Mr. CHAS. DOUGHERTY, of Allis Hollow. has just bought one of those splendid Sterling Organs of J. A. MANVILLE, of Towanda.

A young man named MCCALE, who had been at work in the pine woods, was brought to his home, in North Towanda, dead yesterday.

The patrons of the old meat market, south of the Ward House, have a large and fine assortment of meat and fish to select from this week. Mr. MULLOCK was fortunate enough to get Hon. B. LAPORTE'S Chester White Pigs. very fat and nice. He also has some heavy western beef, and a large assortment of fresh and salt fish. The establishment presents the appearance of a large city market.

There is an amateur minstrel troup at Waverly, N. Y., composed of home talent. They gave an entertainment on Wednesday night, which was very successful. V. C. SHEARER, a well known brakeman ou the L. V. RR., appeared as BILLY EMERSON, and gave "Moriarity" so well as to be recalled several times.

The Good Templars of North Towanda dedicated their, www hall just evening. The chases. MOLESSEAU thinks we were rather late in ticing the arrival at his house. The baby nearly two months old.

SETH W. PAINE, of Troy, one of the most ominent business men of Western Bradd, is in town to-day. Many years ago Mr. resided here, and Lombard street was origilly called "Paine Street," in honor of his ther. Mr. PAINE is well advanced in years, t remarkably well preserved, and apparentasvigorous, mentally and physically, as ist men in the prime of life. He is a philthropist, in the broadest sense of the term, d our neighboring village owes much of its wth to his well directed enterprise.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. CRATER, who recently returned from Texas, are receiving the congratulations of their numerous friends over the addition of a girl baby to their household. The little lady barely escaped being a Texan. She was born yesterday morning.

About 30 little boys and girls assembled at D. W. SCOTT'S last evening, to celebrate BIRDIE's birthday. They were a happy, joyous group; had a "splendid time," and were sumptuously entertained.

CORA JOHNSON'S parents "surprised" the young lady last evening, by inviting a number of her young acquaintances to make her a "call." It was unfortunate for some of the invited that another party had been arranged to celebrate the birthday of one of the same 'set,' at the same hour, but we are informed that the evening was most enjoyably spent, and will long be remembered by all who had dition. Will be sold at a bargain. the good fortune to be present.

JOHN DEAN will build a house this season, on Poplar street, near his father-in-law's. BENJAMIN KUYKENDALL. From the present political outlook JOHN will be furnished with a dwelling by the county for some time yet. The people have their eye on him for PETER'S successor, and if "Barkus is willin'" we have no dsubt he will be the next Sheriff of the county.

The publishers of Scribner's Monthly propose to make themselves the disinterested agents both of picture-buyers throught the country and of our artists. The scheme is explained in an editorial article in the March number of the magazine, from which we extract the following paragraph :
