The funeral of Mrs. FRED A. CASH will take place from the residence of Mrs. Doctor HUSTON, on York Avenue, this morning at 11 o'clock.

S. B. MCCORD sold a fine fat steer to JORDAN the other day, and now the quarters grace the market, and will compare favorably with the best western-fed beef.

We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to be present at a dinner to be given by the Officers Association of the 9th Regiment, N. G. P., at the Ward House to-morrow evening.

KENT's auction sale began yesterday afternoon. It's as good as a show—a lecture we should say—to hear Mr. TAYLOR, the accomplished auctioneer sell goods. Every article is struck down at some price, and many articles are being sacrificed. If you want bargains in good dry goods, now is your time.

The editor of the Mercury, flushed by the brilliant and easy victory won in his race the other day, readily accepted a challenge from his contestant, CHARLIE SMITH, to another test of speed yesterday afternoon. The race came off near the Barclay depot, and was witnessed by a large number of interested spectators. The distance was 100 yards, and alas, our over ambitious athletic cotemporary was distanced two of them.

SHOULD PATRONIZE THE PRINER.—A case of the schoolmaster abroad reaches us from a township in the southwest end of the county. A constable, whose name it is not necessary to mention, had a sale, and advertised the articles "seized and taken in several executions," as follows: 1 two horse drug wagon, 1 cark as good as new, 1 hay raik, 1 leight sleight, 2 eags vinider, 1 cultewater, 1 corn further cutter, 2 set yenger herness, 1 sadlt, 2 dubble trees, 1 shuffle, a lot berles and tups, 1 cupbert, 25 bushls seed potatoes, 1 dienerinn table, 1 purrow, and menny more articles to numerate to mention on day of sale;" and much more just like this specimen—Pottsville Chronicle.

EXPERIENCE.—The best education one can obtain is the education which experience gives. In passing through life learn everything you can. Do not be frightened away from any one pursuit. If you cannot have anything more of an education than a smattering, it is better than nothing. Even a slight knowledge of the arts, sciences, languages, opens up a whole world of thought. A little systematic endeavour—one hour, or even a half an hour a day, devoted to the acquisition of knowledge—and a man may become learned before he dies. Learn thoroughly what you do learn. be it ever so little, and you may speak of it with confidence. A few clearly defined facts and ideas are worth a whole library of uncertain knowledge.

Only a Day at a Time.

[A lady, after enduring a painful operation, inquired of her physician how long she must be upon her bed of sickness. "Only a day at a time!" was the reply.—Incident related by the Rev. Dr. Behrends.]

Only a day at a time,
To toil and hope and wait;
Step by step our world-worn feet
Are nearing the Beautiful Gate!

Patiently, bravely bear
The burdens and ills of to-day;
To-morrow's dawn perchance may bring
Some sunshine to brighten the way.

Only a day at a time!
When the future looms dark before,
And trials thicken and close around,
And afflictions press us sore.

When slander's cruel sting
And the cross is heavy to bear,
And the way is wild and rugged and dark
And we well nigh sink in despair.

Only a day at a time!
O, blessed message of cheer,
That seems the heavy burden to lift,
And smoothes our rough way here!

A word of cheer and hope,
Will life's dark path illumine;
Bring courage to the fainting soul,
And sunshine through the gloom.

Only a day at a time,
To suffer and work and wait!
Step by step our way-worn feet,
Are nearing the Beautiful Gate.

The regular meeting of the Officers Association of the 9th Regiment, N. G. P., will be held at the Armory of Co. A, in this place, to-morrow. Col. REYNOLDS and a number of other officers from Wilkes-Barre, Scranton, and Hazleton, will be present.

The following subjects will be brought before the meeting:

- Preparation necessary for officers of the National Guard.
- What method should be adopted to secure a regular attendance at weekly drill?
- Uniform system of By-Laws.
- Rifle practice.
- Encampment of Ninth Regiment during the summer of 1880.

In the evening the visiting officers and a few invited guests will partake of a dinner at the Ward House. A pleasant time is anticipated, and we have no doubt will be realized.

THE LAW OF PUBLIC SALES.—In a sale by auction there are three parties, viz: The owner of the property to be sold, the auctioneer, and a portion of the public. The articles must be sold without reserve, and unless the vander reserve one bid he cannot bid himself or have the auctioneer or anyone else bid for him. There are cases on record where a bid was not reserved, and the vander had a bidder who bought it in, and afterwards suit was brought against the vander by the highest bidder for the article, and it was decided that he, the plaintiff, was the highest outside bidder, and entitled to the article against the vander. So, also, if any article is struck off to a person, and it is afterwards ascertained that the vander or auctioneer practiced fraud by bidding himself, or had puffers, it was held, both by the courts of England, and so repeatedly by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, that the purchaser could not be held, but the purchaser, as soon as he discovers the fraud practiced on him, must return or tender the article to the vender.
