Good Maple Sugar is retailing at a shilling a pound.

The Commissioners are receiving numerous applications for the Poor House bonds.

FOUND, an oil-cloth carriage cover. For particulars call at this office.

ELIZA O'BOYLE, who married a man named J. E. CARTER, and removed to Warrensburg Missouri some time since, died a few days ago. She leaves a young child.

CELINDA HUSTON, wife of FRED A. CASH, died in Athens Saturday evening. The remains were brought here, and the funeral will take place from her mother's residence, on York Avenue.

After a long illness, borne with true Christian resignation, Mrs. W. C. BOGART, one of the oldest residents of Towanda, quietly fell a sleep Saturday evening. The funeral will take place from the house to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

GEO. W. CROSS died at the residence of his mother, Mrs. HORTON, on Main street, about 1 o'clock on Saturday. Deceased was in his thirty-first year. He had been an invalid for years. His disease was consumption.

The funeral will take place from the house this afternoon at 2:30.

C. O. HUNTINGTON, of Athens, publishes the following card in the last number of this Gazette of that place:

"Any party who borrowed money of the Athens Building and Loan Association, or Mutual Building and Saving Fund Association, of Towanda, or Towanda Building and Saving Fund Association, or Bradford Loan and Building Association, of Athens township, may learn something to their advantage by calling on me before making any further payments to said Associations."

THE USES OF PAPER.—So accustomed are we to the use—and abuse—of paper, that we hardly realize its immense importance and value. We are all, high and low, rich and poor, benefitted by it. It is almost as necessary to our comfortable existence as the air we breathe, the food we eat, or the water we drink. It is the medium by which we bring those near who are distant from us, and by which we intercommunicate wishes, plans, purposes and business, one with another. It makes educational facilities practicable; it furnishes the books we read, and with which we transact all which gives us our daily, weekly and monthly news and public comment; it represents our money values, and with the aid of the printing press, passes as a moneyed currency in nearly all civilized lands. The commercial world, the literary world, the mechanical, manufacturing, and mercantile worlds, and others of less importance, would be almost valueless, and of but little account without the ability to command the use of a sheet of paper. It is voice, hearing and eyesight to humanity.

Personal.

Miss ELMA HORTON is visiting her sister, Mrs. KERRICK, in Asylum.

Rev. H. L. JONES will deliver the next lecture before the Helping Hand Society.

GEO. B. MILLS' family are enjoying a visit from Mr. and Mrs. SMITH and baby, of Albany.

General KILPATRICK will lecture before the G. A. R. of this place next Friday evening.

S. A. MILLS, of North Towanda, is quite feeble, but is improving in health.

ROBERT GREGG, son of FRANK GREGG, Esq., received a dispatch from the Chief Engineer of the Missouri, Iowa, and Nebraska Railroad, tendering him a situation in the Engineer Corps of that road. He leaves today for Keokuk. We congratulate ROB on his good fortune, and bespeak for him success in the west.

JOHN M. RAHM has sold his residence, in the First Ward, to GRAHAM MACFARLANE.

Mrs. H. A. COWLES presented her husband on Tuesday last with a pair of twins—boy and girl. One of them died the following day, and the other has been very feeble. This is the second time this family has been increased by the birth of twins.

A. D. MUNN, of Litchfield, has been appointed Superintendent of the Poor House farm. The selection is a good one, and affords another evidence that the Commissioners will insist on an honest economical administration of the institution.

Mr. MUNN's term of office will begin on the first of April, and the salary for the first year has been fixed at $400. When the building is completed and occupied, the superintendent's salary will be $800.

Miss ANGIE TRUMBULL has purchased from Mrs. GREEN the millinery and dress-making business at Burlington. Miss T. is thoroughly experienced in every branch of the business, and the ladies of Burlington and vicinity consider themselves fortunate in having her locate in their midst, and will afford her a liberal patronage.

Mr. CHARLES H. SEELEY was initiated into the Towanda Lodge Knights of Honor, on Monday evening last. As CHARLEY weighs a little less than 400 pounds, and is about as thick as he is tall, we reckon he must have been a little too wide for some of the machinery.—Owego Record.

Mr. L. B. COBURN, of Towanda, spent three days this week and last with his brother, Mr. E. D. COBURN, in this village.—Ib.

ELEAZER T. FOX, Esq., President of the Citizens Bank, Towanda, was in town on Tuesday, and made us a brief call.—Ib.

The Station Agent at Wyalusing is bald-headed, and recently received the following dispatch from some facetious operator:

"You had better have the top of your head decorated with the imitation of spider. Fly time is coming."

A Lawyer's Ode to Spring.

Whereas, on certain boughs and sprays,
Now, diverse birds are heard to sing,
And sundry flowers their heads upraise,
Hail to the coming on of spring!

The songs of those said birds arouse
The memory of youthful hours,
As green as those said sprays and boughs,
As fresh and sweet as those said flowers.
The birds aforesaid—happy pairs—
Love, mid the aforesaid boughs, enshrine
In frechold nests; themselves, their heirs,
Administrators and assigns.

Oh, busiest term of Cupid's Court,
Where tender plaintiffs actions bring—
Season of frolic and of sport,
Hail, as aforesaid, of coming spring!

Superintendent's Notes.

March 8, 9, 10, 11, 12.—Visited the following schools: Athens, Glen Valley, Wm. Messing; Litchfield, Merrill, Tillie Owen; Cotton Valley, Chas. Colegrove; Center, Josie Farnsworth; South Hill, Mrs. Riefenburg; Tuttle, Frank Young; Perry, Fred Forbes; White, Wm. Horton; Neilley, Eva Lent; Burlington Borough, Geo. Spencer; Burlington Township, Luther's Mills, Alice Campbell. Directors, A. D. Munn, H. McKinney and J. F. Rogers, of Litchfield, and Chas. Morgan and Wm. Campbell, of Burlington Borough, accompanied to their schools, showing much interest in the progress of the work. Teachers and pupils in Cotton Hollow and Merrill schools are entitled to the gratitude of the people for elegant maps on plaster, and on side of rooms. Mr. Spencer's pupils read finely, and passed a good examination in geography. He requires pupils to print on slate or paper, all words of more than 4 or 5 letters in a short reading lesson of a couple of paragraphs. Before reading they stand, and one after another rapidly pronounce these words at sight. If all teachers practiced this, pupils would not drawl and hesitate in reading.

West Burlington and Litchfield townships are each to erect a new school house.

The widow of the late Prof. F. A. ALLEN, of Mansfield, has been appointed principal of the soldier's orphan school in that village. She has also been appointed administratrix of her late husband's estate.

WEATHER INDICATIONS FOR TO-DAY.—Falling barometer, preceded by slightly higher barometer. Winds westerly, shifting to warmer. Southerly winds. Clear or partly cloudy weather.
