

DAILY TOWANDA REVIEW.

VOLUME II, NO. 165.

TOWANDA, PA., TUESDAY, MARCH 1, 1881.

PRICE ONE CENT.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Personal.

LEGRAND BREWER, we regret to learn, is suffering from a painful and protracted attack of inflammatory rheumatism.

"Mine host" KELLOGG, the genial landlord of the Elwell House, is confined to his room with the epidemical cold.

Judge MORROW presided at Court Saturday for the first time during the term.

The Pittston Newsdealer says CHARLIE PATCH will commence business here again this spring.

We are pleased to hear that our old friend and former townsman, Maj. G. B. OVERTON has made some very lucky ventures in oil.

Hon. B. RUSH JACKSON was in town yesterday on his way to his new home in Mt. Clemmens, Mich. In addition to conducting a large summer hotel he expects to open a coal yard there.

M. H. SCOTT, Mr. SHAW's agent at Fair Haven, N. Y., is visiting his parents on Third street. Although MORG has been absent almost a year he is thoroughly posted in all that has transpired here, as he is a subscriber to and constant reader of the REVIEW.

Miss MARY ELWELL returned to her home in Bloomsburg yesterday after a pleasant visit of several weeks with friends in this place.

The Cawker City, Kan., Free Press says that "J. C. VANCE is the sole proprietor of the homeliest dog in town."

J. O. WARD has purchased the Tioga Hotel at Waverly and will have the elegant hostelry open to the public again in a few days.

A gentleman from this county who recently visited Washington says Mrs. Col. OVERTON'S baby is a general favorite at Willard's Hotel, where the Colonel and his family are boarding.

E. DE WITT MASON, owner of the Tioga House, Waverly, was in town yesterday negotiating for a sale of the property to J. O. WARD.

We find in the West Chester Local News the following notice of a clergyman well and favorably known in this county, and who was formerly rector of St. Paul's, at Troy:

Rev. W. G. Ware, rector of St. James Episcopal church, Downingtown, will preach a special course of sermons during the Lenten season. The first will be preached on Sunday evening. The theme will be: "The Use and Abuse of Lent." The public is cordially invited to come and hear him.

There are signs of a general break-up and high water.

March is ushered in with a blizzard and a snow storm.

WEATHER INDICATIONS FOR TO-DAY.—Snow or rain, followed by clearing weather.

Found—A fur glove. Owner can have it by calling at this office and paying for this notice.

G. L. ROSS is decorating his new store in the Montanye block with numerous signs, which looks as though he had come to stay.

The Lehigh Valley Company will sell tickets from this place to Washington and return from to-day until Thursday, at $11.35, good for ten days. The fare from Elmira is $12.

We hope our people will turn out to-night and hear "Castelar" lecture on the "Power of Knowledge," at the Institute. Lecture begins at half-past seven and is free. Everybody is invited.

MILLER'S hacks run to all trains—the late at night and early morning. No matter what train you want to take he will get you there. Leave orders at his new office, just below the Council Rooms.

"The Social Dozen," is the significant title of a new society club composed of congenial young ladies and gentlemen of this place.—Whether the membership is restricted to the number indicated by the name we are not informed. The initial meeting was held on Friday evening at T. C. DELANO'S.

Twenty-six new applications for membership in Crystal Lodge, Knights of Honor, in the last two weeks. After the next meeting the initiation fee will be advanced from $5 to $10. All who wish to avail themselves of the present low fee must present their names next Monday night, as that will be the last opportunity.

Big Fire at Troy.

Special to the Review.

Brainard Bowen's large tannery at this place was consumed by fire yesterday morning. The fire caught from the engine-room. It was not discovered till the engine-room had burned and the main building was well under way. A large amount of stock, ready for the market, was consumed. The loss was large, but, probably nearly covered by insurance. A small tenant house near the tannery was also burned. Mr. Bowen will probably rebuild at once. R. R. W. Troy, Pa.

Monroe.

Clarence Northrop lost an interesting little girl on Saturday the 26th inst., from injuries received while at play in the school-room. Age six years.

Stranger than fiction. Amos Miller, a man hitherto supposed to have the fear of the great Supreme before his eyes, has had an allwinter's job framing a building right before my study window; and everytime that he attempts work on the frame, a blizzard, or a storm, or a cold snap or snarl sets in, so that he has to stop work. It is so this (Monday) morning; he had not been at work twenty minutes before it rained hard enough to drive him to shelter. Perhaps he had better pray a little, and see if matters won't mend.

There is a move to have the post-office placed down at the centre of the town, just to accommodate better all round. Nute Rhine-vault and Mr. Deplume are agitating the thing,—both of them popular with the new administration. N. B.—No change of post-master is asked for yet; but then a change of place will do to begin with. Revolutions never act out the crab and go backwards.

One solitary blue bird reports himself. He left Washington in haste, and was inquiring for Mentor on business; he had the "blues" a little about the appointments. His old nest is ready for him. That is some comfort. Feb. 28th. N. D. P.

The News Condensed.

Coal scuttles are now manufactured of rubber.

New woollen goods are striped with gilt or silver.

Easter lilies are already abundant in the florist's windows.

Three carloads of "bob" veal were seized in New York yesterday.

It is estimated by the Treasury officials that the reduction of the public debt for month of February will be about $10,000,000.

Twenty-six hundred tickets for the inauguration ball have already been sold. It is expected that eight thousand will be disposed of.

The crush at Mrs. Hayes's farewell Saturday afternoon reception was very great. Crowds went away unable to effect an entrance.

Men excavating a rock on Sixty-first street, New York, on Saturday touched off a tremendous blast. Rubbish was flung hundreds of feet smashing the windows in many houses and fatally wounding a child.

It is stated that the following is the cablegram John Devoy sent to Sir Wm. Harcourt: "You talk of stamping out. Two can play at that game, and he has less to lose who has the least to sacrifice."

The report that Edmunds is seriously ill has no foundation except that he has a cold and a slight attack of neuralgia.

Bertha Heinman was arrested in New York Saturday afternoon, charged with obtaining $500 on a forged check for $13,000 and stealing a large quantity of jewelry from a Staten Island boarding house.

It is said that many New York Custom House officers have been shrieking their duties, some absenting themselves twenty days at a time. Hereafter officers will not be paid for the days they are absent unless they furnish satisfactory explanations.
