Make your arrangements to hear Rev. F. D. HOSKINS on "Modern Atheism," at Christ Church to-morrow evening.

It takes 27,400 feet of water main to pipe the Borough, and it is thought that the work will be finished about the 4th of July.

Mr. HAIGHT, of the Dye Works, has concluded to open a laundry. A good idea. He will commence business on Monday next.

The Dushore Review displays commendable enterprise in issuing a supplement containing to charge of Judge INGHAM to the jury in the SPEARMAN murder trial.

WEATHER INDICATIONS FOR TO-DAY.—Cloudy and threatening, with rain or snow. North east to south east winds. Higher temperature with falling Barometer.

The regular meeting of the officers of the 9th Regiment, as fixed by the Executive Committee, and approved by the Colonel, will be held at Towanda on Wednesday the 17th day of March. The citizens of Towanda will, in the evening, give a grand banquet to the officers.—Wilkes-Barre Record.

A very neatly put up package was sent this morning, by train, by the Erie Station master at Smithboro, to Wysox, Pa., to a lady living in that neighborhood. She had been visiting near Smithboro, and for some reason or other, left her false teeth at the station there. Probably she had been hurried onto the train. There has been much telegraphing for the useful articles ever since, and the person interested must be happier to-day than she was yesterday.—Elmira Free Press.

It is reported, on trustworthy authority, that ECCLES ROBINSON has withdrawn from the defence of the action begun by his wife for divorce, and will allow her to take judgment unopposed. This conduct on his part is not in consequence of new developments in the case, but rather it is in consequence of the leaking out of facts—through the recent trial about furniture—in the possession of the plaintiff's attorneys and witnesses, which showed quite conclusively the Mr. ROBINSON was deceiving his council and friends. Mr. MILLARD therefore withdrew from the defence, and Mr. ROBINSON has taken himself out of the city, and probably for good. According to reports, he has for once made a clean breast of it.—Binghamton Republican.

A subscriber writing from Towanda has the following to say of a well-known citizen of this city: "Mr. SAMUEL WHITNEY, well known among the boot and shoe manufacturers and their employes, of your city, I am glad to inform you is in the employ of HUMPHREY BROTHERS & TRACY'S Boot and Shoe Manufactory of this place. SAM. is a gentlemanly, good natured, jovial and pleasant man to talk with, and during the short space of time he has been here, has made a host of friends. We hope he may become a permanent citizen of this place—and we know that Elmira can well afford to let some of her good citizens like SAM. become residents of our town, and we hope there will always be a good place of employment open to them, whenever wanted."—Elmira Advertiser.

It is so in politics, religion, and everywhere else in life. The man whom you boost up the tree not only forgets to toss you down some of the fruit, but is as likely as not to pelt you with the chewings.

Superintendent JUDD caught a youngster stealing bolts from the Barelay shops the other day, but let the little offender off on surrendering the property and promising to "refrain his hands from picking and stealing" hereafter. The zeal for collecting old iron amounts almost to a mania with the boys.

The mere mention of the name of Rev. F. D. HOSKINS—who was for several years Rector of Christ Church, and has hosts of friends and admirers here—in connection with the lecture to be delivered at the Church to-morrow evening, will be sufficient to attract a full house.

The Rev. Doctor STEWART completed a decade as pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of this place last Sunday. For these days this is a long pastorate, but the Doctor has so endeared himself to his parishioners that it is quite probable, should life and health be spared, he will remain here many more years.

The present membership of the church is 313. Twenty-eight members have died during the ten years; some of them the most liberal and devoted of all the friends of the church.

The benevolence of the congregation has been munificent and praiseworthy. The contributions for all purposes amount to nearly $55,000; of this sum $15,000 was given to the several missionary and benevolent societies of the Presbyterian church at large. The indebtedness of the church has been fully provided for, so that the congregation enters upon another decade free from debt.

Last evening the ladies of the church gave Doctor STEWART and his good wife a reception at the Church Parlors, in commemoration of the anniversary of their arrival here. The congregation attended in large numbers, and the evening was most pleasantly and profitably spent. A sumptuous repast was spread, congratulations offered, and the hearty unfeigned desire expressed that the happy and pleasant relation existing between pastor and people might long continue.

On returning to the parsonage after the reception, Mrs. STEWART found that her home had been visited and a handsome set of china left, as another souvenir of the anniversary.

R. S. THURBUR has been confined to his house for the last five weeks by an attack of rheumatism.

A Troy, Pa., correspondent sends to the Elmira Advertiser the following:

"At Sylvania, a small town about four miles west of this place, a drunken row and shameful scene took place one day last week. A soap man who had been carousing around here for a number of days, making night hideous with his discordant yells, met with a tin man, and they journeyed to Sylvania, where, getting the proprietor of the Sylvania House, together with his wife and son, drunk, and also getting themselves pretty well filled, began to knock each other down. After blacking an eye or two apiece for each other (woman not excepted), they settled the affair by having three mock marriages. The soap man acting as officiating clergyman, soon joined two hired girls and the old woman to three, not being worthy the name of men. This is not the first time the people of Sylvania have been forced to stand such insults from the proprietor of that hotel, for he has several times been guilty of such performances, and not long ago drew a knife on a young man of that place.

A car, loaded with grain, jumped the track at the upper depot yesterday morning. No great damage resulted except the emptying of a quantity of corn.

A BREECH LOADING GUN—12 gauge, 30 inch, (laminated steel), 9 pound, pistol grip, rebounding locks, patent fore stock, extension rib, double bolt, top snap, American walnut stock, finely finished, good shooter, and only $50—with 22 Sturtevant brass shells (moveable anvil)—$52—at this office.
