TOWANDA, PA., SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1881.

PRICE ONE CENT.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Personal.

Mrs. Capt. MANVILLE, who has been visiting her mother in Penn Yan for the past two months, returned home yesterday. Both Mrs. M. and the baby are very well.

We join with other friends in offering congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. A. S. GORDON. It's a girl, and put in an appearance yesterday morning.

The many friends of Mrs. Gen. PATTON, will be pained to learn that she is again confined to her bed with serious illness. We hope, however, to soon have the pleasure of announcing her restoration to health.

Miss BERTIE BARRON, of Penn Yan, New York, is visiting in this place, where she has many warm friends.

Miss WOOD, E. M. D., who has been spending several days in this place, returned to her home in East Smithfield on Thursday evening. She enjoys quite an extensive practice as an electric physician.

The elegant piano-forte which Mr. MANVILLE furnished for the use of the Musical Alliance at Wyalusing, has been purchased by Judge STALFORD, whose daughter, Miss ANNA, is acknowledged to be one of the most accomplished and skillful performers in that section.

Ex-Sheriff CARTER, of Wyoming county was in town yesterday.

JAMES MACFARLANE, Esq., has gone to Alabama on a business and pleasure trip. He is accompanied by his wife. They will remain in the "sunny south" two or three weeks.

Mrs. KITCHELL, of Bethlehem, was the guest of Mrs. E. O. MACFARLANE on Huston street yesterday.

Hon. Jos. POWELL and Lawyer LOU HALL have been in Pittsburg attending to business in the U. S. Court this week.

At the meeting of the conference committees at Harrisburg yesterday morning, Senator DAVIES received five out of the twenty-four votes as a candidate for U. S. Senator.—The committee could do no wiser thing than to select the able Senator from Bradford as their nominee.

E. E. LOOMIS, an old merchant of Troy, is embarrassed and has suspended.

Teas and coffees of the best grades, fresh and pure at Swarts & Gordon's.

Every article in the new grocery store of Swarts & Gordon is fresh and new. Remember this when in need of groceries.

The subjects of Dr. TAYLOR'S discourses to-morrow will be, in the morning, "Hope a Christian duty." In the evening, "Hope a Christian privilege and blessing."

Prof. S. F. ACKLEY will hold a musical convention at the M. E. Church in Asylum, commencing Tuesday evening the 22d inst. and closing with a concert on Friday evening the 25th. All are cordially invited to attend.

The enterprising people of the growing village of Wyalusing are talking a town hall very seriously. Having no suitable place for holding concerts and public meetings, the churches have to be utilized on such occasions—there is now a popular sentiment in favor of a public hall.

We hear of much damage resulting to creek mill dams from the late ice freshet. On nearly all the large streams in the county more or less loss has been sustained by mill owners, the ice being so thick and the water rising to an almost unprecedented height, a general sweep followed.

People might as well understand the regulations governing the department of citizens on the bridge, will be strictly enforced, without respect to persons, while Mr. ARNOLD, the present vigilant Argus-eyed watchman is kept on duty. Yesterday SENECA espied a gentleman crossing the bridge with a lighted cigar in his mouth, and forthwith marched him to the Commissioners' office for imposition of penalty.

There was a large attendance of Past Grands at the special session of the Grand Lodge I. O. of O. F. yesterday. Past Grand Sire NICHOLSON and Grand Chaplain CRAFT were in attendance. In the evening Mr. N. gave instruction in the revised work in his usual clear, entertaining and forcible manner.—His remarks were attentively listened to by several hundred members of the Order.

A neck scarf was left at the office of Dr. PAYNE, a few days ago. The owner can have it by calling for it.

WEATHER INDICATIONS FOR TO-DAY.—Rriny, followed by clearing weather.
