P. POWELL, P. M.

You can get a good, square, meal, served by intelligent lady waiters, at the M. E. Church Parlors, any time after 5 o'clock this evening.

JOHN CHERRY, the deaf and dumb printer, has rendered us valuable service in issuing a number of paper-books. He starts south to-day. He is a good printer, and we commend him to the attention of the craft.

An accident, resulting in the breaking of our press, caused a delay in the issuing of the REVIEW to-day. Thanks to M. O. MOODY, the best blacksmith in town, the damage has been repaired and we shall be out on time in the morning.

You can save yourself the trouble of going home, and your good wife, mother, or sister, as the case may be, the annoyance of preparing your supper, by calling at the M. E. Church Parlors any time after 5 o'clock this evening. The ladies will have an old time sumptuous New England dinner spread, and will be glad to see you.

The trustees of Crystal Lodge, K. of H. yesterday paid to Mrs. R. J. SHERMAN $2000, the amount to which she was entitled by reason of the death of her husband, who was a member of the Lodge. Mr. SHERMAN died on the 10th of February, and the claim was adjusted and paid within 30 days. Mr. SHERMAN had been a member of the Lodge but three years, and had paid into the fund out of which the insurance is paid only about $38.

A True Lent.

Is this a fast—to keep
The harder lean and clean
From fat of veals and sheep?

Is it to quit the dish
Of flesh, yet still to fill
The platter high with fish?

No! 'tis a fast to dole
Thy sheaf of wheat and meat
Unto the hungry soul.

It is to fast from strife,
From old debate and hate—
To circumsise thy life.

To show a heart grief-vent;
To starve thy sin, not bin—
And that's to keep thy Lent.

—Robert Herrick.

Those disposed to give VENNOR one more trial can preserve this, his last prophecy:

"April I sketch as entering cold and stormy, with snow up to the 4th or 5th day, after which cold rains may continue to about the 10th, the 3d and 4th days being probably the most wintry. Next, I foresee a cold term ending in a heavy snowfall on the 15th, 16th and 17th days of March, the 16th and 17th to be the days of snowfall. This storm period will in all probability reach both Boston and New York; but should cold rains replace snow in these last named cities I shall not be surprised. The stormiest part of March is almost certain to occur after the 15th of the month, and my American friends must excuse me if I again include a moderate and reasonable portion of their territories in this last prediction.

The "Mirror of the World" exhibited at the M. E. Church last evening was witnessed by a large and delighted audience.

Mrs. GEO. E. FOX has rented her house for two years, and about the first of April will go south to join her husband and daughters. We, in common with the people in Towanda, wish them great prosperity in their new home, but hope it may be for their interest to make their sojourn in Maryland of short duration. We don't like to lose such residents as Mr. FOX and his family.

The following ode was read by Mr. S. C. J. on the occasion of the initiation of a new member into the order of S. P. M. A. M. S., at the Institute recently:

Welcome to all our brothers dear,
We gladly offer, gathered here

To celebrate this great occasion,
With oysters, toasts and recitation.

'Round this festive board we feel
A grander hope, a stronger zeal
That binds our hearts in the desire
Never for females to aspire.

When first our brotherhood was formed
A number small its ranks adorned;
Five worthy brothers first unfurled
The banner, which defies the world.

The next in order to unite
Was brother C—p, a shining light,
Whom in our throng to-night we see
A happy man from snares set free.

Then brother S—h our ranks enlarged,
Who all his duties well discharged,
And absent though he be to-night
The S. P. M. is his delight.

Now brother L—e was so beset
By a dire female he had met;
He safety sought with earnest will
Before he went to Stevensville.

Then brother L—h resolved to find
A balm for his distracted mind—
He fled at once to our embrace
And now behold his happy face.

Now brother M—n was so ensared
By a black-eyed girl and curly haired—
He at first ignored our warning voice,
But now has made a glorious choice.

And brother C—r observing well
The joys that to our lot befall
Determined he would also share
The blessings fraught with bliss so rare.

And brother S—t long assayed
To prove one ought to live a maid.
At last he saw his great mistake—
So he is now with joy mate.

And brother M—v moved by fear
Lest he should be some female's dear
Did soon accept a brother's part
And now is joined in hand and heart.

But now at last moved by regret,
We sought the rescue of B—c,
How well our labors did avail
He will relate, a wondrous tale.

Thus one by one our number grows
From those rescued from fearful woes.
Our Brotherhood, no longer small,
Will cause the "Broomstick Rule" to fall.

Now Brothers here, so full of joy
Remember those whom maids annoy;
Since here you are so glad and free,
Strive to set others at liberty.

And as we in our mystic acts
Scorn the wiles of tempters grave,
Let us all our powers tax
To set free another slave.

The meetings at the Universalist church are to be continued this week.

The young gentlemen at the Institute have formed a Society for the "Prevention of Matrimony, and the Amelioration of the Married State." Not very complimentary to their mothers.
