S. W. ALVORD. NOBLE N. ALVORD.

Anti-Monopoly.

A large anti-monopoly mass meeting was held in New York Monday evening, under the auspices of the Anti-Monopoly League. On the platform were Peter Cooper and many other distinguished gentlemen.

The President, L. E. Chitenden, stated that the origin of the League was an outgrowth of the abuses of corporate powers, and urged the necessity of a universal organization on a systematic basis, by the entire tax-paying element of the country.

Judge Black, of Pennsylvania, in an address of which the key-note was the legal and constitutional aspects of the transportation question, said the course of corporations had been steadily, towards a complete monopoly. Their ultimate designs were fraught with the greatest danger to the State, and unless legislation should step in to aid the oppressed people, the whole machinery of the government would be thrown into the hands of monopolists. He advocated that railroad men should be turned out of office under the government, and their duties compelled, as well as their rights observed, through the interposition of law. It was shown that by the power of their wealth the railroads obtained a large share of the control of the Supreme and State courts, and the various Legislatures and Judges were elected and Representatives selected with a special reference to their fitness for advancing the interests of the corporations they represented. The railroads were rapidly assuming an influence disproportionate to relative positions they occupied towards other bodies. The speaker was frequently applauded.

A letter from Senator Windom was read. It treated of the abuses in the management of railway and telegraph companies and laid stress on the danger of a single man controlling the educational power of the press by the ownership of the telegraphs, and governmental restraint over the increase of corporate powers. He suggested such laws as would regulate the transportation companies without unnecessary injury to them.

Congressman Reagan then explained his Inter-State Commerce bill. The following resolution was adopted: Resolved, That it is the duty of citizens everywhere to organize Anti-Monopoly Leagues, and endeavor to secure among others the following specific results: Laws compelling the transportation and telegraph companies to base their charges on the risk and cost of service; preventing pooling and combinations, and preventing discriminations against any class of citizens on public highways; the courts to give effect to the laws placed on the statute books; laws making it the official duty of officers to defend citizens against corporate injustice, and preventing public taxation to pay dividends on watered stock; in laws against bribery and laws regulating commerce in the several states; a liberal policy towards water ways.

It is believed that game of every kind is scarcer at the present time in this State than it has been at any time within the past forty years, owing to the protracted cold and snow which have prevailed with brief interruption for nearly three months. From every direction we hear of coveys of partridges found frozen to death. Last month a gentleman of West-Goshen township, Chester county, Pa., noticed that a single partridge flew to his barnyard, and after remaining a short time to eat a portion of the food placed there for it, always flew to a secluded spot nearly a quarter of a mile distant. One day the gentleman followed the bird and discovered that where it alighted there were twelve partridges frozen to death.

A FEW FACTS

in regard to the White Sewing Machine.

It is an acknowledged fact that the White Sewing Machine now stands pre-eminent among first-class sewing machines, for its simplicity and light-running qualities.

It is a mechanical fact that the White Sewing Machine is made from the best material and of excellent workmanship, and all its wearing parts are adjustable, so that lost motion can be "taken up" in an instant.

It is an undisputed fact that the durability of the White Sewing Machine is sustained by a written warranty for five years.

It is a progressive fact that the White embodies the most practical and useful improvements of other sewing machines, together with advantages peculiarly its own.

It is a money-making fact that the White is the easiest-selling selling machine in the market, and therefore all wide-awake dealers make it their specialty.

It is a gratifying fact that the White gives universal satisfaction, and that it is steadily and rapidly increasing in public favor.

CAUTION.

Do not be imposed upon by agents and parties who are interested in the purchase and sale of other machines. It has become a common trick for unscrupulous competitors to get a White machine and put it in bad order so that they might prejudice purchasers against it and in favor of their own machines.

To guard against such contemptible trickery, we advise all intending purchasers to correspond with us direct, and we will take pleasure in giving them the address of a regular authorized dealer for the "White" in their county, or we will offer to sell them a machine direct at special prices, and guarantee satisfaction in every respect.
