Democratic Convention.

The Democratic County Committee, composed of one member for each election district in the county, assembled in the Grand Jury Room yesterday afternoon pursuant to a call. By direction of Chairman Maxwell, a sentinel was placed at the door, and none but committeemen admitted so that the proceeding were secret. Substitutes appeared from several districts, but were refused seats. After a warm discussion a compromise was effected, and the following gentlemen elected delegates to the State Convention: Hor, Joseph Powell, John Baldwin and John A. Parsons. R. A. Packer was recommended for senatorial delegate, with permission to appoint conferees. Powell and Parsons are Wallace men, while Packer and Baldwin are for Randall. It is understood that the two former are anti-Tilden while the other two are not unfavorable to his nomination.

S. W. Buck offered the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That in Edward Herrick, Esq., of this county, present chief clerk in the office of the Auditor General, we recognize a sterling Democrat, of unquestioned integrity and ability.

Resolved, That it affords pleasure to the representatives of the Democracy of his native county, in Convention assembled to present his name to the approaching State Convention as a candidate for Auditor General, and to hereby instruct our delegates this day chosen, to use all honorable means to secure his nomination.

Mr. Herrick is very popular in this county and if he should be nominated will run far ahead of his ticket.

The following resolutions of instruction were also adopted:

Resolved, That we as democrats of Bradford county are opposed to the unit rule of voting, and will not be bound by any rule of the kind. And it is further

Resolved, That our representatives or delegates to the National Convention be instructed to demand the privilege of casting their votes according to the dictates of their own consciences, or as they may be instructed by their constituents; and it is further

Resolved, That we demand this as a right, that the people from every congressional district may be heard, as their sentiments may be, and not be made to vote contrary to their conscience and contrary to the wish of their constituents.

Resolved, That the delegates to the State Convention be and are hereby instructed by the passage of this resolution to vote and use all honorable means in their power to have the time honored principle of the democratic party of nominating the presidential candidate by the two-third rule, maintained, to govern the national convention.

Wyoming County.

Every little while a growl comes up from Wyoming that the Republicans of that county are ignored in the selection of candidates for Congressional and Senatorial honors. To what extent the people sympathize with the fault finding we are not informed, but from the fact that no complaint is made against either the Congressmen or the Senator, we judge the discontent is not very general. We do not know who Bradford county will present to the congressional and senatorial conferences this year, but it is the sheerest folly for Wyoming with less than 2000 Republican votes to claim equal representation with Bradford in the selection of candidates. It would be equally unwise in Bradford to reject a good man because he happened to live across the line in Wyoming. Local prejudice in the question of representative officers should not be indulged in, and while the REVIEW is not an organ, and we have no personal preference to express in the matter of the nomination of Congressman and Senator, we believe the best interests of the party are served by retaining men who prove themselves capable and competent. We do not make these suggestions in the interest of any person or persons in this county. Indeed, if we were to yield to personal considerations there are several gentlemen in Wyoming for whom it would afford us the greatest pleasure to work and vote; and the gentleman who is quite likely to secure the nomination for Senator in this county is not a reader of the REVIEW, in fact says he don't want to be "bothered" with it. But we believe the interests of the constituents of both the Senatorial and Congressional districts will be best advanced by continuing in office men who have been tried and not found wanting in the discharge of public duties.

A. E. BURR—Dear Sir:—I got a bottle of your Neuralgia Pills when I was in Scranton the other day, for my mother. She was nervous and could not sleep nights, and was troubled with pains all over. Your Neuralgia Pills relieved her so she slept well after taking two doses. Send me one dozen bottles. Yours in haste,

THOMAS KELLEY.

I have sold Dr. Burr's Neuralgia and Sick Headache Pills for years. They give good satisfaction.

FOR THE PRESIDENTIAL YEAR.

"THE LEADING AMERICAN NEWS-PAPER."

THE NEW YORK

TRIBUNE

FOR 1880.

During the coming Presidential year The Tribune will be a more effective agency than ever for telling the news best worth knowing, and for enforcing sound politics. From the day the war closed it has been most anxious for an end of sectional strife. But it saw two years ago, and was the first to enter-ly to proclaim the new danger to the country from the revived alliance of the Solid South and Tammany Hall. Against that danger it sought to rally the old party of Freedom and the Union. It began by demanding the abandonment of personal dislikes, and set the example. It called for an end to attacks upon each other instead of the enemy; and for the heartiest agreement upon whatever fit candidates the majority should put up against the common foe. Since then the tide of disaster has been turned back; every doubtful state has been won, and the omens for National victory were never more cheering.

THE TRIBUNE'S POSITION.

