

DAILY TOWANDA REVIEW.

VOLUME II, NO. 160.

TOWANDA, PA., WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1881.

PRICE ONE CENT.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Personal.

Miss JENNIE MYERS, of Ralston, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. D. J. SWEET, Montroeton, and will visit friends in this place.

Mrs. JOS. R. BEEBE, of Montrose, is visiting her mother, Mrs. HORTON, on Main st.

We are happy to announce, and we know that all our readers will be glad to hear that Hon. JOS. POWELL was much better last evening, and he will probably soon be able to attend to business again.

GEO. C. STOLL, late of this place, has been nominated by the greenbackers of Elmira for inspector of elections in the ward in which he resides.

Miss ANNIE SCREENE and Miss EMMA HUNGERFORD, of Binghamton, are visiting at FRED J. HUNGERFORD'S on Main street.

We regret to chronicle the departure this week of T. E. GAIDLEY, wife and son, of Rome, for Michigan. We cheerfully commend this cultured family to the best society in any community where they may go, as being among our most respected citizens. Mr. G., sr., goes as manager for that great national work, Appleton's American Cyclopedia, and it is quite proper in this connection to remark that no American citizen should be without this educator of families and the nation. We congratulate the publishers on their good fortune in securing a manager so well qualified for the position. Mr. G. is a man of fine literary attainments, business capacity of high order and perfect reliability. His intuitive knowledge of human nature will assist him in the selection of a staff of assistants of the right stamp.

Reserved seats for the Litta Concert have been reduced to 50 cents. Tickets for sale at Kirby's.

Yesterday was the anniversary of Washington's birth-day. Had the "Father of his Country" lived until now he would have been 149 years old.

"Tom Moore," one of the fleetest horses in the Northern Tier, was sold at auction yesterday, and brought only $200. W. G. TBACY was the fortunate bidder.

Local Boards of the Rochester Mutual Aid Society have been organized at Canton and Troy. S. W. RODGERS is secretary of the former and G. O. HOLCOMB of the latter.

Lost, strayed or stolen, volume one, New American Cyclopedia. If returned in good order, no questions will be asked, and my thanks will be tendered.

O. D. KINNEY.

FURNITURE FOR SALE.—Being about to leave town I offer for sale 1 parlor set, 1 bed room set, bedding, stoves, &c., at a bargain. May be seen at M. E. Rosenfield's store.

FRANK ROSENFIELD.

There will be a singing convention conducted by S. F. ACKLEY, in the Grange Hall, North Towanda, commencing Wednesday evening March 2 and closing Friday evening with a Concert. Admission to convention 50 cents; concert 15 cents, board included.

The Litta Concert Co. make their first appearance in this place to-morrow evening.—The Company is composed of seven of the first artists of the country, who have given entertainments in all the large cities to admiring audiences. The managers have wisely placed reserved seats at fifty cents.

A barn belonging to Mr. DESCHOUX, in Burlington township, was destroyed by fire on Sunday morning. Mr. D. succeeded in getting his horses and harness out, but his wagons, plows &c., were all consumed, together with a quantity of grain and straw, and about seven tons of hay.

The Masquerade Ball at Mercur Hall to-night under the auspices of Prof. Dannielle and his classes promises to be the most brilliant affair that has ever taken place in Towanda. The Costumes are to be of the most gorgeous description, and we have no doubt the Hall will be crowded with both Dancers and Spectators.

The second lecture of the Institute course was delivered last evening by Rev. JOHN S. BEERS, Rector of Christ Church. The subject, "Reminiscences of Lyceums, Lectures and Lecturers," was very cleverly handled, and the audience, which nearly filled the oratory, were both interested and edified. A vast amount of valuable instruction was given with just enough of humor to make it palatable and fasten it in the minds of those who heard it. The next lecture will be delivered by J. W. INGHAM, Esq., better known perhaps as "Castelar," one of the most interesting and forcible writers in all this section.—We can assure the students and the public that his address will be worth hearing, and the hall should be crowded.

On Friday evening next, February 25th., the Episcopal Mite Society will be held at the residence of M. C. MERCUR, Chestnut street. The public are cordially Invited to partake

Of ice-cream and cake,
The very best make,
For which there is at stake

the ridiculously small sum of twenty-five cts.

As this is to be the last meeting of the Society for the season, it is hoped and expected that an amount sufficiently large to liquidate the remainder of the church debt, (about $60), will be realized.

Members of the Church and congregation, if unable to attend, are requested to contribute.

The following suggestions are worthy the reflection of all who are in the habit of decrying the industries and the enterprises of the town wherein they reside. Talk up your town. Yes, talk it up and work for it. Don't grumble if anything and everything is not your ideas, especially if you do nothing to make the place better. Don't tell strangers that it is the worst place you know, that it is worse than any other town of its size. Encourage every useful and creditable enterprise in your midst, for as sure as effect follows cause, so sure will enterprise or merit repay every citizen. We cannot live unto ourselves and we cannot discourage a movement in behalf of a place, without inflicting upon ourselves a personal injury.

INDICATIONS.—Increasing cloudiness, light rain or snow, followed by clearing weather.

The News Condensed.

The Maine House of Representatives has refused to concur with and has indefinitely postponed the Senate resolution expressive of sympathy with the people of Ireland.

Gen. Sherman, in answer to complaints says that his programme for the inauguration procession is the best possible, with reference to the time he will have, and the number of men to be in line.

The cremation of the remains of Dr. Konraden Hirenzburg, of Indianapolis, Ind., and a political exile from Germany, took place in Dr. LeMoyné's crematory at Washington, Pa., on Saturday afternoon.

The World says that the Diplomatic reception at the White House on Thursday will be the farewell of President and Mrs. Hayes to Washington society. The preparations are on a scale of great magnificence.

The jury investigating the recent fall of the Buffalo Central depot, find, after eight days deliberation, that the fall of the roof was caused by the breaking of the cords holding the trusses, but the cause of this breaking is unknown.

Hon. John I. Mitchell Nominated for U. S. Senator.

The committees of the two factions of the republican party last night unanimously recommended Hon. JOHN I. MITCHELL, of Tioga county for U. S. Senator. He will be elected at the joint convention. Mr. MITCHELL is one of the ablest of our public men and has a public and private record without a blot. His selection is a happy and fortunate ending of the long struggle.

Mr. MITCHELL represented his county in the legislature for a number of years, and has been in Congress during the past four years.
