Court is in session in Troy this week.

Service in Christ Church this afternoon at 4:30.

FOUND.—A sum of money. Enquire at the office of PECK & OVERTON.

The Good Templars, of North Towanda, are enjoying a "boom," and receiving large additions.

The appeal of F. H. PERSON, of Troy, from the judgment of the Court of Common Pleas of Carbon county, was quashed by the Supreme Court.

There are about a dozen gentlemen who desire to represent this county in the coming Democratic State Convention. WILS BUCK don't object to going.

The funeral of Mr. BRUCE's daughter will take place at the Episcopal Church at 3 o'clock this afternoon, instead of 4 as announced yesterday.

JOHNSON & CO., at MEANS' foundry, are building one of J. W. JOHNSON'S improved rotary engines. If the invention proves to be what the inventor anticipates, "there's millions in it."

Another evidence that it pays to advertise. Yesterday morning a gentleman called at this office and left an advertisement of a dog lost, and stepped out. In fifteen minutes he returned and announced that the dog was found.

Some friend of our esteemed townsman, WM. M. MALLORY, has sent him a fine Short Horn Bull, from the Queen's stables. The animal is 3 years old, and is a magnificent specimen of the genus Taurus. He was bred by H. R. H., Prince Christian, and is registered as "Prince George." He is a valuable animal.

As PORTER STRATTON, of North Towanda, was preparing to come to town yesterday morning, and while his team stood in the street, ROBERT KERNE drove by, so near that the wheel of his wagon locked with STRATTON'S, breaking the axle of the latter's wagon. The result will probably be a suit in court, as Mr. K. claims he was not responsible for the accident, while STRATTON as firmly alleges he had plenty of room to pass, and ought to pay the damage.

JOHN O. WARD has on exhibition, at the Ward House, some beautiful works of art, consisting of a series of Bass Relief Imitations of Statuary. The subjects represented are: Europe, Asia, Africa and America; Sculpture and Painting and Queen Elizabeth; Music and History, with bust of Washington; Anarchy, and head of Napoleon; Peace, War, Faith, Hope, Charity.

The pictures are carbonized on leather, to make them durable, and were manufactured by a London firm.

Mr. WARD informs us that this is the only set of them in this country, and that the publishers price is $300. It will richly pay art admirers to call and examine them.

The pictures will be sold at auction, at the Ward House, Saturday evening, at 8 o'clock.

Personal.

JAMES HALE is rapidly improving, and if he does not suffer a relapse, will soon be convalescent.

Miss MINNIE PATTERSON, of Horseheads, N. Y., who has been seriously ill for some weeks, is convalescing.

GEO. H. SPRING, agent of the Singer Manufacturing Company, of Towanda, was in town on Saturday. He looks well, and Bradford county must agree with his health—and pocket's.—Tunkhannock Correspondent.

HARRY MONROE, of Troy, this county, has challenged GEORGE WADE, champion ocean swimmer of America, to swim a race of one mile in lake Chautauqua, on the 4th day of July next, for a purse of $500.

Major BARDWELL'S patent letter heads are getting in great demand in Tunkhannock.

Hon. GEO. LANDON has been in town for a couple of days.

J. A. MANVILLE went to Broome county, New York, this morning, in response to a summons to the sick-bed of his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. HUYCK returned from their bridal tour last evening, and proceeded to their house on Third street. In the evening their neighbors assembled and extended to the newly wedded pair a royal reception. The ladies prepared an elegant supper, and all present had a pleasant time. The bride and groom had no intimation that anything unusual was going on until the guests began to assemble, and enjoyed it all the more from the fact that the affair was the spontaneous offering of their friends, and was accepted as an augury of the kindly feelings entertained by them.

Our sister village, Troy, has a gymnasium. The officers are JOHN A. PARSONS, President; ALBERT MORGAN, Vice President; and L. CRANE, Treasurer. They will have rooms lately occupied by masonic lodge.

JOHN CULVER received, by express, yesterday, a full blood Skye terrier from his father, who resides at Bradford, McKean county. He is valued at the small sum of $100.

MORRIS WILCOX, of Luther's Mills, has just bought one of those splendid Sterling Organs of Mr. J. A. MANVILLE.

A trial of some importance to school teachers, directors, pupils and parents, took place before Esquire YOUNG yesterday. M. E. ELLIOTT, of Rome, was employed to teach the Pail Factory school, in North Towanda township, the past winter. Among the pupils was a 14 years old son of JOHN BENNETT. A few weeks ago, just before the end of the term, the teacher punished young BENNETT severely; indeed it was alleged by the boy, and other scholars, that he was handled very roughly—that he was thrown upon the floor and brutally kicked. Mr. ELLIOTT admitted the punishing, but denied that the chastisement was unreasonably severe. The father of the boy caused the arrest of ELLIOTT for assault and battery, and the defendant elected to be tried by a justice jury. The following named gentlemen were selected: Judge RUSSELL, T. C. DELANO, S. M. LAPOITE, IRA B. HUMPHREY, HARRY GRAY, and J. P. VAN-FLEET.

Gen. MADILL appeared as counsel for ELLIOTT, and S. W. LITTLE for BENNETT.

A large number of witnesses were examined, and the case was ably argued by the legal gentlemen.

The jury returned a verdict of not guilty, but defendant to pay the costs.

MARY EDITH WARD died in Wysox, on Friday last. The Elmira Free Press prints this sketch of the young lady's life:

"Miss Ward was the daughter of J. Osborn Ward, of Brooklyn, N. Y., a grand-daughter of Samuel Owen, of Wysox, at whose residence she died, having been removed thither from her home in Brooklyn about two weeks before her death. It was hoped by friends that the change of air would bring temporary relief at least, and perhaps permanent recovery; but the disease (catarrhal consumption) under which she had languished for nearly six months, had taken too deep a hold upon her. She sank from day to day, and at 12 o'clock on Friday quietly passed away.

Miss Ward was well known and appreciated by a large circle of personal friends, both in Brooklyn and in Wysox, to whom she was endeared by her traits of genial frankness, sincerity and her warm-hearted devotion to those whom she loved. Nor was she unknown to that large circle vaguely known as the reading public. She had marked out for herself a literary career, and her education was directed to that end. Notwithstanding many and serious interruptions by illness, she had made a fair beginning as a writer, and her racy articles of local description, character sketches, and short stories have elicited favorable notice and appreciative comment, as indicating gifts of more than ordinary promise, and have even been widely copied by other periodicals than those in which they originally appeared. To this work she brought an enthusiastic nature, quick and clear insight, and a keen sense of humor, which, added to a natural fertility in the resources of racy expression, form a combination in kind not unlike those which have made "One Summer" and "Earnest Trifler" famous. Very many beyond the circle of mourning friends will profoundly regret that the career of "Kitty Conway" has been cut off at its very beginning.

The large engine at the nail mill broke down on Saturday, and the establishment will be idle for several days—until the damage can be repaired.

The officers of Bradford Encampment will be installed at the regular meeting this evening by District Deputy ROCKWELL.

The students of the Graded School will give a public entertainment at Mercur Hall on Friday evening, April 2. The exercises will consist of dialogues, declamations, music, &c. As every one is interested in the school, there will undoubtedly be a large attendance. Tickets will be issued to-morrow, and offered for sale by the scholars. Encourage them by purchasing enough for your family. The proceeds will be appropriated to the library fund.

Of the cases from this county argued at the recent term of the Supreme Court, decisions were rendered in the following, on Monday: WARD vs. VANCE, reversed. KIRBY vs. CASH et al, reversed. FORREST vs. BERKEL, affirmed.

DIED.
