JAMES H. and JOHN W. CODDING, have moved their law office to the room over KIRBY'S drug store, Mercur Block.

WEATHER INDICATIONS FOR TO-DAY.—Warmer, partly cloudy weather. Winds mostly southerly. Lower barometer.

S. L. THOMPSON, of Gillett's, found among his flock one morning last week a lamb having six legs, but the monstrosity was short lived.

ED. WILLIAMS, the gas fitter and plumber has removed his shop to the building lately occupied by J. V. WILCOCK as a harness shop, north of Mercur block.

SHAW & Co., of this place are among the most extensive lumber dealers in this country. They have large wharves at Fair Haven, and ship Canada lumber and timber to all points, even to California.

"General," a well known colored individual who accompanied Colonel HORTON north at the close of the war, has taken up his residence in Towanda again after an absence of several years.

A. M. COE, Esq., a gentleman well known to the older citizens of Towanda, having resided here many years ago, died at his home in Lock Haven last week. Deceased was a relative of Mrs. E. W. HALE, of Woodside.

The law of the commonwealth now permits the catching of speckled trout, and the only obstacle in the way of the export fisherman filling his basket is the obstinacy of the fish in refusing to take his fly.

If you enjoy "hunting yarns," just drop in at GEIGER'S shop. You will find almost any day one or more old hunters there recounting their exploits. Yesterday morning it was HENRY NOTHRUP, and he was giving a thrilling description of killing a large bear up Northrup hollow some years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. CORSER, have been bereaved in the death of their baby, a beautiful and promising boy of ten months. The little fellow was attacked with the measles and scarlet fever, and although carefully tended, and nursed by loving parents, the angel of death claimed him. The child died yesterday morning and will be buried this afternoon at 3 o'clock. The afflicted family have the sincere condolence and warm sympathy of the entire community.

A good housewife, who belongs to that unfortunate class who are compelled to live in rented houses and suffer the inconvenience of moving every year, had the good luck to find in her kitchen this year a "Good Morning" range, and after using it one week says she feels well compensated for all the labor and annoyance of changing houses—its such a satisfaction to have a stove always ready for use, and which bakes to perfection. M. C. MERCUR & Co., sell the "Good Morning," and we know we are conferring a favor upon the ladies by calling attention to this best of all ranges, which is sold at a price that brings it within the reach of all.

The Long Valley Coal Company use MOODY'S California Pick.

Personal.

Mrs. L. B. RODGERS, will go to Philadelphia to-morrow for a short visit with friends.

Mrs. C. P. WELLES is paying a visit to her parents in Quincy, Ill.

Bishop HOWE has changed the date of his visit to this place from Tuesday the 13th to Friday the 16th inst.

B. H. TAYLOR, of Williamsport, was in town this week and executed a deed to the county for the farm purchased by the Commissioners for a poor house.

Mrs. J. H. HOWARD, of Wyalusing, is visiting friends in Elmira.

Ex-Councilman SNELL has been confined to his house with diphtheria.

It was CALVIN WADHAMS, not Wadhens, of Wilkes-Barre, who was intended to be noticed in our personals yesterday, and we so wrote it, but a blundering typo made the change in the name.

W. H. KENTNER, station agent at Wyalusing, has been chosen Superintendent of the M. E. Sunday school in that place.

HORACE HORTON, of Sheshequin, drives a magnificent team of young horses. We opine he is not compelled to take anybody's dust, when on the road.

REV. J. S. BEERS and GEORGE D. STROUD, returned from Wilkes-Barre, where they have been attending convocation, yesterday.

The Rev. Mr. DOWNER, who has been holding meetings in the Baptist church this week, bears a striking resemblance to Hon. G. A. GROW. Several persons who have seen him on the street supposed him to be Mr. GROW.

ROMER, the Elmira tailor must be doing a thriving business in this place judging from his frequent visits here, and the happy expression of his countenance. These who patronize him once are quite likely to give him the second order.

We understand that several parties who have been supported by the borough for some time past now propose to "shift for themselves," rather than go "over the hill to the poor house."

We are informed that CHARLES B. WRIGHT, a Philadelphia capitalist, who formerly lived in this county, proposes to take the $40,000 poor house bonds at 5 per cent., provided they are made to run ten years, and the interest payable semi-annually.

A correspondent of the Elmira Advertiser writing to that paper from Wyalusing, gives this item of political news:

The politicians in this section are being convinced that Grant is the only man that can carry up—that is, sufficiently to reach the White House. Among the staunch Grant men may be named G. M. Bixby, Esq., of this place.

It is dreadfully lonesome up-town since MCCABE removed to his new store corner Bridge and Main streets. His establishment always attracted a large crowd of both buyers and sellers who would deal with no one else, and of course they follow him "wherever he goes." It is already a matter of remark that he has given an impetus to business in the locality where he now holds forth that augurs well for his neighbors in trade. They all say MCCABE pays out lots of money for butter, grain, produce, and many dollars from his safe go into the tills of the dealers in other commodities in the neighborhood. In the meantime his town customers have not been slow in following him, and it looks like a "boom" all the time in his store.

The following from an exchange cannot have too wide a circulation: "There is not a more odious character in the world than that of a go-between, by which we mean the creature who carries to the ears of his neighbor every injurious observations, that happens to drop from another. Such is the slanderer himself. By his vile officiousness, he makes that poison effective, which else were inert; for three-fourths of the slander in the world would never injure their objects except by the masters of go-between who wear the mask of double friendship to act the part of traitor." The Bible is not silent on this subject. "Thou shalt not go up and down as a tale-bearer among thy people," was one of the commandments of Moses.

Speaking of the same class of persons, St. Paul says: "Thy learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but tale-bearers also and busy-bodies, talking things which they ought not."
