The News Condensed.

Congressman Cofforth, of this state is seriously ill with diphtheria.

Kimble and Salter are to be sentenced on 29th inst.

General Grant, it is reported, will go to the Sandwich Islands next.

Colonel and Mrs. T. A. Scott are about to go to Europe again, it is said, and intend to stay there a long time.

Cardinal McCloskey celebrated yesterday the thirty-sixth anniversary of his elevation to the episcopacy. The Cardinal was consecrated a bishop in the old cathedral in Mott St. in 1844.

W. O. Bigelow, Portmaster at Annapolis has been arrested charged with having hypothecated in New-York postage stamps to the amount of about $4,800 belonging to the United States.

A railway company in Italy lately advertised for a thousand servants at 1.80 francs (36 cents) a day, and 28,000 application were received.

Kangaroo leather is attracting some attention as a substitute for morocco, in the manufacture of ladies' shoes. It is said to be waterproof, and very durable, when of good quality.

The most extensive bee farm in the world is probably near Beeton, Canada.
It covers four acres, and last year the owner secured 66,000 pounds of honey from his 19,000,000 little workers.

The first pianos manufactured in the United States were made in Boston, 1822, since which time the instrument has been greatly improved and brought to its present state of perfection.

Emil J. Petroff, a member of the State legislature, was yesterday convicted in the Court of Dauphin county, of corrupt solicitation of fellow legislators. This is a victory for law and purity at Harrisburg, and should have a wholesome effect.

Bullion estimated at about $200,000 was stolen from the Union Pacific express office at Sidney, Neb., on the 10th, but the treasure has been recovered, except $13,- 000. It was found under a pile of coal near the Union Pacific track, where a trackman had seen the robbers conceal something in the afternoon.

Congress continues to receive petitions and memorials asking for the enactment of a National bankrupt law. Yesterday Mr. Morton presented in the House the petition of Messrs. Low, Harriman & Co., Lewis Brothers & Co., and forty other mercantile firms of New York, praying for the passage of such a law.

There are about five thousand Chinamen in New-York and vicinity at present, and it is said to be likely that five thousand more will be brought east to engage in various labors. It appears that a Mrs.
Martha Wilson, whose cousin is a wife of Yung Wing, vice consul for China at Washington, are about to engage actively in a move to bring the Chinese east, particularly to New York and Philadelphia.

A dispatch from Bismark dated th 10th says: "The first mail received here since February 15 arrived last night. Teams went out for seventy miles East, where a train is blockaded. Twenty passengers also reached here overland. The letter mail brought consisted of fourteen full pouches. About three tons of papers are still on the train, which, owing to the ice on the track, is not expected this week. Once clear, and the Northern Pacific will have no trouble.

The citizens are short of provisions, and are being supplied by Commissioners at Fort Licholn. There is not a pound of flour in the city. The damage to business is very great."

Eight members of the "salvation army" have just arrived at Castle Garden from London. Seven of them are plain looking women aged about thirty, and the other is a man aged thirty-two. One of the women is called captain and the others lieutenants. The man has the title of commissioner. The women wear derby hats and the man a cap, and around the crown of each is a silk band with the words, "The salvation army" in gold letters upon it.

The party is a delegation from the salvation army of London, and is to begin out-of-doors religious work in this country, commencing in New York.

It appears that the salvation army work has been successful in London, and is well endorsed in England.
