The News Condensed.

The longshoremen at New Orleans struck yesterday for forty cents an hour.

M. George Vandenhoff, the well known reader, is seriously ill at his residence in New York.

Four hundred painters at St. Louis struck yesterday for $2.50 per day. Their demand was complied with.

San Francisco is supplying the German market with wine. That looks somewhat like carrying coal to Newcastle.

The 1873 cable is broken in 80 fathoms of water about thirty-five miles from the landing place at Valentia, on the Irish coast.

Mrs. Grossman, of Berlin, Canada, is twenty-six years old, and in seven years of martial life has given birth to twelve children, in ones, twos and threes.

Rev. Herrick Johnson, of Auburn Seminary, seems to have accepted a pastorate of the Fourth Presbyterian Church of Chicago. It was supposed that no inducement could take him from Auburn.

Most of the 5,000 carpenters of New York city yesterday obtained an increase of wages of 50 cents per day. The tile layers and ship joiners received an advance of from 25 to 50 cents per day.

The Providence line of steamers to Boston, will use the electric head lights and also electric interior lights. This is believed to be the first attempt ever made to utilize electricity for the interior lighting of steamboats.

Yesterday morning at San Francisco, Weston began the attempt to beat his London record of five hundred and fifty miles. Callahan and Chen with local pedestrians, enter against Weston with four hours' start.

Representative Davis (Mo.) introduced a bill yesterday requiring the Postmaster General to mail on the 1st of each month to every member of Congress an itemized statement of all mail contracts made during the preceding month.

John Best, of Guernsey county, Ohio, the oldest Mason in America, is dead. He was born in County Tyrone, Ireland, in May 1780; emigrated to Pennsylvania in 1811 and engaged in farming in Washington county. In 1856 he removed to Ohio. He was initiated a Mason in 1803 in Ireland.

The election in Indiana for township officers and on the constitutional amendments brought out about a two-thirds vote of the State. The indications are that the Republicans make large gains in township elections and carry the constitutional amendments by a decided majority.

Whatever motive may have controlled Mr. Voorhees in the Exodus Investigation, it is generally conceded in Washington that his manner of conducting it has been remarkably fair to the Republican minority. For this he should be accorded full credit. In its political bearing—and it will be mainly considered from a political standpoint—the weight of the testimony will only emphasize the opinion everywhere prevalent before the investigation began, that the exodus is due to the general persecution of the colored people by the whites of the South. The effort to make it appear that the exodus was part of a plan to colonize, with Republicans, any locality formerly Democratic, has failed.

—:O:—

This Company long since attained, and now holds, the foremost place among Life Insurance Institutions of the world. The magnitude of its business proves that it enjoys the confidence of the people. It presents, to those needing insurance, a security unequalled by any similar institution. It has never disputed a claim which was shown to be just and right, and has carefully sought and practiced the most equitable system for the division of its surplus.
