Don't forget the lecture by Prof. MOFFAT at the M. E. Church this evening.

CHARLES DEXTER of Tuscarora, was engaged in putting a wall under his barn frame yesterday, when the wind blew the timbers down killing him. He was 60 years old and a much respected citizen.

The elements seemed to be in accord with the perturbed spirit of democracy yesterday, and old Boreas' pranks in hurling dust in the eyes of pedestrians seemed to be the echo of TIM HIREN'S raving at being refused a seat in the democratic convention.

It takes a schemer to successfully cope with the game of 15, and we have positive information that Mr. TILDEN will be nominated at Cincinnati.—Elmira Advertiser.

"Yes, Mr. Advertiser," says our TOMMY, "but don't ye mind it was the game of fifteen that bate the old man after he had been-nominated."

If the people of the county were aware of what bargains are daily offered at KENT'S sale of dry goods, cloths, etc., they would flock to Towanda en masse. Mr. TAYLOR, the auctioneer, has grown grey in the business, and says he never saw such sacrifice in prices, but Mr. KENT has resolved to clear out his immense stock and every purchaser has a fair chance. Dress goons of the latest patterns often sell at one-third their real value.

Rev. Mr. DOWNER, who is holding a series of meetings in the Baptist church, is a pleasant speaker, thoroughly acquainted with the scriptures and imbued with the spirit of the Master. The Baptists ought to maintain an organization here; they have a commodious house of worship, and include in their membership some of our most liberal people. We hope they may encourage and aid Prof. DOWNER, in his efforts to re-organize and establish them on a firm basis.

At the annual election for trustees Monday, the following board was chosen: R. M. WELLES, E. M. PARSONS, A. BARNER, H. W. WELLS, W. C. TOWNSEND, DENNIS CLARK, JAMES ELLIOTT.

From the present indications, Sayre is going to be a very busy place during the coming summer. The R. R. Company commence putting up another work shop about the 1st of April, and the Land company expect to begin putting up dwellings about the same time, so that by another winter, Sayre will be "booming."—Athens Gazette.

A meeting was held at Litchfield Centre, on Monday night, for the purpose of organizing a stock company to bore for oil, in this vicinity. We have not learned the result of the meeting. There is a belief existing among many who have had experience in the oil regions, that there is oil here, and they are anxious to sink a well. We say success, to the enterprise.—Ib.

The unanimous election of JOSEPH KINGSBURY as borough treasurer and clerk of council, is an evidence that our borough legislature are in favor of practical civil service, and of retaining in office a tried and faithful officer, even though he differs politically from the majority.

It was a graceful as well as merited compliment that council bestowed, in electing JOHN N. CALIFF, borough attorney for a third term. Although a majority of the council are not in accord with Mr. CALIFF'S political views, his fitness for the position was acknowledged by all, and his appointment gives entire satisfaction to the property holders of the borough.
