VENNOR is giving us a little touch of winter again.

It is estimated that over one hundred new buildings will be built in Athens during the coming year. Then, it is said, there will not be enough to supply the growing demand.

The Towanda REVIEW keeps right along like any other well established daily.—Waverly Advocate.

And why not, pray?

Mr. KENT having decided to close out his dry goods business, will begin an auction sale on Monday next, and any of our readers who desire to secure bargains in dress goods, cloths, &c., should attend the sale. The stock comprises everything in the line, embracing goods of the finest quality, but Mr. K. informs us that all will be sold, regardless of the price realized. Mr. TAYLOR, of Elmira, who enjoys the reputation of being the best auctioneer in the Southern Tier, has been engaged, and will conduct the sale. The ladies are especially invited to attend.

"North Towanda against the world," was what Uncle ELIJAH said at the close of a very enjoyable and pleasant evening's entertainment at the hospitable residence of G. B. MILLS, Esq., last evening. It was the regular meeting night of Oscaluwa Grange, and when the business had proceeded to "Good of the Order," Brother MILLS invited all the members to repair to his house. There were no excuses or regrets; no necessity for "compelling" any to come, and when "the door was shut" after the arrival of the guests, Mrs. M. found it necessary to lay about forty plates for her company. No subject suggested under the head of "good of the Order," ever received so thorough and satisfactory discussion as did the bountiful supply of good things set before the members on this occasion. After the supper had been disposed of came the "feast of reason and flow of soul," in which the younger members of the Order participated. The recitation of the "Fashionable Church," and the "Model Church," by LESLIE MILLS and DORA HOLLON, were admirably executed, and attentively listened to. WILLIS and FRED MILLS, and Mr. E. BADGER also favored the company with recitations.

If the grange has accomplished no other good, it has been the means of begetting and fostering a refined social sentiment in North Towanda seldom experienced in rural districts. The gathering last evening will long be cherished as one of the pleasantest meetings Oscaluwa has enjoyed.

SAM BERRY say the failure of the ice crop might have been foreseen, as instead of saving the best ice for seed, the dealers put it into market, and when the young crop came up, instead of weeding it and keeping off the potato bugs, it was allowed to water-soak, and didn't grow well at all; then, when they ought to have covered it up from the sun at noon, they strolled off down town trying to collect their last season's bills, allowing the ice to care for itself, and it being young and tender it just evaporated, glorified itself in rising vapor rather than freeze up sold in the heat; and they didn't use the best kind of thermometers either, nothing but old tin arrangements with the bulbs all busted. It's just what might have been expected, and its going to be hotter than a stove lid lifter next summer.

Personal.

Mrs. Judge RUSSELL is still suffering from the pain in her hand. The physician attributes her condition to poison.

Mrs. THOMAS CURRAN has been visiting friends in Overton this week.

Rev. F. D. HOSKINS delivered an interesting and able lecture, on "Modern Atheism," before the Helping Hand Society, at Christ Church last evening. Those who did not hear it were the losers.

Mr. TREADWELL of the Binghamton Republican is in town, and our people who desire a good daily should subscribe for his paper.

The Gazette says N. C. HARRIS has purchased the residence of the late C. F. WELLES, in Athens, and will move in about the first of April. It is an elegant property.

Prof. RYAN was in town Tuesday, and spent the evening with D. F. PARK. He has been visiting the schools in Litchfield twp., and also visited the Glen Valley school on Tuesday. While in the "State" of Litchfield he made his headquarters with A. D. MUNN. The Prof. states that he finds a marked improvement in schools throughout the county over last year.—Athens Gazette.

The following appeared in yesterday's Elmira Advertiser, under date of Towanda, March 11:

"At the residence of the bride on Third street, Mr. Milton Hough was married to Mrs. Margaret E. Smith, this afternoon at 3:30 P. M. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Stewart, in the presence of a select company of invited guests. The presents were numerous and elegant. The happy couple left town on No. 2, for a bridal trip. The best wishes for their future happiness and prosperity have been expressed by the many warm friends of the newly wedded pair."

GREEN'S LANDING, March 12, 1880.

A boy named ALDRICH, living in Athens, and attending school there, accidentally shot himself in the leg with a pistol which he carried. Dr. ALLEN extracted the ball, and the wound is not dangerous. Rapid advancement, when boys of 12 years are allowed to carry pistols to school, in the course of civilization. Say no more about Texas.

WILL.

ORLOJ. HAMLIN died in Smethport, McKean county Pa., on the 13th of February, 1880, in the 77th year of his age. He was well known to the early people of Bradford county, having read law in Towanda with SIMON KINNEY, and admitted to the bar of that county in 1826. From thence he went to Smethport, where he resided till the day of his death. He represented the county in the Pennsylvania legislature in 1832, and in 1838 was a member of the convention to revise the constitution of the state. He made his mark in that body, and his able speech on county representation has been frequently quoted since, and at the convention of 1874 his views were incorporated into the constitution. He resigned before the close of the convention on account of poor health, and HIRAM PAYNE, now of our village, was chosen to succeed him. He was a man of brilliant intellect, a fine literary scholar, and a profound lawyer. For the last thirty years he had been an invalid, and most of that time bedridden. The bar of McKean county paid him high honors on the occasion of his death.—Waverly Advocate.
