Personal.

C. P. WELLES is in New York buying new goods.

We regret to learn that Mr. M. H. LANING, is confined to his house in Wysox by serious illness.

Mrs. KINGSLEY is very ill at the residence of her son-in-law, H. C. POWELL, in East Towanda.

Mrs. C. E. GLADDING, of Altus, is visiting at her father's, Councilman ALGER, on Main street.

B. A. LONG, Esq., Justice of the Peace and Cashier ASPINWALL, of Pomeroy's Bank, Troy, were in town last evening.

Rev. G. D. STROUD is delivering a series of Sunday evening sermons on the Commandments, in St. Peter's Church, Tunkhannock.

GEORGE FAIRCHILD is recovering from an attack of diphtheria which has confined him to his room for some days past.

WM. L. MOORE, General Agent for this state of the New York Life Insurance Company, is registered at the Ward House.

C. F. TAYLOR has been offered a position in a wholesale house in Utica, N. Y. CHARLIE is an excellent salesman and a good citizen. We don't want to spare him.

CHARLES H. SMITH, of Montrose, who represents the Fire Association of Philadelphia, was in town yesterday on his way to settle the loss of DAVID CRANEY, of Springfield, who had a large barn burned on Friday night last.

After two years of married life a precious little girl baby has been sent to bless the hitherto incomplete household of our young friend, R. G. MILLER and his accomplished wife. While REED exhibits some pardonable disappointment that the new-comer is not a boy, his friends console him with the hope that "there are more to follow," and he may have better fortune in the future.

Mr. CHARLES P. WAGNER, who was night operator at this place, and was afterward stationed at Wyalusing as day operator, has been promoted to the position of station agent at Wyalusing, Bradford county. The L. V. R. R. Co., don't often make mistakes in selecting men to fill important positions, and this case is not an exception to the rule. CHABLEY is a good fellow and we think he deserves success.—Tunkhannock Standard.

WEATHER INDICATIONS FOR TO-DAY.—Increasing cloudiness, followed by rain.

Wanted, a small, convenient house, near the business portion of the village. Apply at this office. Rent must be reasonable.

HENRY SCOVILLE, only son of Dr. SCOVILLE, of Wyalusing, died of pneumonia yesterday, after an illness of nearly two weeks. The deceased was quiet and industrious, a great reader and thoroughly conversant in the doings of the day. He was 37 years of age, and single. The funeral will take place to-morrow, Rev. D. CRAFT officiating.

ED AYERS of the Troy stage route has met with misfortunes of late. His three horses have all been sick and one of them died in Troy. The case came to the knowledge of ELEAZER POMEROY, Esq., one of the most benevolent and kind-hearted gentlemen in that town, and he gave practical expression to his sympathy by starting a contribution fund which has been increased enough to buy another horse.

The very flattering exhibit of the financial condition of the borough which the statement of Treasurer KINGSBURY, printed in another column, makes, will be perused with pride by every patriotic citizen. It has been a long time since the borough was free from debt and we join with the Treasurer in commending the wise and prudent administration of the borough government for the past few years, which has led to a result so earnestly desired by every tax-payer. With moderate taxation and a continuance of the prudent policy displayed of late years, the borough can be kept out of debt in the future, while the streets and side walks may be kept in repair and all necessary improvements prosecuted. Let the watch-word hereafter be "Keep out of debt."

In according "honor to whom honor is due," in connection with the management of the finances, Treasurer and Clerk KINGSBURY and Collector WICKHAM are entitled to special mention. Their duties have been faithfully, honestly and promptly performed.

The Presbyterian church was dedicated this afternoon, the Rev. Doctor Stewart of Towanda, preaching an interesting sermon. Rev. C. C. Cross of Smithfield, Rev. Henry Welles of Kingston, Rev. Mr. Sewell of Troy and Rev. Mr. Hood of the M. E. Church, Athens, together with the revered pastor, Rev. Mr. McMaster, assisted in the exercises.

The cost of the church was $9,694 10. The collection to-day amounted to $200, leaving a small debt of only three or four hundred dollars yet to be provided for. Services will be held the balance of this week and part of next, at least.

The edifice presents a neat exterior and the inside is very attractive.

The singing was very fine and the effect exhilarating, the perfect acoustic arrangements of the auditorium giving it full effect.

There was a large attendance, Rev. Hurlbut, of Waverly, was in the audience. Athens, Feb. 16. WILL.

Rev. WM. McGLATHERY has formally resigned the parish of St. Stephens Church, Pittsfield, Mass., on account of failing health. In reluctantly accepting the resignation the Vestry unanimously adopted the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, The Reverend William McGlathery has felt compelled, by reason of continued ill health, to offer his resignation as Rector of this parish, therefore

Resolved, That while we accept this resignation, we do so with a sincere regret at the cause which renders such a step necessary.

Resolved, That we present to Mr. McGlathery our hearty thanks for the zeal he has shown as a parish priest in his care for this church, believing as we do that the present harmony in the congregation, and the increase of churchly interest and devotion are largely due to his teachings and ministrations during the five years of his rectorship.

Resolved, That we offer Mr. McGlathery our heartfelt sympathy in his broken health, with the sincere desire and prayer that he may speedily be restored to vigor and future usefulness.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to Rev. Mr. McGlathery and be spread upon the parish records.

A neck scarf was left at the office of Dr. PAYNE, a few days ago. The owner can have it by calling for it.
