Two boys detected in maliciously breaking glass at the graded school house on Saturday, will be compelled to repair the damage, and a repetition of the offense will subject them to the penalties of the law.

One of our leading grocery firms, finding them selves in want of a clerk, consulted the columns of the REVIEW, and ascertained the address of two advertisers for situations wanted. It does pay to advertise.

An able instructive and brilliant lecture was delivered by Rev. A. L. SMALLY, of Waverly, N. Y., in the Hornbrook M. E. church on the evening of March 31st, 1880. Theme "Wanted a Man." A small but appreciative audience was in attendance. All unite in saying, the man wanted to deliver a lecture is A. L. SMALLY.

Prof. MOFFAT is to deliver his lecture on the Poet BURNS, at the Methodist church Wednesday evening. The simple announcement, will be sufficient to draw a full house, as the eloquent Scotchman has already addressed the people of Towanda on the temperance question.

Personal.

RODE MOE lectured on temperance in Mehoopany last week, and a correspondent says it was an able effort.

Rev. J. S. BEERS and GEORGE D. STROUD go to Wilkes Barre to-day to attend Convocations.

Superintendent RYAN has been appointed to prepare and read a paper on "School Visitation," before the Convention of county Superintendants to be held in Harrisburg the latter part of this month.

A. J. NOBLE is to take possession of the Adams House, Troy, soon.

Miss SANE TOWNER, who went to Kansas City last autumn, has returned, as the climate did not agree with her.

Judge MERCUR spent yesterday with his family here.

Rector BEERS, of Christ Church, read an able sermon by Rev. PHILLIPS BROOKS, on the duty of and requisites to becoming a member of the Church, last evening.

JAMES MCCABE, of Pittston, who has been employed in his uncle's store here for some months past, has returned to his home to assist his father, who is filling a responsible position with the L. V. R. R. Co. JAMES is a young man of exemplary habits and good business qualifications. He has won many friends during his brief sojourn in Towanda, and will be missed by a large circle.

Superintendent STEVENSON, of the G. I. & S. R. R., was in town Saturday.

A. B. MCKEAN has been appointed postmaster of West Burlington.

B. A. PETTES has removed his boarding house to Kellum block, in the first ward, and a gentleman from New York has taken the building lately occupied by him, just north of Dr. PRATT'S, and will take boarders.

Mrs. SWRET, of the Bridge street millinery store, is in New York selecting a new stock of goods.

ANOTHER OLD SETTLER GONE.—Mr. WM. CHAFFEE died at the residence of his son, in North Warren, March 22nd, 1880, in his 94th year, having been born Feb. 5th, 1787, being one of the oldest, if not the oldest person in the township where he has lived for forty-eight years.

He was a man of unusual physical strength; has often been heard to say that "he never employed a physician for himself in his life," was never sick enough to lie in bed all day, until within the past few weeks, and did not know from experience what severe pain was, and apparently passed away painless.

Many years ago he retired from active life, only now and then working at his trade to accommodate a neighbor, save cultivating a garden, which he has done since he was over ninety years of age, and planting, pruning, and grafting fruit trees, and even taking care of a few pet flowers.

He was from New England, and was much attached to Eastern customs; although not a professional man, in early life was chosen Representative of his native State, Rhode Island.

He retained his faculties wonderfully to the last. And few men in our country have read more books of history, antiquity, science, agriculture and politics, than Mr. C. within the last sixteen years. He has been known to read from six to ten and twelve hours in standard works and continue it for weeks. His memory was very retentive, and many of our younger people recall his stories of "ye olden times," especially his description of the methods of school teaching, eighty years ago.

His wife and several children passed over the dark river before him, two daughters and four sons remain; together with quite a number of grand and great grand children, and one great, great-grand child. Thus he lived to see the fifth generation, and as most of the past century he has passed away; like the patriarch of old, he is gathered to his fathers, and entered we trust into the rest that remaineth for the people of God and in the presence of the Savior whom he had professed for sixty years.
