AUDITOR'S NOTICE.—E. T. Fox,
vs. E. W. Ellis, Phillip Ellis, and John Ellis,
No. 263, Dec. Term 1876.
The undersigned, an auditor appointed by the Court of Common Pleas of Bradford county to distribute the funds arising from the Sheriff's sale of the Defendants real estate, will attend to the duties of his appointment at his office in Towanda, on Friday March 26th 1880 at 1 o'clock P. M., when and where all persons having claims must present them or be forever debarred from coming in on said fund.
JAMES T. HALE, Auditor.

The News Condensed.

Manitoba contributes $1,000 for Irish relief.

The New York Journal of Commerce has advanced its subscription price from $12 to $15.

The Philadelphia bark Galetta, Captain Pratt, was wrecked on the coast of Holland on February 28.

The Canadian Governor General yesterday gave the royal assent to a bill repealing the insolvency law.

The Blaine man captured the Kansas convention, and the Grant men of the state say they did it through tyranny.

Journeymen carpenters of Allegheny City have struck for $2.50 per day. They have been receiving from $1.75 to $2.

The Senate rejected the nomination of Alexander C. Wells, of Louisiana, to be Surveyor of Customs for the district of New Orleans.

A dispatch from Milwaukee to the Chicago Times says that Miss Lavina G. Odell, of Janesville, the well-known woman lawyer, died there yesterday morning.

Senator Thurman was at the Capitol building, in Washington, yesterday, and appeared to be in good health. He did not, however, occupy his seat in the Senate.

Charles M. Hendley has been promoted to the position of executive clerk at the White House, to fill the vacancy caused by the removal of Charles L. Chapman, with whom a scandal was associated.

The Senate exodus committee yesterday heard J. G. Lewis and James T. Rapier, the latter being a colored man. Rapier gave a number of illustrations as to the bad treatment of the blacks in the South.

During March the Mints coined: Of gold, 25,000 double eagles, 233,840 eagles and 454,760 half eagles, the value of the whole being $5,112,200; of silver, 2,350,200 dollars, 200 half dollars and 200 quarter dollars, the value of the whole being $2,350,370.

At the public sale of the stocks, bonds and other effects of the bankrupt estate of Jay Cooke & Co. there was no bid for Ogontz, Jay Cooke's former residence. One hundred and forty-six lots of Western land, appraised at $115,880, were also offered without a bid being made.

A novel note was received yesterday by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. It was from St. Louis, bore the signature of "O. B.," and contained $500. The writer said: "I intended keeping this money because the government owes to me; but upon reflection I concluded that two wrongs did not make one right."

When Kearney's case was called in the superior court yesterday, the prisoner's counsel moved for a postponement for two weeks on account of the illness of his client. Judge Freelon, after hearing argument, postponed the case till Monday April 5. Reports say the agitator is completely prostrated by the result of the election.

While Miss Lizzie Stuart, of Lawrenceville was sweeping, her clothing took fire from a stove. Her mother tried to extinguish the flames, and in her alarm gave the cry of fire. A neighbor came to the rescue and succeeded in putting out the flames, but not until Miss Stuart was so severely burned that her recovery is doubtful. Mrs. Stewart's arms were also burned badly.

THE MUTUAL

Life Insurance Company

—OF—
NEW YORK.

ASSETS, - $88,452,994.81.

This Company long since attained, and now holds, the foremost place among Life Insurance Institutions of the world. The magnitude of its business proves that it enjoys the confidence of the people. It presents, to those needing insurance, a security unequalled by any similar institution. It has never disputed a claim which was shown to be just and right, and has carefully sought and practiced the most equitable system for the division of its surplus.
