

DAILY TOWANDA REVIEW.

VOLUME II, NO. 162.

TOWANDA, PA., FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 1881.

PRICE ONE CENT.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Personal.

Dr. R. B. CHILSON, Assessor of Ridgbury township, made his return to the Commissioners yesterday and paid the REVIEW office an agreeable call.

HARRY GORE, of Dr. PORTER'S drug store, is on the sick-list, his ailment is the prevailing disorder, a bad cold.

It affords us great pleasure to be able to announce that both Mr. LANING and Hon. JOS. POWELL are rapidly convalescing. We hope to see them out and enjoying their usual good health very soon.

CHARLES FRALEY, one of our most skillful mechanics, has secured a position in the Pulman Car Co's shops at Elmira.

Lieut. J. M. CALIFF, U. S. A., has been spending a few days with his brother in this place.

Editor STRONG, of the Dushore Review, was a welcome visitor at this office yesterday.

Hon. E. B. HAWLEY, late of the Montrose Democrat, has been taken to an insane asylum. He has been in declining health for several years.

Hon. B. R. JACKSON, who for the past twenty years has been established in business in this place, leaves this week for Mount Clemens, Michigan, where he intends to take charge of a hotel. We regret to lose so good a citizen, and trust that he may again become a resident of Dushore.—Dushore Review.

JOHN H. CRONIN, the new post-master of Dushore, assumed the duties of the office last Monday.

Rev. F. D. HOSKINS and wife have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Fox this week.

Mrs. G. D. STROUD has been in town several days this week making preparations to remove their household goods to Tunkhannock, where her husband has taken a house and they will commence housekeeping the first of next month.

It is quite complimentary to Mr. W. S. VINCENT'S reputation as an insurance man, that he was simultaneously offered lucrative positions by two of the oldest and soundest Life Insurance Companies extant—the Mutual Life of New York and the New York Life.—We believe he has decided to accept the proposition of the latter, considering it the more advantageous. While Mr. VINCENT'S friends will rejoice with him in his good fortune in securing a lucrative and responsible situation and one he is so eminently qualified to fill, they will regret that it necessitates his removal from Towanda. We believe he is to take up his residence in the city of Erie. The very best wishes of this entire community will follow Mr. VINCENT and his family to their new home, where they will be accorded, we doubt not, the esteem and high social position which they merit and enjoy here.

Another small instalment of the "beautiful" this morning.

There is talk of building a new Methodist church on Lime Hill this county.

A section of a river bridge lodged at Ingham's eddy, Sugar Run, during the high water of last week.

We learn that the objections to Judge RUSSELL'S discharge in bankruptcy were not sustained by the U. S. Court at Pittsburg this week. Mr. R. will therefore be discharged in due time.

A traveling theatrical company played Enoch Arden and Fanchon the Cricket, at Wyalusing on Monday and Tuesday evenings, under the auspices of the band of that village. Both performances were fairly patronized.

Hon. GEO. LANDON, of Herrick, sold his neighbor, C. L. STEWART, three head of cattle, coming 3 years old, whose aggregate weight is 4625 pounds. The price paid was five and a-half cents per pound, amounting to $254 37. These mammoth steers were shipped to White Haven yesterday.

S. B. TIDD having elegantly fitted up one of the stores in H. STREETER'S block, has opened a first class restaurant where warm meals or a cold lunch will be served at all hours. The cuisine department is in the basement and connected with the dining room by dumb-waiters. Rooms in the second story have been arranged for the accommodation of parties. The establishment is conveniently located and will be liberally patronized.

THE LITTA CONCERT.—The attendance at the truly grand Litla Concert, at Mercur Hall last evening, was not inspiring to the world renowned lyric star or the other members of that entirely artistic troupe. Yet the creme de la creme of the musical people of Towanda was well represented.

LITTA'S first number not only satisfied the house of her supremacy as a vocal artist, but brought out repeated rounds of rapturous applause which even her exquisite response to the encore could scarcely subdue. In method, delicacy of phrasing, facility and rapidity of execution, as well as in exquisite trilling and perfect control of vocal power, her equal has probably never been heard in this part of the western world.

Miss McLAIN, the contralto, has a noble, full, rich, sympathetic voice, which not only satisfies the taste but touches the heart.

Miss BANGS the pianist, has a touch full of expression, yet brilliant, accurate and powerful and her shading is notably fine. Her last solo was a beautiful interpretation.

The cornet playing of Mr. SKELTON took with the house spontaneously. Both his numbers were encored as well as the Miserere from Trovatore.

Mr. CLEVELAND, tenor, has a true and well trained voice, which excels in the medium and upper registers. In the duo with LITTA, from Favorita, he rendered his part and filled his position with her worthily.

All of the numbers were justly applauded, and most of them persistently encored—certainly somewhat of a presumption from so small a house upon artists accustomed to appear before thousands.

Don't forget the Mite Society at M. C. MERCUR'S this evening. It is the last opportunity you will have of attending these pleasant Church gatherings for the next six weeks.

INDICATIONS.—Cloudy, light snow, followed by clearing weather; lower temperature.
