Postmaster POWELL was confined to his house Saturday with a bad cold.

The Towanda Postoffice has been designated as a French money order office.

M. J. LONG is home again. We learn he left his new bride in Owego for a few days.

Fifty five persons were proposed for admission to the Congregational church, Owego, yesterday, forty by baptism.

Mrs. OLMSTEAD has gone to Philadelphia to visit her husband. She will visit her sister, Mrs. EASTABROOK, in Washington, before her return.

GEO. E. FOX is in town for a few days, but will soon return south, where he is engaged in farming. Mrs. Fox will go with him.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. CLARK, of Chemung, spent Easter with Mrs. C's father, Councilman KEELER.

To-night occurs the semi-annual election of Bradford Lodge, I. O. of O. F. There will also be an initiation. All members are requested to be present.

Col. OVERTON enjoys the reputation of being one of the most industrious pains-taking members of Congress, and cheerfully renders any service in his power to his numerous constituents all over his large and populous district.

Mrs. ANNA HILL, of Smithfield, celebrated her 77th birthday at the residence of her son WARREN HILL, Esq., in this place, on Saturday last. Mrs. G. S. PECK, jr., of Athens, Mrs. FRED MOORE, Mrs. JAMES STRANGE, of Barclay, and Mrs. FRED WHITE, jr., the daughters of Mr. HILL, with their seven children, were present.

As C. L. TRACY was driving a pair of spirited horses near the Barclay depot on Saturday, one side of the pole became detached from the wagon, frightening the horses so that they became unmanageable and ran. Mr. T. decided that he had rather take his chances on a "spill out" than an encounter with the cars, and reigned the team down an embankment. The wagon was upset, leaving Mr. TRACY and his colored man unharmed while the team proceeded homeward. They were brought to a halt near the Eureka shops.

At the second meeting in April of the several Lodges of Odd Fellows in this county a Deputy Grand Master is to be chosen. With the several good names presented, a mistake can hardly be made. One of the most prominently mentioned candidates for the position is Mr. JOHN DUNFEE, of Monroeton Lodge. Mr. D. is known as one of the most enthusiastic and zealous members of the Order, and his Lodge is one of the oldest in the county. Should he be the choice of the Past Grand, it is safe to predict a vigorous administration and faithful discharge of every duty pertaining to the office.

Council Proceedings.

On a call of the Burgess, a special session of the Council was held on Friday evening, the 26th of March, for the purpose of deciding on any changes in the location of the fire hydrants that may be proposed. All the members were present except Councilmen Snell and Stevens.

The engineer of the Water Co. was present with authority to sanction certain changes in the location if required, when, after an informal expression of views by members of the Council, citizens present, and the engineer of the company, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the location of hydrants as adopted at the regular meeting of the Council held March 1, 1880, be changed as follows:

Change the location of the hydrant from the head of Carter alley and Main street to the corner of York and Packer avenues.

Change from corner of Spruce and Mechanic streets to the corner of Thomas and Fourth streets.

Change from corner of Elliott and Fourth streets to the corner of Olive and Fourth sts.

Change from corner of Spruce and Third streets by placing it 200 feet south on Third street, between Spruce and Elizabeth sts.

Councilman Kingsbury moved that the lamp post located on the south side of the Citizens National Bank be removed, under the supervision of the gas committee, in a northwesterly direction three feet, so as to light both Main and Park streets. Adopted. Adjourned.

J. KINGSBURY, Sec'y.
