The easiest riding hack in town is JOHN BERMAN'S. Remember this when you have occasion to take a ride.

WEATHER INDICATIONS FOR TO-DAY.—Higher barometer; stationary or lower temperature; winds northerly, from north east to north west, with occasional snow.

LYNCHCOMBE, the barber, is branching out. He has taken the shop under the meat market, and will hereafter run it in connection with his other shop.

The public are invited to hear the lecture on "Modern Atheism," by Rev. F. D. HOSKINS, at Christ Church this evening. It is free. A collection will be taken to defray expenses.

The Philomathean Society will discuss the following question this evening:

Resolved, That our Republic is in danger of soon becoming a monarchy.

Disputants, affirmative, G. M. MARSHALL; negative, GEO. I. BUCK. Umpire, J. P. WILSON.

The order of Knights of Honor appears to be growing. During the present week a new lodge has been organized in Monroeton, with the following officers:

Past Dictator—DR. O. H. ROCKWELL.
Dictator—CHAS. N. WALKER.
Vice Dictator—J. A. DEVOE.
Assistant Dictator—JOHN F. JONES.
Reporter—E. F. FOWLER.
Financial Reporter—J. H. SUMMERS.
Treasurer—L. L. LYON.
Guide—W. S. CAPACH.
Chaplain—JOSEPH SWARTWOOD.
Guardian—E. R. COX.
Sentinel—G. W. WACK.
Trustees—THEODORE ACKLEY, O. F. MINGOS and W. J. DEVOE.
Representative to Grand Lodge—O. H. ROCKWELL. Alternate—C. N. WALKER.

The ass-tute young man who professes to edit the Argus, comes about as near the truth as is possible for him to do, in the following item in its last issue:

"It would be more agreeable to what few people happen to read the daily, if it did not 'slobber' over certain people quite so much. It has already selected the next sheriff and county officers, and recognizes in our jolly and good-looking sheriff, an exact likeness of Gov. Hartranft. Now we do not desire to doubt the truthfulness of this statement, but having seen the late Governor, we fail to tumble. Taffy is sweet, but it is nauseating also. And then Pete Dean is a much handsomer man than Hartranft."

The "green-eyed monster" always finds an easy prey in the susceptible young gentleman whose name appears as editor of the Argus. But we beg to assure both him and the fellow who suggested the above item, that the "daily" is entirely satisfied with the number of readers it has, and we are certain all of them are intelligent enough to recognize in the above pure fabrication, not even the semblance of truth. We propose, hereafter, as heretofore, to select our own words and phrases in such local items as appear in the REVIEW, regardless of whether they suit the fastidious taste of the Argus, or the envy of unscrupulous candidates, who make that journal the vehicle for fulminating their anathemas against those who do not sympathize with their selfish ambition.

Personal.

Mrs. ROSSEEL is visiting her daughters, Mrs. Col. OVERTON and Mrs. IRA B. HUMPHREY.

Mrs. H. W. PATRICK accompanied her husband to Philadelphia.

D'A. OVERTON has returned from Supreme Court.

Rev. Mr. HOSKINS will be the guest of E. T. FOX, during his stay in Towanda.

The Wednesday Club will meet next week at N. TIDD'S.

C. MANVILLE PRATT, who has been attending a course of medical lectures in Philadelphia is home again. He will spend the spring and summer reading in his father's office preparatory to graduating next winter.

A railroad superintendent not a thousand miles from here, who was applied to for a pass, sent the following scriptural answer: In those days there were no passes given. Thou shalt not pass—Numbers xx. 18. Suffer not a man to pass—Judges iii. 28. The wicked shall no more pass.—Nahum 1. 15.

None shall ever pass.—Isaiah xxxiv. 10.

This generation shall not pass.—Mark xiii. 30.

Though they roar, yet they shall not pass.—Jer. v. 22.

GREEN'S LANDING, March 10, 1880.

Mrs. SALLY CONABY, an aged lady living near here, fell yesterday morning and dislocated and fractured an ankle. Dr. E. P. ALLEN was called and rendered such surgical aid as the case required. Though severe, her injuries, we hope, will not permanently disable her.

Mrs. NANCY MORLEY has returned from Middletown, N. Y., where she has been visiting during the winter, to her home in Athens. School meetings in Athens twp., are booming—so reported.

A School Institute was organized last week by Athens teachers.

WILL.

WARREN CENTER, March 9, 1880.

Not having seen anything from Warren of late, I will just send a few items respecting the dark cloud hovering o'er us at present: Sickness and death seem to be the all prevailing topic, otherwise we are quiet as usual. That terrible scourge—scarlet fever—has found its way into the eastern part of our township, and one or two cases have reached the Center, making desolate many homes. Two Saturdays in succession there were two funerals at the Center. The first one, Mr. MALSAM'S, bore away their babe, to lie beside its brother, who went but a year before, and Mr. G. GOWAN'S laid their only child to rest last Saturday. Mr. J. BOWEN and Mrs. BAILEY each buried an only child—scarcely a year ago Mrs. B. was widowed, and now childless.

God comfort the widow,
Who mourns for her son;
His loved ones He chastens,
That his will may be done.
Then look to Him, mother,
"Though a mother no more,"
For grace to sustain
Till you reach the blest shore,
Where with Christ and his angels
No longer you'll weep.
But with others redeemed
Cast your crown at his feet.
As the mother of old
Sought the prophet to tell,
May you yet, feel to say,
It is well, it is well.

Monday Miss H. FITCHER was buried, having been an invalid for the past six years—her's being the eighth funeral in the seven years. One sister dying less than a month ago.

To-day the grave closed over FRANK PENDLETON, while his twin brother is wrestling with the same disease, and his mother is not able to leave her room.

Mrs. B. CORNELL and Mrs. J. WHALEN are rapidly nearing the dark river—both having incurable diseases of long standing.

Thus, all ages seem stricken down, and sudden death and lingering disease alike, bearing home their sheaves.

More than the usual number of families are changing residences this spring.

Miss MINNIE BRONSON, of Conn., is visiting relatives here.

Miss L. FRISBIE, of Orwell, is spending a short time with her grandparents.

Persons desiring to rent houses will find it to their advantage to consult our "For Rent," department.

Mr. HAIGHT, of the Dye Works, has concluded to open a laundry. A good idea. He will commence business on Monday next.

A BREACH LOADING GUN—12 gauge, 30 inch, (laminated steel), 9 pound, pistol grip, rebounding locks, patent fore stock, extension rib, double bolt, top snap, American walnut stock, finely finished, good shooter, and only $50—with 22 Sturtevant brass shells (moveable anvil)—$52—at this office.
