The reasons accompanying the application for pardon in the corrupt solicitation cases, after reviewing the act of 1841, which makes Philadelphia and Allegheny counties liable for mob damage and which the reasons affirm is an unjust discrimination against those localities, relate the history in brief of the introduction and progress of the Roit bill in the Legislature, refer to the excitement attending every vote upon it, and say that because of intense feeling against the act of 1841 Kemble, like many other citizens, did all he could for the passage of the Riot bill, in order that Allegheny and Philadelphia counties should have relief: that he was not personally interested in the passage of the bill, but only assisted, as did other citizens of the State, in creating substantial support for it; that his testimony before the investigating committee had made him technically guilty of a violation of the act of 1874, and desiring to hide nothing and reaffirming the truth, he had put in a plea of guilty accompanied by his protest that the plea should not be construed into an admission of criminal guilt on his part; the ends of justice do not demand that a sentence of fine and imprisonment be imposed; the public conviction is all that justice demands and now since the law has been interpreted and conviction had its effect, justice will not be impaired by a pardon; that the punishment already suffered by these men in their social and business relations is altogether enough to satisfy the law and the board.

About the only certainty in the domain of the uncertain, if one may so say, is the fact that if General Grant's name goes before the convention at all, Illinois will support him from first to last. No true friend of any other candidate will flatter him with any delusive hope to the contrary. It is probably true, all rumors to the contrary notwithstanding that Mr. Sherman will also have the full support in his own State, and of course Mr. Blaine will be indorsed by Maine. Those who talk of a divided Illinois delegation must mean that in case the State has no local candidate it will give some votes to Mr. Blaine and some to Mr. Sherman.—Chicago Journal (Rep.)

The House of the Good Shepherd Catholic Orphan Asylum and House of Commitment for Women, of St Paul Minnisota, was burned Sunday morning. The upper story was used as a dormitory, and twenty-five children were sleeping there when the fire broke out. Through the efforts of the Sisters all were got out with out injury. The building was entirely destroyed. The loss is estimated at $3,000; insured for $2,000. The furniture was insured.

The entire State debt of Michigan is estimated to be only eight hundred and ninety thousand dollars, while there are nearly a million of dollars in the sinking fund to pay it with. A still more remarkable fact is the recent completion of a new capitol building for fifteen thousand dollars less than the estimated cost and the appropriation made by the Legislature for its construction. Michigan is a model State.

Senators Conkling, Allison, Carpenter and others on Friday last accompanied Senator Cameron on a visit to the home of General Simon Cameron. It is supposed that the object of the visit was a consultation on the Presidential question.

If the young man had the political acumen and noble traits of his father, he would spare the party many blunders.
