P. POWELL, P. M.

A damp disagreeable snow storm prevailed all day yesterday.

It is better to need relief than to want heart to give it.

Ice several inches thick is being gathered from a pond in Wysox, by some of our citizens. It is of poor quality, but better than done.

People who visit Elmira will find the Delavan House not only convenient, but one of the best kept hotels in the city.

The question which agitates the average Democratic politician of this county now, is whether PROLET, PACKER, & Co., are to control the actions of the party in this county this year.

The lecture last evening was attended by a goodly number, notwithstanding the storm, and Gen. KILPATRICK'S vivid and thrilling description of "Sherman's March to the Sea," was attentively listened to. The General is one of the finest speakers in this country.

Master ARTHUR WELLS, who resides with his grand-father, Col. G. F. MASON, South Main street, narrowly escaped being crushed to death beneath the wheels of a wagon yesterday. While the busses were coming from the 11 o'clock train, the boy was riding on KIRWIN'S baggage express, just in front of Ward House team, and when near the Post-office jumped off, and in order to avoid the bus, stepped one side, just as Dr. JOHNSON was passing. The wheels of the Doctor's carriage struck the lad, throwing him to the ground, and inflicting several severe cuts about the face and head. After promptly dressing the wounds, the Doctor took the boy home. No blame attaches to any one for the accident; but it should prove a warning to boys against the habit "catching on" wagons on the street.

Religious services will be held to-morrow as follows:

Presbyterian Church, preaching at 10:30 a. m. and 7:00 p. m. Sunday school at 12, m.
Christ Church, (Episcopal), service and sermon, 10:30, a. m., and 7, p. m. Sunday School, 12, m.

M. E. Church, preaching at 10:30 a. m., and 7 o'clock p. m. Sunday School at 12 m.
Baptist church, preaching at 7:30.

SS. Peter and Paul, mass at 7:30 and 10:30 a. m., Vespers at 7:30 p. m., Sunday School 12:30 p. m.

A. M. E. Zion, Prayer and Class meetings 10:30 a. m. Sunday School 2 p. m. Service 7:30 p. m.

P. E. Mission, at Nail Works School House, Sunday School at 3 p. m. Service at 6:30.

The Brethren, service at 10-12 A. M. Sunday School at 3 P. M. Rooms over Madill's Crockery Store.

"The Towanda Daily REVIEW is a sprightly enterprising paper. It is a model of typography, printed on good paper, and has the appearance of being well patronized by the merchants and business men of that place. Success to it."

The above from the Industrial Register, of Blossburg, is doubly gratifying to us from the fact that the Register is one our very best and most highly prized exchanges.

Personal.

Mrs. C. C. WOOD, on Packer Avenue, deserves the thanks of the persons who pass her house on their way to the depot, for the beautiful display of flowers in her windows.

PRATT J. SMITH, of Sheshequin, graduated from the Dental Department of the University of Pennsylvania last week.

Miss BAKER, who has been the guest of M. C. MERCUR'S family, on Chestnut street, for several months, leaves for her home in Detroit to-day. The young lady has made many friends during her sojourn in Towanda.

Master ARCHIE CORSER entertained a number of his schoolmates and young friends last evening. ARCHIE is a favorite with his companions of both sexes, and the entertainment last evening was peculiarly pleasant and enjoyable.

Mr. MANVILLE yesterday sold our old friend D. R. LATHROP, of Bernice, a $700 piano. It was one of Christies Square Grand Style. Mr. L. has carefully investigated the piano business, and the selection he has made is complimentary, both to the instrument and the agent.

Mr. MANVILLE also delivered to Mr. McCABE, of Rome, yesterday an elegant $325 organ. Business is booming, and Mr. M. has got on the top wave.

Rev. DAVID CRAET, of Wyalusing, the talented and popular historian, is called upon by the state of New York, to prepare his centennial address delivered at Elmira and elsewhere in said state, for publication, to be preserved among the archives of the proud old "Empire."—Blossburg Register.

Church Music.

Soft, through the rich illumined panes,
All down the aisle the sunlight rains,
And sets in red the purple stains,
And 'mid this glory from the skies
We hear the organ-voice arise,
Its wings the waking spirit tries;
It flutters, but it cannot soar,
Oh, heavenly music, let us pour
Our woes, our joys, in thee once more!
All, all the soul's unuttered things
Thou bearest on thy mighty wings,
Up, up, until the arched roof rings;
It dies! The last low strain departs;
With deep "Amen" the warm tear starts.
The peace of Eden fills our hearts.

SINGULAR CASE.—SCHENCK vs. MILLER, an appeal from the Common Pleas Court of Wyoming county, says the Philadelphia Times, ranks as the funniest case of the session of the Supreme Court. J. C. SCHENCK, who is denominated by his own council as an illiterate and ignorant Dutchman, asked the Supreme Court to reverse the decision of the lower Court, which refused to open judgment on a note which he signed as security for one THOMAS MAY. He alleges that MAY bought some goods of M. C. MARTIN, an agent of THOMAS A. MILLER, for $100. SCHENCK was asked to sign the note as security. This he refused to do unless he was himself secured. Then MAY, in the presence of MARTIN, proposed the following securities: First, fifty dollars, which was never paid; second, a claim against another party, representing to SCHENCK that it was a judgment; third, he assigned to him a receipt for $1,450, money which MAY had paid on a judgment against him. The latter item was so grossly absurd that even SCHENCK doubted its value. He appealed to MARTIN to know whether the receipt would secure him. It is alleged that MARTIN replied that it would, and thereupon wrote an assignment of the receipt to SCHENCK. The latter then signed a security. It is urged by his counsel that the reason of the refusal of the Court below to open judgment, was that the application for relief had not been made by SCHENCK, but by MAY, the other signer of the note. Counsel for MILLER, pooh-pooh that SCHENCK is so ignorant. They also urge that MILLER is not liable for the statements made by MARTIN, as to the character of the collateral security offered by May to induce SCHENCK to sign the judgment note.

The argument raised many a smile, and relieved for a time the dreary monotony of the business of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. Decision reserved.

Servises at Christ Church next week (Holy Week), as follows: Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, 4:30 P. M. Thursday, 7:30 P. M. Good Friday, 10:30 A. M., and 4:30 P. M. Saturday, (Easter Even.) 7:30 P. M.

W. L. HURST, (whose wife died in this place at the residence of her mother, Mrs. Morgan, a few weeks since,) died in Chicago on Wednesday.
