, of Wyalusing, has been appointed Notary Public.

Judge MILTON PIERCE, of Troy, brought in the returns from that township yesterday, and paid his compliments to the REVIEW office.

We regret to learn that our old friend R. C. SINSABAUGH failed of a re-election as Constable of Athens borough. The people of that good burg ought to know their own business, but we opine they will realize before the year is out that they've made a mistake. RICHARD is not the only good man who has been rejected by the people.

J. A. MANVILLE has just issued the February number of "The Welcome Musical Guest," and will furnish it free to customers.

A. J. NOBLE has leased the Keeler House, Tunkhannock, and will take possession the first of April. We have no doubt he will make an excellent host, and that under his administration the hotel will rank with the first in the country.

HARRY TAYLOR, of the Dramatic Club, knows how to make himself useful as well as ornamental, and has secured a position with BOSTLEY & Co., at the nail works.

D. F. PARK, of Athens, must be as popular at home as elsewhere. He is President of the Fire Department, School Director, Councilman, and Overseer of the Poor. The latter office he has held for a number of years.

Former Towandians were in luck at the election in Athens the other day. Dr. F. W. BROWN was elected Academy Trustee; Dr. C. H. SCOTT, Auditor; AUTHER HEAD, Inspector of Election.

Rev. Mr. WATROUS, of the Athens Baptist Church, is conducting revival meetings at Green's Landing.

The Afield and Afloat, a paper devoted to sporting, published at Philadelphia, offers the following premiums, open to anglers in the United States:

For the largest black bass caught in the public waters of the United States, with a fly—A handsome fly-fishing bass outfit, consisting of a split bamboo rod, German silver click reel, fifty yards of enameled silk line, a creel, three nine foot leaders and a dozen flies with fly book.

For the largest black bass caught in the public waters of the United States with bait—A handsome bass outfit, consisting of a fine rod, German silver multiplying reel, line, basket, three leaders, one dozen hooks and six artificial minnows.

The following letter from a brother of the young lady mentioned in connection with the suicide of young BULLOCK, in Elmira the other day, is printed in the Free Press yesterday. We heartily agree with the writer that there should be some protection against the untruthful and sensational accounts weekly printed in the Sunday papers:

"DEAR SIR:—I notice in regard to W. L. Bullock's death, various accounts given by the several newspaper of Elmira. That given by the Free Press was the most correct, and the least objectionable to his friends. I wish to say that the Sunday paper says that Bullock was disappointed in love with Miss Myrtia E. Wheat, of Horseheads, and that her father had forbade him coming to the house. This is all untrue, and has no foundation whatever. Willis Bullock was twenty-one years of age, and Miss Wheat fourteen. There never was any correspondence passed between them that her parents did not see and read, and nothing more than a sincere friendship existed between them, such as is common and proper between cousins. In the letter that was found upon his person, directed to Miss Wheat, Bullock calls her his child correspondent, and says: 'My life has been a failure. Everything I have undertaken does not seem to prosper, and I don't think you will ever see me again.' He closes by saying farewell. There ought to be some protection and remedy for persons who are made to suffer from statements such as were published in the Sunday paper."

There was a strike at the "Novelty Straw Works" last evening. Old rack-a-bones decided not to work any more until larger rations are issued. GUY says he feeds him plenty of "long oats."
