P. POWELL, P. M.

Long Valley, Mr. MACFARLANE's new mining town already has a store.

We direct particular attention to the advertisement of Mrs. MINGOS, of Monroeton, in another column. Ladies in want of articles in her line will find it to their interest to give her a call.

Our Democratic friends meet to-day to determine who is going to be captain of the unterrified forces in this county during the coming campaign.

It is not worth your while gentlemen to engender much strife, as after election is over none of you will be proud of your defeat.

Tioga county is rapidly coming to the front rank in the raising of tobacco. About $20,000 worth was shipped from the Tioga valley station recently, and there is still some unsold. Messrs. Wells and Allen, the purchasers, speak in high terms of the quality of the tobacco raised in this vicinity, and the prices received are considerably in advance of those paid at Big Flats, Chemung and adjoining localities. The attention of our farmers will be largely turned in this direction the coming season, as it has been practically demonstrated that tobacco is the most profitable crop that can be raised here.—Mansfield Advertiser.

The new borough council met yesterday at noon. The following named gentlemen compose the council: 1st Ward—HARRY JONES, JUDSON HOLCOMB, J. R. PARSELLS. 2nd Ward—WILLIAM KEELER, L. D. MONTANYE, JAMES MCCABE. 3d Ward—A. H. KINSBURY, W. G. ALGER, J. M. RAHM.

Some lawless fellow broke the glass in Mrs. KILBOURNE'S show window Sunday night. The pane was thick plate glass and must have received a heavy blow well aimed. If the perpetrator is detected it will prove a dear job for him.

E. H. HERRICK, Chief Clerk to the Auditor General, is in town.

Quite an interesting case from Smithfield was argued before Judge MCCOLLUM last week. At the last township election there were three school directors to be chosen, two for a full term and one to fill a vacancy. Five candidates were voted for, and the election board gave certificates to the three receiving the highest number of votes, designating CYRENIUS FORREST for the short term, he having received the smallest vote of the three, but more than either of the other two candidates. Some seventy-five votes were cast for "C. B. RIGGS, short term," and that gentleman claimed the certificate on the ground that he had received a majority of the votes cast for the short term, and brought the case to court. He was represented by PECK & OVERTON. R. A. MERCUR appeared for FORREST. After argument the Court ordered the proceedings quashed. The controversy has excited a good deal of interest in the township, and has arrayed nearly every voter in Smithfield on one side or the other. Politics do not divide the parties, but it is alleged that the graded school at the Centre is too expensive. We believe the contestants do not intend to abandon the case, but will commence new proceedings.