Of The Tribune's share in all this, those speak most enthusiastically who have seen most of the struggle. It will faithfully portray the varying phases of the campaign now beginning. It will earnestly strive that the party of Freedom, Union and Public Faith may select the man surest to win, and surest to make a good President. But in this crisis it can conceive of no nomination this party could make that would not be preferable to the best that could possibly be supported by the Solid South and Tammany Hall.

The Tribune is now spending much labor and money than ever before to hold the distinction it has enjoyed of the largest circulation among the best people. It secured, and means to retain it by becoming the medium of the best thought and the voice of the best conscience of the time, by keeping abreast of the highest progress, favoring the freest discussions, hearing all sides, appealing always to the best intelligence and the purest morality, and refusing to cater to the tastes of the vile or the prejudices of the ignorant.

SPECIAL FEATURES.

The distinctive features of The Tribune are known to everybody. It gives all the news. It has the best correspondents, and retains them from year to year. It is the only paper that maintains a special telegraphic wire of its own between its office and Washington. Its scientific, literary, artistic and religious intelligence is the fullest. Its book reviews are the best. Its commercial and financial news is the most exact. Its type is the largest; and its arrangement the most systematic.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE

is by far the most successful Semi-Weekly in the country, having four times the circulation of any other in New York. It is especially adapted to the large class of intelligent, professional or business readers too far from New York to depend on our papers for the daily news, who nevertheless want the editorials, correspondence, book reviews, scientific matter, lectures, literary miscellany, etc., for which The Tribune is famous. Like The Weekly it contains sixteen pages, and is in convenient form for binding.

THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE

remains the great favorite of our substantial country population, and has the largest circulation of any Weekly issued from the office of a Daily paper in New York, or, so far as we know, in the United States. It revises and condenses all the news of the week into more readable shape. Its agricultural department is more carefully conducted than ever, and it has always been considered the best. Its market reports are the official standard for the Dairyman's Association, and have long been recognized authority on cattle, grain and general country produce. There are special departments for the young and for household interests; the new handwork department already extremely popular, gives unusually accurate and comprehensive instructions in knitting, crocheting, and kindred subjects; while poetry, fiction and the humors of the day are all abundantly supplied. The verdict of the tens of thousand old readers who have returned to it during the past year is that they find it better than ever. Increasing patronage and facilities enable us to reduce the rates to the lowest point we have ever touched, and to offer the most amazing premiums yet given, as follows:

And number of copies of either edition above ten at the same rate. Additions to clubs may be made at any time at club rates. Remit by Draft on New York, Post Office Order, or in Registered letter.

AN AMAZING PREMIUM.

To any one subscribing for The Weekly Tribune for five years, remitting us the price, $10, and 8 more, we will send Chamber's Encyclopedia, an abridged, in fourteen volumes, with all the revisions of the Edinburgh edition of 1879, and with six additional volumes, covering American topics not fully treated in the original work;—the whole embracing by actual printer's statement, twelve per cent more matter than Appleton's Encyclopedia, which sells for $80! To the 15,000 readers who procured from us the Webster Unabridged premium we need only say that while this offer is even more liberal, we shall carry it out in a manner equally satisfactory. The following are the terms in detail:

For $12, Chamber's Encyclopedia, A Library of Universal Knowledge, 14 vols., with editions on American subjects, 6 separate vols., 20 vols. in all, substantially bound in cloth, and The Weekly Tribune 5 years, to one subscriber.

For $18, Chamber's Encyclopedia, 20 vols., above, and The Semi-Weekly Tribune 5 years.

For $18, Chamber's Encyclopedia, 20 vols., as above, and ten copies of The Weekly Tribune one year.

For $27, Chamber's Encyclopedia, 20 vols., above, and twenty copies of The Weekly Tribune one year.

For $26, Chamber's Encyclopedia, 20 vols., as above, and the Daily Tribune two years.

The books will in all cases be sent at the subscriber's expense, but with no charge for packing. We shall begin sending them in the order in which subscriptions have been received on the 1st of January, when certainly five, and perhaps six, volumes will be ready, and shall send, thenceforth, by express-mail, as subscribers may direct. The publication will continue at the rate of two volumes per month, concluding in September next.

A MAGNIFICENT GIFT!

Worcester's Great Unabridged Dictionary Free!

The New York Tribune will send at subscriber's expense for freight, or deliver in New York City FREE, Worcester's Great Unabridged Quarto Illustrated Dictionary, edition of 1879, the very latest and very best edition of the great work, to any one remitting

$10 for a single five years' subscription in advance or five one year subscriptions to The Weekly, or $15 for a single five years' subscription in advance or five one year subscriptions to The Semi-Weekly, or, one year's subscription to The Daily, or,

$30 for a single three year's subscription in advance to The Daily Tribune.

For one dollar extra the Dictionary can be sent by mail to any part of the United States, while for short distances the expense is much cheaper.
