Miss LILLIAN CHASE is to give an other entertainment in this place on the 15th of March.

Lent begins Wednesday. The excesses of fashionable society will be held in check for six weeks.

The various township officers elected at the late election will enter upon the discharge of their duties next Monday. The constables will be sworn in on that day by his Honor, Judge MORROW.

NEW ENGLAND SUPPER.—There will be a grand New England supper at Stevens Hall, Pennyville, on Wednesday evening, March 2, for the benefit of the church and Sunday-school. All are invited.

In noticing the death of Mrs. SCOTT Saturday, we made two annoying blunders. First in omitting the name of her son WILLIAM in the list of her children, and second in announcing the funeral at the church.

The first re-union banquet of Fountain Hose Company No. 4, of Binghamton, after thirty-nine years active service, was held Friday evening. Among the letters read at the table was one from Chief Engineer PORTER of this place.

We have received from Saalfeld's Music Store, 839 Broadway, New York, something in the way of a "ten-cent library of music," that fairly takes our breath away. It is a publication that this enterprising house has decided to issue every month, (subscription price, $1.00 a year, single numbers, 10 cents each.) which is gotten up in the same style and shape as any other music, no matter how high-priced, and yet contains sixteen pages of the most popular music for ten cents. It is certainly astonishing. The first number which has just come to hand contains Waldtenfel's immensely popular "Tres Jolie Waltzes," the beautiful little ballad, "In the Gloaming," and two other pieces. Other numbers contain the popular Raquet Waltz, Miss Thursby's Twickenham Ferry, Baccaccio March, Lady Dah, whilst the last number issued is said to contain a complete Potpourri of "The Pirates of Penzance," which ordinarily retails for $1 alone, whilst in this case it contains two other pieces besides.

Catalogues mailed on receipt of a three cent stamp by the publishers.

IT'S WHAT YOU SPEND.—"It's what thee'll spend, my son," said a sage old Quaker, "not what thee'll make, which will decide whether thee's to be rich or not." The advice was rite, for it was Franklin's in another shape. "Take care of the pence, and the pounds will take care of themselves." But it cannot be too often repeated. Men are continually indulging in small expenses, saying to themselves that it is only a trifle, yet forgetting that the aggregate is serious, that even the seashore is made up of petty grains of sand. Ten cents a day is even thirty-six dollars and a half a year, and that is the interest on a capital of six hundred dollars.

The man who saves ten cents a day only is so much richer than he who does not as if he owned a life estate in a house worth six hundred dollars, and if invested quarterly does not take half that time. But ten cents a day is child's play, some will exclaim. Well, then, John Jacob Astor used to say that when a man who wishes to be rich has saved ten thousand dollars he has won half the battle. Not that Astor thought ten thousand much, but he knew that in making such a sum a man required habits of prudent economy which would keep him advancing in wealth. How many, however, spend ten thousand in a few years in extra expenses, and then, on looking back, cannot tell, as they say, "where the money went to." To save is to get rich. To squander, even in small sums, is the first step towards the poor house.

Latest style of Hats and Caps just received at M. E. Rosenfield's.

C. P. WELLES.

Prof. Danielle will commence a new half quarter of lessons in dancing on Tuesday afternoon and evening next which will be the last opportunity of learning to dance under this "master teacher." The progress his pupils have made in the term just ending, is spoken of by those who have attended as unprecedented, and all who want to learn to dance well should place themselves or their children under this great teacher.

Having sold my retail Furniture and Undertaking business, known as the Bridge Street Furniture Store to E. B. Pierce I would respectfully recommend those in need of goods in his line to call on him at the old stand.

I also wish to inform those indebted to me that it will be necessary to settle the accounts soon.
