General McDowell has been ordered to San Francisco with all the available troops in his division.

A Leadville dispatch says the celebrated iron mine sold there on Saturday to New York parties for $3,000,000.

George Hilton, the postmaster of South Parsonfield, Me., is eighty-one years old, and has occupied that position since 1830.

The Coal Bluff mine, in the Monongahela valley, is on fire, and it is feared that the entire mine will burn up.

The iron ore of Blair county is developing new qualities of value, which are destined to make it much sought after.

A fire at Petrolia, Butler county, on Friday morning, destroyed five buildings, causing a loss of $25,000, which is partly covered by insurance.

The exports of beef to England last week was much larger than for several months before and the demand is increasing.

President Hayes has accepted an invitation to open the Metropolitan Museum of Art in Central Park, New York, on March 30th.

The Erie Railroad reports an increase in gross earnings for January, over January of 1879, of $149,000, the increase in net earnings being $164,000.

On Saturday afternoon, while Thomas Dotty, Samuel Morgan and Samuel Vallhaadt were attempting to cross the Ohio river, at Beaver, in a skiff, they were drowned.

The six days' pedestrian match between Danial O'Leary and E. P. Weston for $5,000 a side began in San Francisco at 1 o'clock Monday morning. About 1,000 persons were present at the start. Weston does not appear to be in the best possible condition, while O'Leary's condition is excellent. O'Leary took the lead at the start, and at 8 o'clock the score stood, O'Leary, 40 miles 4 laps: Weston, 37 miles 7 laps.

The riot bribery cases came up for trial in Harrisburg yesterday, Judges Pearson and Henderson on the bench. Messrs. Brewster, Mann, Cassidy, Herr, Lamber-ton, Albright, Weiss, Hall, Jordan and Armstrong, counsel for defense, and Messrs. Hollinger (District Attorney), J. W. Simonton, Matt Carpenter, Frank B. Gowen, Jere. Balck, J. C. McAlarney and George Irwin, counsel for the commonwealth, were all present. In the cases of the commonwealth vs. Charles B. Salter, William F. Rumberger and J. and Jesse R. Crawford, charged with corrupt solicitations, pleas of guilty were entered by defendants. William A. Kemble entered a plea of guilty, and protested that he never did corruptly offer any money or things of value to either or any of the persons named in the bill of indictment. Judge Pearson seriously doubted the legality of this form of plea. The plea was then withdrawn until to-morrow afternoon. Christian Long's case was continued until this morning on account of sickness of the defendant.
