Personal.

Mr. and Mrs. KATTELL, of Binghamton, were in Towanda yesterday.

Miss TEED, of Elmira, is visiting Mrs. E. P. SEELY, on Bridge street.

Rev. C. T. HALLOWELL, of the Baptist church, spent last week assisting in revival work at New Albany, and goes back there this week for three days.

We are pleased to learn that Conductor PARSELLS' little daughter, who has been very sick, is improving.

Master GEORGE, the youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. MACFARLANE, is sick with scarlet fever.

Mr. ELMER B. MCKER, of Towanda, Pa., was visiting with Mr. ED. HASKINS, in this village last Tuesday. Mr. MCKER, on Wednesday morning, went on his way to Oswego to attend the spring term of the Oswego State Normal School, of which institution he is a pupil.—Owego Times.

Major G. B. OVERTON, of Elmira, recently secured the lot fronting west on Third street, and lying between the B. N. Y. & P. and O. B. & W. Railroad tracks in the shape of a V. On this lot he has built extensive coal sheds, and a pleasant, commodious office.—Olean Times.

N. N. BETTS, Judge RUSSELL, and D'A. OVERTON, Esq., went to Pittsburg on Friday to attend to some business before the U. S. Court.

JOHN A. PARSONS and R. F. REDDINGTON, of Troy, visited W. H. CARNOCHAN, Esq., yesterday.

We understand Senator DAVIES was in town over Sunday for the first time since the opening of the Senatorial struggle. He leaves for Harrisburg on the 7 o'clock train this morning.

T. M. SANTEE, of Hazleton, spent Sunday with friends in this place.

Dr. C. H. and CHARLIE SCOTT, of Sayre, spent Sunday with their parents on Third street.

I. ROGALSKI, our former popular townsman, now engaged with a New York jewelry establishment, is in town.

A report from Monroeton last evening gave but the faintest hope for Mrs. INGHAM'S recovery. It was feared she could not survive the night.

Misses MARY and ANNIE HARKINS, who have been visiting in this place for some time, returned to their home in WilkesBarre last week.

Teas and coffees of the best grades, fresh and pure at Swarts & Gordon's.

WEATHER INDICATIONS FOR TO-DAY.—Cloudy, with light rain and snow, followed by clearing weather.

A neck scarf was left at the office of Dr. PAYNE, a few days ago. The owner can have it by calling for it.

Every article in the new grocery store of Swarts & Gordon is fresh and new. Remember this when in need of groceries.

A Tunkhannock paper refers to a man who sustained a severe "scalp wound on the head." It's a good thing to be explicit.

Prof. Dannielle's wardrobe of costumes for gentlemen only, is now at the Ward House. Mr. Falsome will arrive to-day or to-morrow with costumes for ladies, gents, and children.

Prof. S. F. ACKLEY will hold a musical convention at the M. E. Church in Asylum, commencing Tuesday evening the 22d inst. and closing with a concert on Friday evening the 25th. All are cordially invited to attend.

The pastor of the Baptist church preached an able, practical temperance discourse last evening. While the speaker took the most advanced ground on the subject, his sermon was not denunciatory but full of unanswerable arguments in favor of total abstinence.

EMMET WHALEN, while engaged in felling trees near Gillett's, in South Creek township, on Thursday last, was struck by a tree which had been cut from the stump and lodged on another tree, and instantly killed. He was a poor man and leaves a wife and child in destitute circumstances.

Two spans of the State line bridge over the Susquehanna near Waverly were carried away by the ice freshet last week. The bridge is owned by a stock company, but has never paid any dividend until last year. It will be rebuilt, as it has proven to be of great importance to the business interests of Waverly.

The Masquerade Ball at Montrose on Friday night last, (the close of Prof. Dannielle's first term there) was the grandest affair ever witnessed in Susquehanna county. Eighty odd couples filled the floor, attired in gorgeous array, while the galleries and every available space was filled with admiring spectators. The display and the perfect management of all the details has excited Montrose as she has not been excited before since 1861.

The Little Concert Company will appear at Mercur Hall on Thursday evening. We bespeak for them a large attendance. Tickets for sale at Kirby's. The Brainard Musical World says: "Mlle. Litta charmed every one with the brilliancy of her vocalization and the tastefulness of her understanding. The company is composed of seven distinguished artists,

The First National Bank of Canton, has been organized and will begin business March 1st. The following are the officers: President—ADAM INNIS. Vice-President—B. S. DARTT. Cashier—G. A. GUERNSEY. Directors—A. D. FOSS, G. E. BULLOCK, KELEON PACKARD, B. S. DARTT, LEROY GLEASON, DANIEL INNES.

The Masquerade Ball on Wednesday night is the all absorbing topic in Towanda just now. The great and momentous question is, What shall I wear? Mr. Dannielle and his assistant costumer, Mr. Folsom, who comes from Canada to costume this Ball, can answer this question. They will introduce at this Ball, costumes representing Thousands of Dollars, and the richest that have ever been seen in this section. The array of influential names as as committees for the Ball is a safe guarantee of its complete success, as well as of its selectness. It will be such a Masquerade Ball as this vicinity has not witnessed before.

The following letter, written from this place to a gentleman in Wyalusing, could not be answered, for the reason that the writer neglected to attach her name. It is sent us for publication in hope that it may reach the eye of the author, so that she may forward her name to the person to whom she wrote the note and thus probably secure the situation she desires:

Please Mr. —, I heard that you wanted to hire a girl. If you do, please let me know, by sending me a line. I will come for $2 a week; I am getting that the year round. Let me know first of March. Direct your letter to Towanda.

Don't fail to go to JOHN SULLIVAN'S, on Bridge street, for the best five cent cigar.

Fresh oysters, of the best quality, at Jordan's meat market every day.

The News Condensed.

There was not a quorum of the legislature Saturday. It is not expected there will be any choice of Senator to-day.

Many members of the Dominion Parliament are ill, on account of the deficient ventilation of the Parliament building.

Reading stock has jumped up over four points. It was due to the report that Jay Gould had bought the McCalmont interest in the road.
