Mr. Grow's opinion of Senator Mitchell.

Galusha A. Grow was in New York yesterday and was asked by a Tribune reporter what he thought of the choice the Legislature at Harrisburg had made for United States Senator. Mr. Grow said:

"The choice of Congressman Mitchell is a good one. He is an Independent Republican of well known ability, a hard money man who during his several years of public life, has held the respect of that portion of the public in Pennsylvania with whom he has come in contact. He represents in Congress what was part of the old Wilmot District, which I represented, and his success will be very gratifying to our people. He is a warm personal and political friend, and sound in all his views."

"Is his nomination a victory for either party?"

"No, I cannot say that it is. He has never identified himself with either Cameron or anti-Cameron, holding more to his own independent ideas. I think there is no doubt that he will be a warm supporter of General Garfield and a Senator of whom Pennsylvania will be proud."

"What do you think will be the result of the precedent established by the recent contest?"

"I do not see how it can result other than in good. For a number of years two or three persons have dictated the nominations for State Conventions and the election of officers by the Legislature so that the politics of Pennsylvania have taken on somewhat the character of what might be called personal politics; more perhaps than in any other State. The effect of the contest will be, I think, to allow more freedom of action by the people and less of the manipulation of machine politics. I do not see how the organization is to be injured by this contest, for it was an attempt to reform the abuses of leadership within party lines."

The reporter then read the list of gentlemen who, it was stated in a Cleveland dispatch, were sure to occupy positions as Cabinet officers, and asked Mr. Grow what he thought of the "slate" as so reported. He said:

"This is all guesswork. With the exception of Mr. Blaine, I do not think General Garfield has made any public declaration yet as to any of his Cabinet."

In the death of Senator Carpenter the United States Senate has lost one of its ablest members. He was a man of profound intellect; as a statesman he was trustworthy and firm for what he believed to be right. He belonged to the stalwart school, and never occupied a doubtful position. For an uncompromising man he possessed a remarkably genial disposition, and won popularity by his social qualities as well as fame by his powerful intellect. While he applied himself strictly to the profession of the law, he became at first a competitor with Chief Justice Ryan for the first place at the bar in Wisconsin. His Senatorial career at Washington brought him into a broader field, and for many years he held a place as one of the first lawyers before the Supreme Court at Washington. His removal by death from the United States Senate will be a national loss not easily repaired. Especially at this critical moment, on the eve of organizing a new Senate, he will be greatly missed from the place he has adorned so long.

By direction of the President a general order has been issued prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors at military posts and stations.

A FEW FACTS
in regard to the White Sewing Machine,

It is an acknowledged fact that the White Sewing Machine now stands pre-eminent among first-class machines, for its simplicity and light-running qualities. It is a mechanical fact that the White Sewing Machine is made from the best material and of excellent workmanship, and all its wearing parts are adjustable, so that lost motion can be "taken up" in an instant.

It is an undisputed fact that the durability of the White Sewing Machine is sustained by a written warranty for five years.

It is a progressive fact that the White embodies the most practical and useful improvements of other sewing machines, together with advantages peculiarly its own.

It is a money-making fact that the White is the easiest-selling selling machine in the market, and therefore all wide-awake dealers make it their specialty.

It is a gratifying fact that the White gives universal satisfaction, and that it is steadily and rapidly increasing in public favor.

CAUTION.
Do not be imposed upon by agents and parties who are interested in the purchase and sale of other machines. It has become a common trick for unscrupulous competitors to get a White machine and put it in bad order so that they might prejudice purchasers against it and in favor of their own machines. To guard against such contemptible trickery, we advise all intending purchasers to correspond with us direct, and we will take pleasure in giving them the address of a regular authorized dealer for the "White" in their county, or we will offer to sell them a machine direct at special prices, and guarantee satisfaction in every respect.
