The News Condensed.

There are eighty-two Mormon churches in England and Ireland.

Pennsylvania saves $600,000 to the treasury by not having a session of the Legislature this winter.

Dean Stanley adheres to his purpose to erect a monument in Westminster Abbey to the memory of the late Prince Imperial.

Mr. Vest said in the senate, yesterday, that Indian Territory could not remain much longer a blank on the map of civilization.

Mr. Regan, on the floor of the House, yesterday, defended himself against the attacks made on him by the New York Sun in regard to the inter-State commerce bill.

It is reported at Washington that the Grant managers will try to make Senator Conkling president of the Chicago Convention.

St. John's Episcopal congregation of Dundee, Scotland, have unanimously voted to secede to the Reformed Episcopal Church.

The majority report in the Curtin-Yecum case was presented to the House yesterday. It declared the election null and void and remits the question to the people of the district.

Joseph Seafert, aged seventy-four, died at his home in Milford, Pike Co., Monday night. Within the past week seven persons have died there whose aggregate ages amount to four hundred and ninety-one years.

It is rumored that the English converts to the Church of Rome contemplate raising subscriptions to the amount of $1,250,- 000 for the purpose of erecting on the Thames a metropolitan Roman Catholic Cathedral which shall rival St. Paul's in grandeur.

Mr. Gustave Dore is exhibiting in Paris a very original plaster cast representing the rescue of Angelica. Her deliverer, mounted on his hippogriff, is connected with the lower portion of the group only by the long spear that transfixes the monster's body. Nothing so bold has ever yet been attempted in statuary.

The following is a copy, letter for letter, of a bill offered recently by a member of the Maine Legislature:

"Ordered, that the judiciary committee be directed to inquire into the expediency of so amending the constitution of the state that the right of suffrage shall be limited to those who are able to read and write the English language."

Senators Edmunds and Thurman had a bright little passage of arms the other day.
In executive session Thurman was quietly listening and smoking when Edmunds objected to the confirmation of a certain Ohio nominee. Thurman putting aside his cigar and springing to his feet, said; "Mr. President, I had not intended to say a single word upon this matter, but the Senator from Vermont has thrown a brick at an Ohio man, and I must resent that." M. Edmunds, with assumed seriousness, retorted, "You can't throw a brick in any direction these days without hitting an Ohio man."

The Empress Eugenie's visit to Zulu-land will be so arranged that she will reach the spot where her son fell at the very hour of the struggle and death. The Empress, in a recent interview with a French Journalist, pointed out that the wounds on the Prince's arm attested the fierceness with which he defended himself. "This movement of covering himself with his arm," she said, "was an habitual instinctive gesture with the Prince; often in our leisure hours when I played with him in his youth, at the slightest attack he covered his breast with his arm as with a shield."
