On the first of April Cheap John will occupy the MONTANYE store.

Work has been commenced on Mr. STREETER'S new building, on the site of the one recently burned.

Mrs. MINGOS has an elegant display of goods, most admirably arranged. Her show windows attract great attention from the ladies.

The young lady who can prepare a good dinner, is quite as useful as the one who can play exquisitely on the piano, and converse in half-a-dozen languages is ornamental.

The trade in old iron, glass, and bones, is just booming in town. Every boy who can muster a wheelbarrow or old basket, may be found searching in the back yards, alleys and streets for these articles.

The strongest evidence of the restraining power of the gospel is the fact that there are so few infidels, in the light of the glaring inconsistencies of those who make profession of piety; and the lack of that charity which suffereth long and is kind, in the conduct of many who seem to rejoice in the downfall and misfortune of their fellow Christian, even more than the world does.

For the third time Maj. HALE has become part owner of the flouring mill near his place. The mill was originally erected by Gen. GEO. WELLES, nearly a hundred years ago. REUBEN HALE, father of the Maj., bought it in 1799, and it has been in the family most of the time since. A few years ago Hon. J. G. PATTON bought a half interest in it, which he has now transferred to the Major.

The mill has been put in the most thorough repair, and is turning out the best of work. Mr. MILLER, the miller, understands his business to perfection, and has all the work he can do.

If those who have this world's goods in such abundance that every wish can be gratified, could know how the withholding of the hire from the laborer, even for a day, sometimes causes disaster, and adds to the cup of bitterness which the poor are often compelled to drink to the dregs, the amounts which seem so small to them, but which are large to those who have toiled, perhaps over the midnight oil to earn, in order to meet some pressing demand, would burn in their coffers.

On Thursday afternoon, while at work in the woods about two miles out of town, Mr. A. DOUGLASS was knocked down by a falling tree and sustained a double fracture of the left thigh. The injured man was taken to his home at R. H. BREWER'S, and his cuts, bruises, and broken limb received prompt attention from Dr. WADDELL, assisted by B. R. JACKSON. Mr. DOUGLASS is pretty well along in years, and has had the misfortune to hurt that same leg before. He is an industrious man and a good citizen, and has the sympathies of all in his affliction.—Dushore Review.

The injured man is a brother of our townsman ASA DOUGLASS, formerly in McINTYRE BROTHERS shop.

Personal.

Miss ALICE PENDLETON, of Orwell, is visiting at S. W. RODGERS'.

JOHN F. SANDERSON has been attending Sullivan county Court for a few days.

All the young men do not read law. WILLIAM DELPEUCH, who graduated from Princeton College last year, is reading medicine with Dr. WOODBURN, and W. H. MERCUR and C. L. CODDING are pursuing medical studies in the office of Dr. C. K. LADD.

WM. YONTZ, conductor on one of the Barclay coal trains, is building a house below the Barclay depot.

Mr. and Mrs. WM. S. DOOLITTLE, of New York, are guests of Rev. C. H. WRIGHT.

We find the following item in regard to a former citizen of this county, and a graduate of the Susquehanna Collegiate Institute, in the Wilkes-Barre Record of this morning. Dr. DAVIS is a brother of Senator DAVIES, and occupies a high position in the medical profession:

"Dr. R. Davis performed a very difficult operation in lithotomy on Monday, the subject being a son of Thomas Morepath, of Plains. There were some novel features in the operation, interesting to the medical fraternity, and it was perfectly successful. The stone removed was of unusually large size."

God's Rest.

It is the evening hour,
And thankfully,
Father, thy weary child
Has come to Thee.

I lean my aching head
Upon Thy breast,
And there, and only there,
I am at rest.

Thou knowest all my life,
Each petty sin;
Nothing is hid from Thee
Without, within.

All that I have or am
Is wholly Thine,
So is my soul at peace,
For Thou art mine.

To-morrow's dawn may find
Me here or there;
It matters little since thy love
Is everywhere!

A correspondent of the Elmira Advertiser furnished that journal with these among other Burlington items yesterday:

The job of burning brick for the poor-house is let to a party in Canton. This looks like business.

A marked feature of last election here was the fact that there was no Democratic or Republican tickets. It was whisky or no whisky.

ELLCOTT STRDEVANT and WILMER DICKERMAN sawed and split twelve cord of hard wood last week from Friday at two o'clock P. M. till four Saturday afternoon. Pretty good work that for two small boys.

Now that Towanda is to be supplied with water from Mountain Lake, that beautiful little sheet of water ought to be a more popular summer resort than ever. It lies in a circular basin, right in the top of a high mountain, and is claimed by some to be the crater of an extinct volcano. We can not say how true this is, but we do know that pickerel and catfish are plentiful in its waters. And oh, such lovely water lilies, white as snow, heavy as wax, with that subtle and delicious perfume that belongs to no other flower; and if any Elmirians do not believe that we can pick five quarts of wintergreen berries in two or three hours' time, let them come to Burlington and visit the mountain of the lake.

MIKE VINCENT, MACK SICKLER and ASA POOL were arrested by Constable MOFFITT and taken before justice YOUNG on Wednesday, charged with stealing a caldron from MYER & DEVOE'S slaughter house, and selling it for old iron. A jury was summoned by Justice Young, and a verdict of guilty rendered against SICKLER, and not guilty as to the other two. SICKLER was sentenced to pay a fine of $5, return the property, and undergo an imprisonment of 60 days in the county jail.
