A Richmond, Va., dispatch of Thursday says: "The Democratic State Committee has called a State Convention for August 4th. The Committee has issued an address, declaring that a Republican triumph in a Southern Commonwealth signifies the dethronement of virtue, character, intelligence and the property of the State, and the election of a dynasty of profligacy, ignorance and malice, whose unvarying fruits in the Southern States have been social degradation, universal robbery and continued disasters. The address asserts that the highest issue that can be presented to the people is the preservation of their civilization and the maintenance of white supremacy in their government. This must be saved, whatever is lost, and to rescue it on an enduring foundation is an obligation that mounts high above the domain of party politics, and demands of us every sacrifice. The address maintains that the conservatives and not the Republicans are the party to effect a proper settlement of the State debt.

The New York Sun prints a Cleveland special which says that an understanding between General Garfield and Senator Conkling goes into effect only after Mr. Blaine's approval. One of the understandings is that Mr. Conkling and Mr. Blaine are to be brought into friendly terms personally after General Garfield reaches Washington. Further, that the impression is that General Garfield has passed the final stumbling block in the way to a settlement of the serious questions facing him, and that after Mr. Blaine's visit something definite will go before the country. That Mr. Conkling was utterly out of reach while at Mentor. Correspondents who attempted to get near him at the depot found him so closely attached to Major Swain that no word of inquiry could be crowded between them. Garfield seems in very good spirits.

A miner named McMillan, from Mansfield, Pa., living alone at the headwaters of the Gunnison river, Colorado, was found dead in his cabin. His limbs were burned, and the body frozen. It is supposed he was a victim of an explosion of a kerosene lamp. Over three hundred pounds of gold was found in his trunk.

The Hartford, Ct., School Board, has laid down the law that no scholar in the public schools shall be detained during recess or after school as a punishment to make up deficient lessons.

A FEW FACTS
In regard to the White Sewing Machine.

It is an acknowledged fact that the White Sewing Machine now stands pre-eminent among first-class machines, for its simplicity and light-running qualities. It is a mechanical fact that the White Sewing Machine is made from the best material and of excellent workmanship, and all its wearing parts are adjustable, so that lost motion can be "taken up" in an instant. It is an undisputed fact that the durability of the White Sewing Machine is sustained by a written warranty for five years. It is a progressive fact that the White embodies the most practical and useful improvements of other sewing machines, together with advantages peculiarly its own. It is a money-making fact that the White is the easiest-selling selling machine in the market, and therefore all wide-awake dealers make it their specialty. It is a gratifying fact that the White gives universal satisfaction, and that it is steadily and rapidly increasing in public favor.

CAUTION.
Do not be imposed upon by agents and parties who are interested in the purchase and sale of other machines. It has become a common trick for unscrupulous competitors to get a White machine and put it in bad order so that they might prejudice purchasers against it and in favor of their own machines. To guard against such contemptible trickery, we advise all intending purchasers to correspond with us direct, and we will take pleasure in giving them the address of a regular authorized dealer for the "White" in their county, or we will offer to sell them a machine direct at special prices, and guarantee satisfaction in every respect.
