

DAILY TOWANDA REVIEW.

VOLUME II, NO. 163.

TOWANDA, PA., SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1881.

PRICE ONE CENT.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Personal.

JOHN LANNING, of Wilkes-Barre, has been the guest of his uncle, M. H. LANNING, in Wysox, for the past few days.

S. W. POMEROY, senior member of the substantial banking house of POMEROY Bros., Troy, was in town yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. JAMES MACFARLANE abandoned their southern trip, and after spending a week in New York, have returned.

JOHN NOBLE and JOHN FELTON, both employees of the Reporter office, are sick.

Rev. J. H. TORRENCE, Agent Pennsylvania Bible Society, is in town this morning and will endeavor to re-organize the county Society, which has been dormant for many years.

Mrs. BEN WAKEMAN has been visiting her many friends in Towanda the past few days.

Lawyers STREETER and HALL returned from Pittsburg yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. CALKINS went to Tioga yesterday to attend the funeral of Mrs. C.'s mother.

Hon. WM. D. BOSTWICK, president of the Ithaca Organ Co., was in town yesterday.

WEATHER INDICATIONS FOR TO-DAY.—Warmer and clear.

The Elmira Sunday Republican will be for sale on the streets in this place to-morrow morning.

The Ithaca Organ Co. have given J. A. MANVILLE the General Agency for the state of Pennsylvania, for the sale of their organs.

J. F. BLOCHER, of Wyalusing, lately shipped 6000 pounds of wood to Philadelphia; it had been stored since last season awaiting demand. Mr. B. is an extensive dealer in grain and wood.

There is no walk, however watched and tended,
But one ice patch is there;
There is no foot, however well defended,
But slips without great care.

The line of division of Wyalusing township into two election precincts has been lately run. It is not a division of the township, as many suppose; its only effect is to give two election boards to facilitate voting,—one at Campdown, the other at Wyalusing.

The prisoner who was convicted at the present term of court of stealing an overcoat from M. E. ROSENFELD'S store, and sentenced to fifteen months in the penitentiary, escaped from jail yesterday morning and is still at large.

The closing Mite Society of the Episcopal Church for the present season was held at M. C. MERCUR'S last evening. In addition to proving a very pleasant occasion socially to the large number present, it was unexpectedly successful financially, the "mites" aggregating over $44.

The mutual aid societies—of which there are some fifty in the State—must have agents operating in this county, as we hear of two cases—old men—in the vicinity of Wyalusing, each of whom is insured for $30,000; the most of this amount in favor of other parties. For outside parties to take out heavy policies on aged and infirm persons seems a questionable act, and if practiced must result in demoralizing the mush-room companies now raging.

Mrs. LYDIA SCOTT died at the residence of her son Hon. H. L. SCOTT, in Towanda township yesterday morning. She had been in the enjoyment of her ordinary health, and retired as usual the previous evening. On going to her room to look after her fire, as was the custom of the family yesterday morning, the old lady was discovered to be expiring. She died without a struggle.

Mrs. SCOTT'S maiden name was STROPE and she was born in Wysox township February 29, 1788. Her 93d birthday would have occurred Monday next, and her children had made preparations to celebrate the event by a reunion. She was the only survivor of the original members of the Presbyterian church in this place, and had faithfully exemplified her calling through a long life. Since the death of her husband, the late Judge SCOTT, some 35 years ago she had resided with her son at the old family mansion just below town. Her children who are still living are, Mrs. BURTON KINGSBURY and Mrs. Gen. MADILL, Hon. H. L. and LUTHER H., of this place, WALTER, of Baltimore, and CLINTON, of California.

Infirmities incident to her advanced age had prevented her from leaving home much of late years, but she was always busy, cheerful and happy. She was fond of flowers and took great delight in cultivating rare and beautiful varieties of house plants, even up to the time of her death.

The funeral will take place at the Presbyterian church at 3 o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

Found, a large brass key. Owner can have it by paying for this notice on calling at this office.

LeBastie Chimneys are being sold by canvassers around town at 25 cents each, which is too much. I will have exactly the same next week, at 15 cents for the common size and 20 cents for the large size.

C. P. WELLES.

Prof. Danielle will commence a new half quarter of lessons in dancing on Tuesday afternoon and evening next which will be the last opportunity of learning to dance under this "master teacher." The progress his pupils have made in the term just ending, is spoken of by those who have attended as unprecedented, and all who want to learn to dance well should place themselves or their children under this great teacher.
