This is a regular May day. Weather mild and balmy.

Quite a gale was experienced in Monroeton yesterday. The roof was blown from DODGE's hotel barn.

There is a great demand for dwelling houses this spring, and the next few weeks will witness a large number of changes.

Many Towanda families will make a virtue of necessity this year, and economize in the matter of ice. The supply is very short.

Why is it necessary for the county to pay 6 per cent. interest on bonds when the government and municipal corporations get plenty of funds at 4 and 5 per cent.

We hope the people of Towanda may not forget Doctor MCKNIGHT's lecture on "The Great Pyramid," at Christ Church to-morrow evening. No admision fee will be charged, but a collection to, pay expenses, will be taken.

A number of important business changes will take place in Troy this spring To LONG & Co., succeed a new firm, the designation of which has not yet been announced. The firm will be composed, however, of JAMES R. WILLOUR and LESTON BLISS, who for many years have been popular clerks at the RED, INGTON & LEONARD store, E. S. BAILEY, of the firm of BAILEY, FANNING & LOOMIS, and WILL PIERCE, late clerk with LONG & Co., and formerly with BENNETT & COVINGTON.

We are in receipt of the March number of Little Squib. Like its predecessor, which accidentally came under our notice, it is a gem. No nonsense, but filled with entertaining, instructive matter. Typographically it would be a creditable specimen of the "art preservative" to issue from any press. We place Little Squib on our exchange list, and improve this opportunity to thank the editors for this kind notice of the REVIEW:

"The Daily REVIEW, published at Towanda, once the home of the elder members of our family, recently gave the Squib a very flattering notice, which we duly appreciate. Its editor, Mr. S. W. Alvord, was known to our pressman many years ago, as an agreeable, genial gentleman; and the REVIEW bears abundant witness to his skill and capacity in his profession."

COLUMBUS (commonly known as "CLUM") DEFOREST, who has constantly figured in the police courts of Towanda, Waverly and Owego for several years past, is once more in trouble. He and JERRY FRISTER, another colored man, were arrested by Police Constable ROBERTSON and Constable PUTNAM, last Saturday evening, charged with burglary and larceny. They were accused of breaking into the house of Mrs. SULLIVAN, a colored woman who lives on Chestnut street, on the night of February 10th, and stealing therefrom six chairs. A search was made and the chairs were discovered in DEFOREST's possession. He had other stolen chairs, which have not yet been claimed by their owner. The prisoners were committed to jail to await the action of the next grand jury.—Owego Gazette, February 26.

Personal.

Miss SARAH MOODY, of Chestnut street, is visiting in Wayne county.

Miss LIZZIE McCABE is visiting friends in Philadelphia.

J. H. SIMMINS has removed his boot and shoe shop to the rooms over JACOBS clothing store, Pattons Block.

Miss LOTTIE MOORE is spending a few weeks with friends in Harrisburg.

Miss CARRIE, daughter of the late conductor BUCK, will leave Towanda soon and make her home in Jersey City, with her grandmother. She leaves many friends in Towanda.

HENDLEMAN is having a new sign painted on the front wall of his store.

CHARLES BEERS, mail contractor on LeRaysville route, manufactures the purest and best maple sugar brought to this market.

C. P. MOORE, will go to Minnesota next week to spend a month or two for benefit of his health.

Col. MEANS offers his foundry for sale.

S. P. WHITCOMB, who has been confined to his house with inflammation of the eyes for several weeks, is able to attend to business again.

THOS. H. SENIOR, a gentleman well known to the printing fraternity, and who has many friends here, is in town.

Sheriff UTZ, of Sullivan county, in town today, en route to Philadelphia with two prisoners, sentenced by his Honor, Judge INGHAM, to terms in the Penitentiary. One of them, SPEARMAN, was convicted of murder in the second degree, and will serve a term of seven years.

J. V. WILLCOCK has removed his harness shop to Bridge street.

LARRY HOLLERAN, who has been suffering several weeks from the effects of a dose of poison, is improving, and is thought to be out of danger. It was a close call for LARRY.

Superintendent PACKER is in town to-day.

HOWARD COLE and NELLIE ALLEN, of East Troy, who have been visiting at WM. LAMENT'S, in this place, return to their home to-day.

PETER HERBIG will occupy the Maynard Cottage at Menequa the coming summer, and it is said will rebuild the hotel.

If he is an old bach, our good friend JOB MORLEY is popular with the young people of Burlington, as witness the following item written from that place to the Elmira Advertiser:

The Literary Society increases in interest every week. We feel very much indebted to Mr. Job Morley. Ever since the Society was organized he has allowed them to use the large hall in the brick block, rent free. Such men deserve credit.

With fingers weary and worn,

With a look that was hungry and lean,

A young woman sat alone in her room,

And played a game of "Fifteen."

Move, move, move,

Oh, what a saddening sight,

Figure it out as best she could,

The blocks would never come right.

The late residence of SAULSBURY COLE, deceased, in Monroe township, narrowly escaped destruction by fire on Saturday morning last. The flames were discovered issuing from the roof of the building by engineer GUNN, of the Barclay Railroad, who at once stopped his train, and several of the train hands at once applied themselves to extinguishing the fire, which they succeeded in doing before much damage was done. The fire caught from the chimney, in which there was a defect.—Reporter

FRANK SMITH's large Newfoundland dog died last night. The noble animal was a great favorite, especially with the policemen, and had been following BURNS and DIMMICK last evening. Mr. D. left the dog on the walk and went into KIRBY'S. When he returned after a few minutes, he found the dog dying. On making a post-mortem examination, a piece of fresh meat was found in his stomach, which had probably been poisoned. It will be a dear job for the person who caused the death if he is discovered.

In giving the proceedings of the SPEARMAN murder trial which came off in Laporte last week, the Sullivan Review thus refers to our townsman, Court Reporter TUPPER:

"Frank P. Tupper, the court stenographer, made many friends during the week. He is, besides being an "expert" in his profession, and one of the best, if not the best, reporter in the state, a true gentleman in every sense of the word. If the county had not secured his services the trial would have been prolonged for several days next week. This would have been fun for hotel keepers and witnesses, but not so pleasant for the taxpayers."

FOUND near the nail mill, a bunch of keys., The owner can have them by paying for this notice.

We clip the following notice of a Kansas firm, one member of which is a former citizen of this place, from the McPherson Republican:

"Messrs. Milliken, Myers & Barber, whose advertisement appears in another column, are doing a large and successful real estate business, and are a very popular firm. They are gentlemen, thoroughly identified with the interests of McPherson, and are always glad to furnish any desired information relative to the county or city. On their books can be found a great many desirable bargains, both in country and city property, which they are always glad to show. We can heartily recommend the firm to our readers for thorough reliability and square dealing. Their abstract books are models of excellence, and they are doing a large business in this line. They also represent some ten of the leading Insurance Companies of Europe and America, and are placing many policies. Enjoying, as they do, the fullest confidence of the community, they are sure to increase their already immense business."
