The News Condensed.

The English University race was won by the Oxford in 21:23.

The Democracy of Rhode Island have nominated Horace M. Kimball for Governor.

Col. Syngé and wife have been liberated—the Greeks receiving the ransom demanded.

John Quinn, once a prominent Fenian, hung himself in a Buffalo police station yesterday.

The Emperor William's birthday was celebrated Saturday. The Emperor looked hale and well.

The steamer on which Gen. Grant sailed is said to be lost at sea. The report is not confirmed.

A Harrisburg despatch says the outlook for the Greenback Convention is not promising.

A township supervisor in Berks county surreptitiously took a drink from a bottle in a drug store, supposing it to be brandy. It proved to be poison, and he died.

The Greenbackers will hold their State Convention at Harrisburg to-day. They don't make a very big crowd this year.

Joseph Vanmetter, near Keyport, N. J., had his barns and other outbuildings burned by an incendiary; several head of cattle and five horses were burned to death.

Mr. Parnell, arrived at Queenstown yesterday on the steamer Baltic. He was enthusiastically received on landing, and was last night entertained at a dinner given in his honor by the farmer's Club.

President Hayes, with democratic simplicity, walks to church and walks home with vigorous stride and with head erect. He almost always takes a walk before breakfast and a drive after office hours.

The Allegheny County Democratic primaries held Saturday evening resulted in a victory for Tilden, the anti-Tilden forces securing but thirty delegates out of over 500 to ten different Senatorial and Legislative Conventions.

Governor Colquitt, of Georgia, is described as a working Christian—a man who carries his religion into daily life. It is said that probably no man in Georgia gives as much toward the support of church and charity as does Mr. Colquitt.

During the progress of an entertainment given by the public school in the principal hall at Lincoln, Lancaster County, Saturday night, at which 300 persons were present, part of the floor gave way, precipitating about 125 people to the floor below. Many persons escaped by jumping out of the windows, which are about twelve feet from the ground.

A month ago, a secret meeting of Irishmen was held in Philadelphia. At which a committee was appointed to organize a revolutionary movement in America to free Ireland from England's rule. This committee issued circulars to 1,000 Irish associations and organizations, inviting to vote on a location for the holding of a Convention. Two hundred and fifty replies, with nearly a thousand signatures, were opened at a meeting of the committee. Of the votes cast Philadelphia was the choice. It was agreed to hold the Convention in Philadelphia, to continue from June 24 to July 3. The call for the Convention will be issued in a few days.
