STEVENS & LONG have purchased several car loads of western clover and timothy seed.

CHAS. B. BROCKWAY, a prominent member of the Columbia county bar, died yesterday. Mr. B. was an active Democratic politician; had represented his county in the state legislature, and was once a candidate for Congress in this district. He was for years editor of the Columbian, printed in Bloomsburg.

The Conference Meetings at the Church of the Messiah (Universalist), commenced last evening. Rev. E. R. FULLER, of N. Y., preached the sermon, after which a full inquiry and conference meeting was held, at which addresses were made the by Rev. Dr. TAYLOR, L. F. GARDNER, and others. A free opportunity for inquiry was afforded to all. The meetings will be continued every evening throughout the week, and the public are earnestly invited to attend. Written or oral questions will be welcomed and answered.

W. C. PIERCE sold two steer calves, eleven months old each, and one steer twenty-two months old, to a Towanda butcher for $75. Now it would take four or more of the average natives of the county twenty-two months old each, to bring that amount of money. The united ages of the latter would be 88 months. That of the former 44 months. Two to one in favor of good blood and good care. The oldest steer weighed over ten hundred pounds, and had no grain all summer.—Northern Tier Gazette.

Mrs. PUMPELLY, of Owego, died in Paris on the 14th of December last. The remains arrived in Owego last week. We extract the following from an obituary notice in the Owego Times. Mrs. P. had many acquaintances in this place:

"It is difficult to associate death with the intensely active brain that ceased to think, and the heart that ceased to beat a little more than two months ago in a foreign land. That life began in the Susquehanna Valley, seventy-six years ago.

In the latter part of the last century, her father, George Welles, removed his family to Athens, Pa., where they acquired the large and fertile peninsula, at the junction of the Susquehanna and Chemung rivers.

Her parents were of exceptional culture, and were descended from families that have, within the past two centuries, produced an unusual number of eminent men—Colonial Governors, statesmen, and noted military and civil engineers.

Mrs. Pumpelly was born in 1803; 1824, she married Mr. William Pumpelly—a union that lasted happily more than half a century, till the death of her husband in 1876. Throughout her life, she was a student, reading on many subjects, and retaining well the substance of what she read. And while she was to the last, a devoted Christian of the Orthodox type, this fact did not prevent her from informing herself understandingly upon those results of modern investigation which are by many considered dangerous ground.

Her love of the beautiful in nature and art found expression in painting and poetry, and when the severe affliction of deafness came upon her, these were a constant resource and unceasing joy.

Her home was decorated by her brush, and besides a volume of earlier poems, she published one or two shorter ones in later years.

But it is not simply of the intellectual part of her nature that we would speak. In her domestic and social qualities there was a rare charm. As a mother with her intensely loving heart, her ever ready sympathy extending from the minutest to the broadest detail, she could sustain and cheer the student, open to him unknown depths of power to which he might attain, showing him the glorious result of well doing, quickening the aspirations, exalting and ennobling his efforts, "arching his young life with rainbows"—making it seem something grand and high to live for.

Personal.

E. E. LOOMIS, of Troy, who was compelled to succumb to adverse circumstances during the late financial panic, is about to become sole proprietor of the old Pomeroy store in that village.

As we predicted, Maj. DIVEN was elected Mayor of Elmira yesterday, by a majority of over 500.

GEO. C. STOLL, publisher of the Laporte Democrat, has been in town for a day or two. He returns to Sullivan county to-day.

I. ROGALSKI has accepted a position with a New York jewelry house, and will close business here.

The firm of PATCH BROTHERS has been dissolved, and is succeeded by the new one of PATCH & TRACY. Mr. W. G. TRACY having taken the place of C. P. PATCH. The new firm will continue the business which has been so successfully prosecuted by its predecessor. We gladly welcome Mr. T. to the ranks of the active business men of Towanda.

A large number of the friends of Mayor elect, DIVEN, gathered at his residence last evening to congratulate him upon his election. The concourse was composed of men of all parties, and the Emmet Band. Maj. DIVEN was called upon, and from his doorstep made a few remarks, reiterating his platform, and concluded by thanking his friends and inviting them inside. There an excellent lunch was spread, the genial host dispensing on all around the sunshine of his presence, and Capt. REID, Mr. JEFF WISNER and other friends attending to the coffee and eatables. It was a most pleasant occasion, and the Mayor elect created on all the impression that he was the right man, not only there, but also for the office of Mayor. The informal reception lasted about two hours.—Elmira Advertiser.

And that reminds us of a little incident. Some years ago our genial friend and old townsman, Hon. E. N. FRISBIE, was defeated for Mayor of Elmira, by Mr. ARNOT. When the result of the election became known, a procession marched to the residence of Mr. A. for the purpose of congratulating him. The defeated candidate was in the crowd. On arriving at the ARNOT mansion repeated calls were made for the Mayor elect, but no response, the gentleman having left the city. At the urgent solicitation of Mrs. ARNOT, Mr. FRISBIE ascended the porch and apologized for the non-appearance of the gentleman they had assembled to honor, in this characteristic manner:

"Friends and fellow citizens, I am requested to state that Mr. ARNOT is not at home, but the corpse will now exhibit himself."

Report of Chief Engineer.

To the Honorable Burgess and Town Council of Towanda Borough.

GENTLEMEN:—In compliance with Article 2d, Section 3d, of the new Constitution and By-Laws of the Towanda Fire Department, I respectfully submit my annual report for the year ending Dec. 31, 1879.

CONDITION OF ENGINES, &C.

I think the Steamers, Hand Engine, Hook and Ladder Truck and Hose Carriages are in as good condition as they were at the time I took charge of the Department—but our hose supply is very light, only 700 feet for each steamer, and 500 for the Naiad engine. I would suggest that the Council purchase at least 500 feet more for the use of steamers. Although we expect to have water works soon, we may see the time before they are completed that by having more hose we might save a large amount of property.

STRENGTH OF THE DEPARTMENT AS TO MEMBERS.

Franklin Steamer Co., No. 1,.....72
Naiad Hand Engine Co., No. 2,.....36
Lin-Ta Steamer and Hose Co., No. 3,.....112
Mantua Hook and Ladder Co., No. 4,.....44

Total strength, 264
We have, also, 8 good Fire Police—fully equipped.
