The Mercury will be issued to-morrow.

The next meeting of the managers of the Agricultural Society will be held on the 30th instant.

People who have attended KENT'S auction this week have become satisfied that Mr. K. is determined to close out his stock, and that the sale is honestly and fairly conducted. No deception is practiced, and all goods are warranted just as represented or taken back. If any of our readers have not attended the sale, they had better do so and secure bargains.

The trite saying that in union there is strength, is nowhere more strikingly exemplified than in a locomotive. How utterly powerless and useless each part would be separated, and yet the combination of many weak factors forms a product of superhuman power and vast utility. Again in the construction of such an engine the united labor and aggregated intellect of many men produce a result which it would be impossible for a single pair of hands to attain in a century.

What is to be done with Potter county. An exchange says: "At a recent term of the quarter sessions court of Potter county, Pa., the District Attorney informed the Court that he had no indictments or bills to present to the grand jury; the Sheriff also stated that he had no criminals in the prison; the directors of the poor reported that they had no one to keep at the county's charge or expense." Potter county has had no liquor license for 25 years, and this is given as the cause for the lack of court business.

TREADWELL, of the Binghamton Republican, spent Sunday in Meshoppen, and thus refers to that enterprising town:

"Your correspondent spent last Sunday at the popular summer resort of Meshoppen. It is an old Indian town, and still bears its Indian name, and its location indicates its Indian origin. A large milling business is carried on here, by D. T. Sterling, with an annual shipment of many carloads of grain in different parts of the Middle States. Its hotel, the Sterling House, built from the plans of Binghamton's noted architect, J. G. Perry, is a model of convenience, and Messrs. Damon & Sons, the genial hosts, are equal to the emergency of entertaining all who favor this historical locality with a visit.

One day last week a mysterious affair occurred near Troy, Pa., on the farm of LYMAN VAN HORN. It seems that Mr. VAN HORN hired a young man the other day who came along on the tramp. He was there several days, when he was asked his name, but he would not tell it. Afterwards, while this man was cutting some wood, the axe flew from him and gave him a severe gash on the head, which laid him up. Last Sunday he got out of bed, got a gun which was handy, and shot himself in the throat. The doctor was called and took five bullets out of him.

The man is still alive, but says he is determined to kill himself, and does not want to live any longer. There is no one who knows the reason of his trying to take his life, or his name. The people are considerably excited over the affair. He is a German.—Elmira Advertiser.

Go to Mercur Hall to-night and hear "Sherman's March to the Sea."

Personal.

We understand that FRANK KINNEY is appointed to take the Census in Athens Borough.

Prof. FITCHER, who has just closed a term of school in Smithfield, made us a pleasant call yesterday.

Mr. WILEY, President of the Water Co., is in town, preparing to "push things." He hopes to have a supply of water running here within the next few months.

Don't forget KILPATRICK'S great lecture this evening—"Sherman's March to the Sea."

S. R. BRIGGS, the popular host of the hotel at Sayre, was in town yesterday.

Editor C. D. CAMP, of the Tunkhannock Republican, honored the REVIEW with a call this morning.

A Mr. MEAD, who lives near the paper mill, is building a boat in which he proposes to go to Maryland, via: Susquehanna river. It is some seven feet wide, sixteen feet long, and provided with a cabin occupying the main part of its hull. We learn the boat is nearly completed.—Waverly Free Press.

We were favored last evening with a call from Mr. ELLIS, agent in Northern Pennsylvania for Appleton's New Cyclopaedia, a work, by the way, which constitutes an invaluable library in itself, and which no family who can spare the money to purchase it should be without. We judge the publishers have made a fortunate selection in Mr. ELLIS, who has the appearance of an enterprising, urbane gentleman; and moreover he comes highly endorsed. We clip the following complimentary notice of him from the Daily Times, Hornellsville, N. Y.:

"We learn that Mr. CHAS. J. ELLIS, lately of this city, has accepted the position of General Manager of Northern Pennsylvania for Appleton's Cyclopaedia. Last summer Mr E. studied dentistry in the office of Dr. Rishel and during the winter has been pursuing his studies at the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia. The offer of a large salary has been sufficient temptation to temporarily draw him away from his profession. Mr. E. was agent for this splendid cyclopaedia during his residence in Hornellsville. Being a courteous gentleman, possessing culture as well as energy, he met with surprising success.—He is well known to our prominent people, and in common with us they will regret the loss of a citizen of so rare social and business qualities. We can cordially recommend him to the people of Northern Pennsylvania as a gentleman of strict integrity. We wish him success in his new field."

Mr. ELLIS will make his head quarters at the Ward House, and through the aid of several assistants, will make a thorough canvass of this county. We know that we speak in the interest of public education when we advise all who can afford it to buy Appleton's Cyclopaedia.

Recently Judge LOGAN E. BLECKLEY took his leave of the Georgia Supreme Court, after serving as an associate justice for five years. After he had delivered several opinions on cases which the Court had decided, he took up a sheet of paper and read therefrom the following lines, which were drawn up in the form of a regular judicial opinion:

In the Matter of Rest.

BLECKLEY, J.

1. Rest for the hand and brow and breast,
For fingers, heart and brain!
Rest and peace! a long release
From labor and from pain;
Pain of doubt, fatigue, despair—
Pain of darkness everywhere,
And seeking light in vain!

2. Peace and rest! Are they the best
For mortals here below?
Is soft repose from work and woes
A bliss for men to know?
Bliss of time is bliss of toil:
No bliss but this, from sin and soil,
Does God permit to grow.

Judge BLECKLEY read the lines slowly and with emphasis. By order of the Court they were spread on the minutes in honor of their author.

EDS. REVIEW.—Dear Sirs:—The Elmira people seem to have come to a standstill about their monument for Adam—waiting for some suitable design. It ought not to be a very great strain on their brains to find the exact thing.

In the first place, this monument is not to be raised on account of Adam's being a good man—the only great thing he did that has made him known so well, is that he was the first man to break the laws of God, and as a matter of course, the first scoundrel. After that no more is known of him,

"And where he's gone, and how he fares,
No one knows, and no one cares."
If the people of Elmira are at a loss for a design or model, they are at perfect liberty to copy our monument to Adam in Towanda, which we here, call a jail.

Burlington will soon have a monument to Adam—but for variety's sake it will be called the Poor House.

The best thing Elmira can do for a A-dam monument will be to get the State Idiot Asylum removed to that place.

Respectfully Yours, but unfortunately
A DISTANT RELATIVE OF ADAM'S.

"Sherman's March to the Sea," at Mercur Hall to-night.

Elegantly (?) printed invitations for a farewell reception at the Laporte Hotel, have been received by a select few in this place. WILL FINCH is one of the floor managers.
