The News Condensed.

An $85,000 fire occurred in New York yesterday.

A seven foot coal vein has been discovered in Winnipeg.

Ex-Governor Marshall Jewel is lecturing on "A Russian Winter."

Trout have recently been caught in so muddy a pool as the Thames near Waterloo Bridge.

The Evangelical Conference opened at Weissport, Lehigh county, yesterday morning. There are over one hundred ministers present.

President Hayes bought at a Washington fair the other evening a copy of Roger's statuette of "The Wounded Soldier," paying $15 for the same.

The Union Pacific railroad will at once commence building a railroad from Cheyenne to the Yellowstone National Park, with a branch to the Black Hills.

The Vermont Republican Convention adopted a resolution urging the nomination of Senator Edmonds for President, but did not instruct the delegates to Chicago.

There were twenty proposals to sell bonds to the government yesterday, aggregating $7,135,450, at 103.62 o 104 for 5's of 1881; 103.87 1-2 to 104 for 6's of 1880, and 105.62 to 105.97 for 6's of 1881.

Mr. Carlyle has just concluded the revision of a new and corrected edition of of his work: he has also been collecting material for his biography. He is said to take a very gloomy view of the immediate future of England.

A French enthusiast is quoted as writing to M. D. Lesseps, when he was getting up the Suez Canal, which the English didn't like: "Yield not an inch to per-fidious Albion. If necessary, move your isthmus elsewhere. Your shareholders will follow you."

John Dillon Mulhall of Brooklyn, an Irish landlord owning twenty-four holdings in Roscommon county, Ireland, has emphasised his sympathy for his famish-ing countrymen by instructing his agent there to give receipts to his tenants for all arrearages of rent. They are in arrears for terms varying from six to nine months.
The record of a deed so noble bears its own comment.

San Francisco is in a turmoil of excitement. Kearney, Killoch and other demagogues, are inciting Hoodlums, and all unemployed men and women to acts of violence toward Chinamen and all who employ or sympathise with them. The demagogues in Congress who voted for the bill to prohibit the emigration of celestials to this free country have done much to stimulate this riot.

The committees of the Lehigh and Schuylkill Exchanges met at Philadelphia yesterday and agreed to a general advance of 25 cents in prices of lump, steamboat and broken for the line, city and harbor trade for March. The current Lehigh circular prices at Mauch Chunk are, therefore, lump $3.00; steamboat and broken $2.75; egg and chestnut number one $2.50; stove $2.50; chestnut number two $1.50. Schuylkill Haven, lump, broken and steamboat $2.75; egg and chestnut $2.50; stove $2.60; pea $1.50. The increase applies partially to the furnace trade.

The census of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland which is to be taken next year, will embrace less than one-thirtieth of the territory to be covered in the United States. The expense of the former enumeration does not nearly equal in proportion that in America, where, in 1870 it amounted to over three millions of dollars; while in Great Britain in 1871 the cost did not exceed six hundred thousand dollars.
