The News Condensed.

Kearney, the San Francisco blather-skite has been convicted of inciting a mob to violence.

The fresco painters of New York on Saturday night arranged to demand an increase of wages to 3.50 per day, a day to consist of nine hours.

Charles C. Taylor, City Editor of the Philadelphia Daily Times, committed suicide Sunday by shooting. Sickness and business troubles rendered him insane.

An order has been issued by the receiver of the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad, that, beginning April 1, the wages of employes shall be restored to what they were before the reduction in July, 1877.

The Curtin-Yocum contested election case will be called up in the House this week. It is announced that the Committee has decided in the Minnesota case to favor of seating Mr. Donnelly. In the Florida case the Committee still delays.

The Ohio Temperance Convention was held Saturday at Alliance, 323 delegates present. Resolutions were adopted to sustain principles rather than party; recommending no separate Prohibition party, but to labor in caucuses and at the polls to secure sober men for officials.

The strike of The New York piano-makers appears as far from settlement as ever. Both sides express a determination not to yield. The locked out will have to stay out until sent for. All negotiations for a compromise between the employers and employes are at an end for the present.

The proposed establishment of an United States Court in Indian Territory and the division of the land in severalty among the natives is being sharply opposed in Congress. It is said the proposition is looked upon as an initial movement to the final expulsion of the Indians from the Territory and will probably be defeated.

Coal managers have resolved upon another advance in coal. The Delaware & Hudson canal company issued a circular yesterday giving new quotations, which shows an advance in all grades, with the exception of stove, as follows: Furnace lump 10 cents, steamer lump and grate 30, egg 25, and chestnut 5 cents per ton. The Delaware, Lackawana and Western railroad company also issued circulars yesterday, the prices being the same as above except for furnace lump, which is advanced 20 cents per ton. Work at the mines will be resumed April 1st on full time.

The St. Petersburg correspondent of the London Daily Telegraph says: Undoubtedly the life of General Melikoff, chief of the supreme executive commission, was saved by a chain shirt worn under the uniform. When the nihilist emissary attempted to assassinate him the bullet tore a hole in the General's coat between his ribs and hip, where penetration with deadly effect was a certainty had not the protecting mail arrested the bullet.

The Rev. Dr. Rudder, for many years pastor of one of the wealthiest Protestant Episcopal churches in Philadelphia, died leaving his wife penniless. Previous to her marriage she was a clerk in the Post-office, and after her husband's death she expressed her intention of returning to that position. The congregation of the church, through their vestry, have induced her to relinquish this determination, and will create a fund out of which she will be provided for during the rest of her life.
